Outlook Dim For Stopgap Berlin Deal

Gromyko Refuses To Cut His Price; Parley Deadlocked

GENEVA (AP) — Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko rejected Friday a vigorous Western bid to get him to cut his asking price for a stopgap Berlin settlement. The Western powers were reported steeped in pessimism.

For the first time since the foreign ministers conference resumed Monday the Big Four met privately at luncheon in what some called "tea party" diplomacy. The ministers talked for nearly three hours and the West reported: "No progress."

The West was seeking to get Gromyko to talk about a Berlin settlement without insisting on a companion agreement that delegates of the two Germanys sit down at the same tabie and negotiate with each other. Informants reported Gromyko said again and again the Soviet Union would not separate Berlin from such a Pan-German move.

So, after seven weeks of talks the conference is at an impasse. Western officials said it was too early to talk of a breakoff but added that if Gromyko continues to stick to this same line, the conference may end in failure.

This was in sharp contrast to the air of optimism which prevailed Monday at the start of the resumed sessions. The Western powers at that time seemed convinced the Russians would agree to a Berlin truce without strings. The question of talks between the two Germanys is the big string.

The Russians are demanding that representatives of their East German ally join West German delegates on some kind of negotiating body. If this price isn't met, Gromyko hints, the chances for a Berlin settlement are slim.

Some Western officials were reported to believe the Russians aren't really interested in a Berlin settlement but rather in getting talks started between the two Germanys.

The Western powers seemed to be pretty well convinced the Russians are making a major pitch to give East Germany a greater measure of power and prestige. At this stage at least the West seems united in opposition to boosting East Germany, which they regard as a legal fiction kept together only by 22 Soviet divisions.

Conferees Hike Foreign Aid Bill

WATERTOWN, N.Y. (AP) — A shapely young waitress admitted, state police reported, that she shot and killed a handsome young golf professional on the St. Lawrence University campus early Friday.

Dist. Atty. Charles E. Bowers of St. Lawrence County said the woman, Miss Theresa de Francesco, 23, would be charged with first-degree murder.

The golf pro, Richard Smith, 27, was found shot to death in his car. He was golf coach at the university and pro at a local club.

Smith's family said the two apparently met while both were in Miami, Fla., last winer.

His father, a golf pro at Binghamton, said Miss De Francesco telephoned his son from Miami, Fla., several times this spring after the younger Smith had returned north.

Bowers quoted the woman as saying that she loved young Smith but he did not love her. The district attorney said he understood that Smith had received money and diamonds from Miss De Francesco in Miami.

The .22-caliber revolver with which he was slain was found in Miss De Francesco's luggage, Bowers reported.

State police said Smith had a date with another woman Thursday night. He left her at 2 a.m. Friday, they related, and then apparently picked up Miss De Francesco.

State police said Miss De Francesco hitchhiked a ride on a truck leaving Canton Friday morning and rode to Malone.

From Malone, she contacted Patrick J. McCarthy, 49, of Bombay, who had been staying at Fort Covington.

Troopers said McCarthy drove her around a good part of the day unaware of the shooting. He reported to state police at Malone after hearing a radio broadcast that he was sought.

No charge was placed against McCarthy, who said he nad met the woman a couple of weeks ago in Malone.

Partial Victory For Eisenhower

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A congressional conference committee handed President Eisenhower a partial victory Friday by approving a $3,556,200,000 foreign aid bill that was bigger than either the Senate or House had originally approved.

The compromise measure, however, was still about 353 million dollars short of the $3,909,000,000 Eisenhower sought to bolster U.S. Allies around the world against the Communist threat. This represented a cut of about 9 per cent.

Even so, the compromise total was an improvement from Eisenhower's viewpoint over the $3,542,600,000 voted by the House and the $3,543,320,000 voted by the Senate.

Had Threatened Recall

The President had threatened to recall Congress in special session this fall unless the lawmakers approved what he called an adequate aid bill.

The compromise now goes to both houses for final approval.

Although the measure appeared certain of congressional passage, the foreign aid battle was far from over. Economy advocates will get a further crack at the program when Congress considers another bill carrying the actual cash authorized by Friday's measure.

The fact that the compromise was larger than either the Senate or House totals resulted from the fact that the conferees generally split the differences on money items in the two versions.

$1.4 Billion In Military Aid

On the main issues, the conferees:

—Approved $1,400,000,000 for military aid, compared with $1,600,000,000 asked by Eisenhower, $1,440,000,000 voted by the House and $1,300,000,000 by the Senate.

—Approved a two-year program of congressional appropriations for the Development Loan Fund, through which most economic aid is channelled. It voted $70,000,000 for this year and $1,100,000,000 for next year.

—Approved 751 million dollars for so-called defense support—money used to bolster the economies of weaker allies so that they can divert more of their own funds to their armed services.

—Approved $247,500,000 for outright "special assistance" grants.

Russians Won't Censor Stories Of Nixon's Trip

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon announced Friday that the Soviet government has given assurances that American newsmen accompanying him to Russia will be able to file stories freely and without delay.

Nixon interpreted this to mean that American correspondents will be allowed to cover the trip "without censorship"—one of several goals sought by the vice president in connection with his visit.

Nixon said in a statement that the Soviet Foreign Office had advised the U. S. government that the rules applicable to American newsmen will be "just as in the Macmillan case."

The vice president noted that during the recent Moscow visit of British Prime Minister Macmillan to Russia censorship restrictions were dropped for members of the press accredited to his party.

Woman Admits Killing, Mutilating Two Brothers

ANNISTON, Ala. (AP)—Police said Friday that tall, dark-haired Viola Hyatt told them she killed and mutilated two brothers living on her father's farm, then hauled the bodies up to 50 miles away before dumping them.

The plump, 30-year-old resident of White Plains, Ala., a small community in northeast Calhoun County, was questioned for about six hours Thursday night before she began to tell the story, officers added.

Walter L. Allen, chief investigator for the State Department of Public Safety, said two warrants were issued charging Miss Hyatt with murder. Sheriff Roy Snead of Calhoun County said it will be up to a grand jury to fix the degree of murder.

Floyd Mann, state public safety director, said four things contributed to the motive in the brutal slayings three weeks ago.

He listed them as physical abuse to her by the men, physical abuse to her father, "drinking habits" of the men which irritated the family, and argument over the use of a car.

Authorities identified the victims as Emmett Harper, 48, and Lee Ander Harper, 55.

Both lived in a box-type house trailer near the unpainted frame farm house where Miss Hyatt lived with her elderly father and stepmother, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Hyatt.

The bodies were found June 28 and 29 in rural areas near Gadsden, Ala. Their faces were blasted beyond recognition by a shotgun charge and their arms and legs were hacked off and missing.

Eisenhower Assurances Given Bohlen

Attitude Indicates Envoy Will Get Top Job In State Dept.

It remained to be seen whether he would get a top State Department job, but Eisenhower's attitude seemed to indicate he would.

White House secretary James C. Hagerty relayed Eisenhower's feelings about Bohlen after another day of discussion and speculation over how the administration feels about naming Bohlen a special adviser on the Soviet Union.

Philippine Ambassador Carlos P. Romulo told reporters he had been told by Undersecretary of State C. Douglas Dillon that Eisenhower was upset by newspaper stories quoting him on the Bohlen matter.

Ike Sends Wire, Letter

Romulo said Dillon told him Eisenhower had ordered a telegram to be sent to Bohlen, to be followed by a personal letter, assuring him that he didn't mean to convey the impression he was cool to the idea of Bohlen being appointed.

Bohlen, now ambassador to Manila and formerly ambassador to Moscow, is one of the recognized State Department experts on the U.S.S.R. and international communism. However, some Republican senators look on him with disfavor.

Hagerty added that Eisenhower has a great deal of confidence in Bohlen.

There was no comment from Hagerty on whether Eisenhower is writing Bohlen a letter.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter told a news conference July 9 that he had discussed a departmental post with Bohlen several months ago. He wasn't specific.

Matter Of Interpretation

Eisenhower was asked about this Wednesday and there followed the statements which he is reported to believe were misinterpreted.

He said then that Herter had brought up Bohlen's name with him.

He said Herter did this "because he had seen stories in the paper that this was going to be done and he said as far as he is concerned, he had done nothing about it and didn't intend to at the moment."

"So, in other words," Eisenhower added, "his report to me was completely negative."

Most news accounts interpreted this to mean that Eisenhower was knocking down the idea that Bohlen might get the Washington Russian job.

Burney Sounds Polio Warning

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney warned Friday that paralytic polio is on the upsurge and taking its heaviest toll among the unvaccinated.

Pointing up his warning, the Public Health Service reported that the nation's polio count climbed last week by 179 cases. Of these, 111 were paralytic.

The increase brought the total polio toll for the first 27 weeks of the year to 1,208 cases—791 of them of the crippling type.

The health service said the number of paralytic cases so far is more than double the 385 reported for the same period of 1958.

The total number of cases, including non-paralytic, at the same time last year was 754 cases.

Burney said nine out of 10 of the new polio cases have occurred among persons who have not had Salk vaccine shots. So far, about 70 million of 170 million Americans have had one or more of the anti-polio shots.

There have been three deaths from polio this year, all adult males.

Scandinavian States Warned By Khrushchev

SZCZECIN, Poland (AP) — Nikita S. Khrushchev charged Friday that aggressive circles want to establish rocket bases in Scandinavia to draw Soviet nuclear retaliation there instead of on themselves.

The Soviet Premier did not specify whom he meant by aggressive circles but the United States seemed an obvious target.

In a vigorous speech before about 10,000 Poles in this former German port city of Stettin, he also pledged armed Soviet defense of the border between East and West Germany.

Khrushchev also proclaimed his country's determination to fight against any attempt to take away from Communist Poland the territories it gained from Germany after World War II.

To dramatize this stand, Khrushchev was made an honorary citizen of Szczecin in a ceremony in the town hall.

Two weeks before he is to leave on a good-will tour through Scandinavian nations, Khrushchev took this occasion to warn those nations of possible destruction if rocket bases are established on their soil.

Stampede Claims At Least 62 Lives

SEOUL, Korea, Saturday (UPI) —At least 62 persons were reported killed and hundreds injured Friday when a sudden rainstorm sent thousands of panic-stricken persons stampeding out of a crowded stadium in Pusan.

Latest reports said the death toll included 34 women and more than a dozen children.

Orient Press news agency said the death toll was expected to rise.

The victims were crushed, smothered and trampled to death in the wild confusion and panic.

Dispatches sent from Pusan by Orient Press said thousands of spectators rose almost in a body and began pushing and clawing their way out of the stadium through a narrow gate when the storm struck.

Arsonists Destroy Teamster's Home

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. (UPI)— The home of a Detroit Teamster Union official and close friend of Teamster boss Jimmy Hoffa, was destroyed Thursday night by fire which police said was set by arsonists.

Three empty five-gallon gasoline cans and a fourth partly empty can were found in the two-story brick veneer hilltop house in Bloomfield Township. The home was completely destroyed. Only the shell, the basement and the garage remained. Damage was estimated between $30,000 and $50,000.

The home was occupied by Charles O'Brien, 28, business agent for Detroit Teamster Union Local 299—Hoffa's home union. O'Brien, his wife, Mary Ann, and two children, Charles, 5, and Josephine, 2, were away.

Nun, 65, Hopes To Break Sound Barrier In Jet

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — A 65-year-old nun is looking forward to breaking the sound barrier in an Air Force jet.

Sister Aquinas, science supervisor for schools in the Green Bay Catholic diocese, said Friday she has been promised an opportunity to go up in a jet next month at Hamilton Air Force Base in California.

She has ridden in a jet trainer —but this time she hopes to be able to serve as copilot and break the sound barrier.

Sister Aquinas said she is leaving Sunday—by plane, naturally— to conduct a two-week science workshop at the University of San Francisco. Then she plans to go to Hamilton for briefing before her speed flight.

Batista Seeks American Visa

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Cuban President Fulgencio Batista has applied for a visa to come to the United States from the Dominican Republic where he now is in exile.

The State Department said Friday in answer to an inquiry, that Batista applied for the visa about a week ago.

A department spokesman declined to forecast whether Batista will be allowed to enter this country.

But, top department officials were understood to be cool to the idea.

Press officer Joseph W. Reap, commenting on the American attitude, said only: "Admission of aliens to the United States is governed by the Immigration and Naturalization Act. The application of former President Batista will be considered in the light of pertinent provisions of this legislation."

Reap said he did not know what kind of visa Batista had requested.

Jazz Great Billie Holiday Dies On Low, Sad Note

NEW YORK (AP)—Billie Holiday, child of sordidness and slums, who rose through the smoky night clubs of Harlem to fame as a magnificent singer of the blues, died Friday on a low, sad note.

Liquor and dope and high living ruined her body and stole the vibrance from her tremendous voice. She died in Metropolitan Hospital, a city institution. In her bank account she had 70 cents.

Technically, she was under arrest and, in death, she slipped the bonds of the law for the last time. A long-time dope a 'dict, a packet of heroin was found in her hospital bed after her admittance May 31. For a time there was a police guard on her door but it was eventually removed.

Dope was Miss Holiday's undoing all her life. She had a long record, and in New York was banned from night clubs in recent years because of her addiction.

It probably was the dope that finally killed her. But medically her death in the small, quiet hours before dawn was attributed to congestion of the lungs complicated by heart failure. Her liver and kidneys also were ravaged.

Her estranged husband, Louis McKay, flew in from California to share her final days. Her loyal manager, Joe Glaser, had a $50,000 movie contract for her life story awaiting her signature.

Her room was flooded with telegrams of best wishes—from Frank Sinatra, Harry Belafonte, Count Basie, Tallulah Bankhead, to name a few.

Layoffs Mount As Steel Strike Effects Spread

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The effects of the 3-day-old steel strike cut deeper into the nation's economy Friday with more layoffs, walkouts and soaring production losses.

In Washington, President Eisenhower conferred on the steel situation with Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell. The White House declined to provide any details.

Elsewhere public officials got ready for an avalanche of relief requests; defense plans were snarled in at least one installation; and 200 million dollars worth of construction work in steel plants was halted.

The strike of half a million United Steelworkers of America already has brought idleness to 30,000 workers in railroads, coal mines, Great Lakes ore carriers, trucking and other industries.

Each day the strike continues the production loss amounts to 300,000 ingot tons of steel with wage losses running 70 million dollars a week.

So far there's no sign of settlement. Federal mediation talks in the dispute will be resumed Monday in New York. Neither industry nor the union has shown any signs of retreating from their last bargaining positions.

An estimated 5,000 building tradesmen in the Chicago-Gary-East Chicago, Ind., area refused to cross Steelworkers picket lines Friday, halting work on some 200 million dollars of construction work in steel plants.

This included 100 million dollars of work at U.S. Steel's Chicago and Gary works and about 85 million dollars worth of construction at Inland Steel's Indiana Harbor plant.

Also affected were Youngstown Sheet & Tube in East Chicago and the Acme Steel Co., Riverdale, Ill., with about 20 million dollars in projects halted.

The strike also spread to the core of the nation's defense with plans snarled for the completion of three Atlas missile-launching sites near Cheyenne, Wyo.

Near-Treason Charge Made By Cuba Hero

Workers, Students Join In Demanding Fidel Stay In Office

Urrutia Resigns

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro resigned as prime minister of Cuba Friday night accusing President Manuel Urrutia of "an attitude bordering on treason."

He also accused the President, a former judge he personally put in office earlier this year, of immobility and of failing to discharge his duties.

This in turn, Castro told a television audience, has created "discrepancies of moral order."

He did not immediately elaborate.

This is the second time within past two weeks that the bearded rebel leader had accused close associates of treason or near treason. The other was the case of former Cuban air force chief, Maj. Pedro Luis Diaz Lanz, who accused Castro of being a Communist.

No Comment From Urrutia

Urrutia, who has also strongly criticized communism in Cuba, was not available for comment. At the presidential palace he refused to receive newsmen.

Castro said he reached his decision to resign "very bitterly."

He said he had "almost worked myself to death over the agrarian reform program," and at the same time President Urrutia had asked for a leave of absence.

"My differences with the President go back perhaps 40 or 50 days," Castro said. "One day we were all surprised by a request from the President for a leave of 30 days at a time when we had decided to reshuffle our Cabinet, and when we had been living as the target of an intense foreign campaign.

"Did I agree to a leave for the president at a time when we did not even have a substitute? We had to go see him and try and dissuade him. We had to tell him that to take a leave of absence at that time would leave a big vacuum in our government."

President "Openly Hostile"

Then he continued, "The President became openly hostile. No decree came out as law. Everything accumulated. Everything was paralyzed.

Castro suggested that difficulties with Urrutia had forced him to take the prime minister's office originally. It was made clear at that time, he said, that Urrutia should not preside over the Cabinet.

Workers rallied to his support within hours after Castro's decision became public in the newspaper Revolucion, organ of his 26th of July Movement. People walked off their jobs in shops and factories and marched to the presidential palace. They were joined along the way by students. There they shouted their support for Castro and his revolution.

Governors End Tour Of Russia

MOSCOW (UPI) — Seven United States governors ended a three-week tour of the Soviet Union Friday and headed back home to tell the folks—and President Eisenhower—what they saw and heard.

The governors went their separate ways on the trip back home, and it was understood they would get together again in Washington on July 31 to report to President Eisenhower.

At a news conference before they left the state chief executives led by Gov. Leroy Collins (D-Fla.), expressed disappointment over their discussion Thursday with Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan.

Gov. George Clyde (R-Utah) said Mikoyan told them Russia wanted trade with the United States but could do without it.

Clyde said the deputy premier listed manganese, chrome, platinum, cellulose and crabmeat as commodities the Soviet Union could sell to the United States as well as synthetic and plastic plants, plastic consumer goods, steel pipes and artificial leather for shoes.

ANNISTON, Ala. (AP)—Police said Friday that tall, dark-haired Viola Hyatt told them she killed and mutilated two brothers living on her father's farm, then hauled the bodies up to 50 miles away before dumping them.

The plump, 30-year-old resident of White Plains, Ala., a small community in northeast Calhoun County, was questioned for about six hours Thursday night before she began to tell the story, officers added.

Walter L. Allen, chief investigator for the State Department of Public Safety, said two warrants were issued charging Miss Hyatt with murder. Sheriff Roy Snead of Calhoun County said it will be up to a grand jury to fix the degree of murder.

Floyd Mann, state public safety director, said four things contributed to the motive in the brutal slayings three weeks ago.

He listed them as physical abuse to her by the men, physical abuse to her father, "drinking habits" of the men which irritated the family, and argument over the use of a car.

Authorities identified the victims as Emmett Harper, 48, and Lee Ander Harper, 55.

Both lived in a box-type house trailer near the unpainted frame farm house where Miss Hyatt lived with her elderly father and stepmother, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Hyatt.

The bodies were found June 28 and 29 in rural areas near Gadsden, Ala. Their faces were blasted beyond recognition by a shotgun charge and their arms and legs were hacked off and missing.

Eisenhower Assurances Given Bohlen

Attitude Indicates Envoy Will Get Top Job In State Dept.

It remained to be seen whether he would get a top State Department job, but Eisenhower's attitude seemed to indicate he would.

White House secretary James C. Hagerty relayed Eisenhower's feelings about Bohlen after another day of discussion and speculation over how the administration feels about naming Bohlen a special adviser on the Soviet Union.

Philippine Ambassador Carlos P. Romulo told reporters he had been told by Undersecretary of State C. Douglas Dillon that Eisenhower was upset by newspaper stories quoting him on the Bohlen matter.

Ike Sends Wire, Letter

Romulo said Dillon told him Eisenhower had ordered a telegram to be sent to Bohlen, to be followed by a personal letter, assuring him that he didn't mean to convey the impression he was cool to the idea of Bohlen being appointed.

Bohlen, now ambassador to Manila and formerly ambassador to Moscow, is one of the recognized State Department experts on the U.S.S.R. and international communism. However, some Republican senators look on him with disfavor.

Hagerty added that Eisenhower has a great deal of confidence in Bohlen.

There was no comment from Hagerty on whether Eisenhower is writing Bohlen a letter.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter told a news conference July 9 that he had discussed a departmental post with Bohlen several months ago. He wasn't specific.

Matter Of Interpretation

Eisenhower was asked about this Wednesday and there followed the statements which he is reported to believe were misinterpreted.

He said then that Herter had brought up Bohlen's name with him.

He said Herter did this "because he had seen stories in the paper that this was going to be done and he said as far as he is concerned, he had done nothing about it and didn't intend to at the moment."

"So, in other words," Eisenhower added, "his report to me was completely negative."

Most news accounts interpreted this to mean that Eisenhower was knocking down the idea that Bohlen might get the Washington Russian job.

Burney Sounds Polio Warning

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney warned Friday that paralytic polio is on the upsurge and taking its heaviest toll among the unvaccinated.

Pointing up his warning, the Public Health Service reported that the nation's polio count climbed last week by 179 cases. Of these, 111 were paralytic.

The increase brought the total polio toll for the first 27 weeks of the year to 1,208 cases—791 of them of the crippling type.

The health service said the number of paralytic cases so far is more than double the 385 reported for the same period of 1958.

The total number of cases, including non-paralytic, at the same time last year was 754 cases.

Burney said nine out of 10 of the new polio cases have occurred among persons who have not had Salk vaccine shots. So far, about 70 million of 170 million Americans have had one or more of the anti-polio shots.

There have been three deaths from polio this year, all adult males.

104 Dead In Floods

SRINAGAR, Kashmir (AP) — Receding flood waters have left 104 dead in the famed vale of Kashmir, a government spokesman said Friday. The floods were described as the worst in living memory.

Scandinavian States Warned By Khrushchev

SZCZECIN, Poland (AP) — Nikita S. Khrushchev charged Friday that aggressive circles want to establish rocket bases in Scandinavia to draw Soviet nuclear retaliation there instead of on themselves.

The Soviet Premier did not specify whom he meant by aggressive circles but the United States seemed an obvious target.

In a vigorous speech before about 10,000 Poles in this former German port city of Stettin, he also pledged armed Soviet defense of the border between East and West Germany.

Khrushchev also proclaimed his country's determination to fight against any attempt to take away from Communist Poland the territories it gained from Germany after World War II.

To dramatize this stand, Khrushchev was made an honorary citizen of Szczecin in a ceremony in the town hall.

Two weeks before he is to leave on a good-will tour through Scandinavian nations, Khrushchev took this occasion to warn those nations of possible destruction if rocket bases are established on their soil.

Stampede Claims At Least 62 Lives

SEOUL, Korea, Saturday (UPI) —At least 62 persons were reported killed and hundreds injured Friday when a sudden rainstorm sent thousands of panic-stricken persons stampeding out of a crowded stadium in Pusan.

Latest reports said the death toll included 34 women and more than a dozen children.

Orient Press news agency said the death toll was expected to rise.

The victims were crushed, smothered and trampled to death in the wild confusion and panic.

Dispatches sent from Pusan by Orient Press said thousands of spectators rose almost in a body and began pushing and clawing their way out of the stadium through a narrow gate when the storm struck.

Arsonists Destroy Teamster's Home

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. (UPI)—The home of a Detroit Teamster Union official and close friend of Teamster boss Jimmy Hoffa, was destroyed Thursday night by fire which police said was set by arsonists.

Three empty five-gallon gasoline cans and a fourth partly empty can were found in the two-story brick veneer hilltop house in Bloomfield Township. The home was completely destroyed. Only the shell, the basement and the garage remained. Damage was estimated between $30,000 and $50,000.

The home was occupied by Charles O'Brien, 28, business agent for Detroit Teamster Union Local 299—Hoffa's home union. O'Brien, his wife, Mary Ann, and two children, Charles, 5, and Josephine, 2, were away.

Nun, 65, Hopes To Break Sound Barrier In Jet

Sister Aquinas, science supervisor for schools in the Green Bay Catholic diocese, said Friday she has been promised an opportunity to go up in a jet next month at Hamilton Air Force Base in California.

She has ridden in a jet trainer —but this time she hopes to be able to serve as copilot and break the sound barrier.

Sister Aquinas said she is leaving Sunday—by plane, naturally—to conduct a two-week science workshop at the University of San Francisco. Then she plans to go to Hamilton for briefing before her speed flight.

Batista Seeks American Visa

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Cuban President Fulgencio Batista has applied for a visa to come to the United States from the Dominican Republic where he now is in exile.

The State Department said Friday in answer to an inquiry, that Batista applied for the visa about a week ago.

A department spokesman declined to forecast whether Batista will be allowed to enter this country.

But, top department officials were understood to be cool to the idea.

Press officer Joseph W. Reap, commenting on the American attitude, said only: "Admission of aliens to the United States is governed by the Immigration and Naturalization Act. The application of former President Batista will be considered in the light of pertinent provisions of this legislation."

Reap said he did not know what kind of visa Batista had requested.

Layoffs Mount As Steel Strike Effects Spread

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The effects of the 3-day-old steel strike cut deeper into the nation's economy Friday with more layoffs, walkouts and soaring production losses.

In Washington, President Eisenhower conferred on the steel situation with Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell. The White House declined to provide any details.

Elsewhere public officials got ready for an avalanche of relief requests; defense plans were snarled in at least one installation; and 200 million dollars worth of construction work in steel plants was halted.

The strike of half a million United Steelworkers of America already has brought idleness to 30,000 workers in railroads, coal mines, Great Lakes ore carriers, trucking and other industries.

Each day the strike continues the production loss amounts to 300,000 ingot tons of steel with wage losses running 70 million dollars a week.

So far there's no sign of settlement. Federal mediation talks in the dispute will be resumed Monday in New York. Neither industry nor the union has shown any signs of retreating from their last bargaining positions.

An estimated 5,000 building tradesmen in the Chicago-Gary-East Chicago, Ind., area refused to cross Steelworkers picket lines Friday, halting work on some 200 million dollars of construction work in steel plants.

Also affected were Youngstown Sheet & Tube in East Chicago and the Acme Steel Co., Riverdale, Ill., with about 20 million dollars in projects halted.

The strike also spread to the core of the nation's defense with plans snarled for the completion of three Atlas missile-launching sites near Cheyenne, Wyo.

Jazz Great Billie Holiday Dies On Low, Sad Note

NEW YORK (AP)—Billie Holiday, child of sordidness and slums, who rose through the smoky night clubs of Harlem to fame as a magnificent singer of the blues, died Friday on a low, sad note.

Liquor and dope and high living ruined her body and stole the vibrance from her tremendous voice. She died in Metropolitan Hospital, a city institution. In her bank account she had 70 cents.

Technically, she was under arrest and, in death, she slipped the bonds of the law for the last time. A long-time dope a 'dict, a packet of heroin was found in her hospital bed after her admittance May 31. For a time there was a police guard on her door but it was eventually removed.

Dope was Miss Holiday's undoing all her life. She had a long record, and in New York was banned from night clubs in recent years because of her addiction.

It probably was the dope that finally killed her. But medically her death in the small, quiet hours before dawn was attributed to congestion of the lungs complicated by heart failure. Her liver and kidneys also were ravaged.

Her estranged husband, Louis McKay, flew in from California to share her final days. Her loyal manager, Joe Glaser, had a $50,000 movie contract for her life story awaiting her signature.

Her room was flooded with telegrams of best wishes—from Frank Sinatra, Harry Belafonte, Count Basie, Tallulah Bankhead, to name a few.

Near-Treason Charge Made By Cuba Hero

Urrutia Resigns

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro resigned as prime minister of Cuba Friday night accusing President Manuel Urrutia of "an attitude bordering on treason."

He also accused the President, a former judge he personally put in office earlier this year, of immobility and of failing to discharge his duties.

This in turn, Castro told a television audience, has created "discrepancies of moral order."

He did not immediately elaborate.

This is the second time within past two weeks that the bearded rebel leader had accused close associates of treason or near treason. The other was the case of former Cuban air force chief, Maj. Pedro Luis Diaz Lanz, who accused Castro of being a Communist.

No Comment From Urrutia

Urrutia, who has also strongly criticized communism in Cuba, was not available for comment. At the presidential palace he refused to receive newsmen.

Castro said he reached his decision to resign "very bitterly."

He said he had "almost worked myself to death over the agrarian reform program," and at the same time President Urrutia had asked for a leave of absence.

"My differences with the President go back perhaps 40 or 50 days," Castro said. "One day we were all surprised by a request from the President for a leave of 30 days at a time when we had decided to reshuffle our Cabinet, and when we had been living as the target of an intense foreign campaign.

"Did I agree to a leave for the president at a time when we did not even have a substitute? We had to go see him and try and dissuade him. We had to tell him that to take a leave of absence at that time would leave a big vacuum in our government."

President "Openly Hostile"

Then he continued, "The President became openly hostile. No decree came out as law. Everything accumulated. Everything was paralyzed.

Castro suggested that difficulties with Urrutia had forced him to take the prime minister's office originally. It was made clear at that time, he said, that Urrutia should not preside over the Cabinet.

Workers rallied to his support within hours after Castro's decision became public in the newspaper Revolucion, organ of his 26th of July Movement. People walked off their jobs in shops and factories and marched to the presidential palace. They were joined along the way by students. There they shouted their support for Castro and his revolution.

Governors End Tour Of Russia

MOSCOW (UPI) — Seven United States governors ended a three-week tour of the Soviet Union Friday and headed back home to tell the folks—and President Eisenhower—what they saw and heard.

The governors went their separate ways on the trip back home, and it was understood they would get together again in Washington on July 31 to report to President Eisenhower.

At a news conference before they left the state chief executives led by Gov. Leroy Collins (D-Fla.), expressed disappointment over their discussion Thursday with Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan.

Gov. George Clyde (R-Utah) said Mikoyan told them Russia wanted trade with the United States but could do without it.

Clyde said the deputy premier listed manganese, chrome, platinum, cellulose and crabmeat as commodities the Soviet Union could sell to the United States as well as synthetic and plastic plants, plastic consumer goods, steel pipes and artificial leather for shoes.

Itinerant Laborer Charged In Slaying

HELD FOR MURDER—Leonard Hall Jr., 22, Keansburg, N.J., hides his face as he was brought to jail after arraignment yesterday on a charge of fatally stabbing Mrs. Anna B. Gaff, wife of an East Baltimore tavern owner, early Thursday. (AP Photofax)

Jersey Man Held In Woman's Death

TOWSON, Md. (AP)—An itinerant laborer from New Jersey was charged with murder Friday in the knife slaying of a Baltimore County woman.

Leonard Hall Jr., 22, of Keansburg, N. J., was arraigned before Magistrate William S. Baldwin in Towson, held without bail in the county jail and ordered to appear for a preliminary hearing at 10 a.m. Monday in Police Court.

Mrs. Anna B. Gaff, 66, was found stabbed to death early Thursday in the tavern operated by her husband. She had been stabbed six times and an eight-inch carving knife was buried to the hilt in her back. An autopsy showed she had not been raped.

Police said they picked up Hall Thursday evening at a tavern about two miles from the murder scene. Police Chief Gilbert L. Deyle praised the "hard work of the Baltimore County police force" that led to the quick arrest.

Hall, a slender man who stands 6-4, told officers he is a former soldier and married.

When Mrs. Gaff's body was found in the tavern, a cash register on the bar had been rifled and $700 was missing from a cigar box behind the counter.

Detectives said a TV mystery movie may be an important factor in the case.

Police arrested Hall after getting descriptions of a stranger seen around the tavern by patrons of the bar and a teen-age girl who lives nearby.

The girl told police she spotted the man and his car outside the tavern about the time of the slaying. She couldn't remember the exact time, but she recalled what was on the television screen as she wandered to her window and saw him.

Police took her to Baltimore television station WJZ-TV where she saw a re-run of the late show and halted the film at the scene she remembered. Station officials consulted their logs and set the time at 51 minutes after midnight, about the time medical examiners believe Mrs. Gaff died.

NLRB Action Against UMW Recommended

WASHINGTON (AP)—A recommendation that the National Labor Relations Board order the United Mine Workers to stop using threats and violence against employes of five northern West Virginia coal companies has been made by an NLRB trial examiner.

Examiner Robert E. Mullin made the recommendation in a 36-page intermediate report. The report noted also that the NLRB general counsel urges entry of a "broad order" prohibiting "similar violations throughout the territorial jurisdiction" of UMW District 31, which has headquarters at Fairmont, W. Va.

The report followed a hearing held before Mullin at Clarksburg, W. Va., last February and March on an unfair labor practice complaint by the five companies. Their mining operations are in Barbour and Taylor counties.

The complainants were the Blue Ridge Coal Corp.; Louis Marra, doing business as the M & T Coal Co.; Louis, Sammie and Robert Marra, partners doing business as Marra Brothers Coal Co.; James W. Thompson, doing business as Thompson Coal and Construction, and Chester Sinsel, doing business as Sinsel Coal Co.

The dispute dates back to April, 1958, start of a UMW attempt to organize the firms and sign them to a union contract.

Mullin's findings listed 21 instances in which he concluded that the international union, District 31 and their agents had engaged in unfair labor practices in violation of law.

Violations which Mullin concluded had been committed by pickets against non-strikers included stoning, threats to kill or injure, assault, and mass picketing which prevented them from going to work.

Diminutive Couple Wed At Alexandria

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP)—Robert B. Hinkson, who stands 3 feet 7 inches tall, and Mary Ann Jones, 6 inches taller, were married Thursday in an elopment ceremony.

Hinkson, 38, an accountant at Walter Reed Army Medical Center, and his bride met through an organization called "The Little People of America" whose motto is "Don't look down on us."

They were married by the Rev. Jack Meyer Jr., of the Church of Christ, who said the couple arranged the wedding by telephone only a short time before the actual ceremony. "I was a bit surprised when I opened the door," he said.

Fatal Auto Crash

BALTIMORE (AP) — William J. Horse 58, was fatally injured Friday when his car smashed into the south end of Gwynns Falls Bridge at Hilton Parkway.

Police said the car went out of control about 129 feet south of the bridge.

House Unit Drafts Mild Labor Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A bitterly split House Labor Committee Friday completed drafting a union reform bill far less objectionable to organized labor leaders than the tougher Senate-passed measure.

Labor - supported congressmen generally prevailed as the committee made more than 100 changes in the Senate bill. The committee scheduled a formal vote on the overall bill next Wednesday when foes could try to substitute the Senate version.

Like the Senate bill, the House measure was designed to promote democratic practices and end labor corruption and racketeering exposed by the Senate Rackets Committee. The House group, however, removed many of the stiff curbs endorsed by the Senate.

Chairman Graham Barden (D-N. C.), an advocate of a stiffer bill, complained that the committee "virtually destroyed" the Senate measure, which was sponsored by Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) and Sam J. Ervin Jr. (D-N. C.) and which passed the Senate in April by a vote of 90-1.

Barden charged that "outside influences" had moved in and "taken over direction of the committee." He declined to name the influences, but union officials have held a number of meetings with some committee members.

One Killed, Two Hurt When Car Strikes Pole

BALTIMORE (AP) — Sylvester Chapell, 20, of Baltimore, was killed Friday when an automobile struck a utility pole near the entrance of the Western Maryland Railway warehouse on McComas Street.

Chapell was pronounced dead on arrival at South Baltimore General Hospital. Police said two others in the car, William Trusty, 17, and Cecil Burton, 19, were injured slightly.

Glen Burnie Man Quizzed In Jackson Murder Case

FERNDALE, Md. (AP)—A Glen Burnie man, who police said forced a car carrying a family of four off the road, was questioned Friday in connection with the Jackson murders.

Wilbur C. Wade, chief of Anne Arundel County police, said the 24-year-old man was being questioned as "a possible suspect" because of the similarities of the two cases.

The car of Carroll V. Jackson Jr. was forced off a road last Jan. 11 in Louisa County, Va. Jackson and one of his daughters were found dead two months later near Fredericksburg, Va., and the bodies of his wife and other daughter were discovered in a shallow grave south of Baltimore last March.

Ralph Swanner of Herald Harbor, Md., told officers he was driving along Maryland 178 with his wife and two children early Wednesday morning when he was overtaken. The car, that had been parked beside the highway, forced Swanner's car to the side.

The man got out of his car, Swanner said, identified himself as a policeman and said: "What do you mean by speeding?"

When the man grabbed the partially open window on the driver's side, breaking it, Swanner drove off. He said the man pursued him for about three miles into the Epping Forest area, where Swanner pulled up in front of a house and began honking his horn.

Chief Wade said the man was arrested Thursday, through tags on his car, and charged with impersonating an officer, destruction of private property and disorderly conduct.

Long Doesn't Think "Cussin'" Political Risk

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—Louisiana Gov. Earl K. Long said Friday he doesn't believe either his public profanity or his recent stays in mental hospitals will harm him him in his try for re-election.

Long held a two-man press conference from his hotel suite bed, where he rested after a hectic night across the Rio Grande in Juarez, Mexico.

Long was asked whether he thought his profanity in public would hurt him.

"All I did," Long said, "was tell those newspaper b—— to get the hell out of the Juarez restaurant.

"If I have to give up my individuality, then (obscenity) the governorship.

"Huey cussed and I have cussed. How many people do you think really pay any attention to all those damns and hells?" The governor's public utterances lately have gone far beyond those two words.

Long outlined what he said was his itinerary for the rest of his vacation, with trips to Phoenix, Colorado Springs, Hot Springs, Ark., and back to Louisiana for a stumping tour of the state starting July 28 to push a special session he wants Aug. 10.

He reaffirmed his intention of divorcing his wife, who first committed him to a Texas mental institution last month, but said he didn't want a one-day Mexican divorce.

As for the furore with newspapermen in Juarez Thursday night, he said: "All I did was give some s.o.b a $50 check and get out of there. All I got was one glass of Mexican champagne."

At a plush Juarez restaurant, Long objected strenuously and profanely to the presence of photographers.

SRC Steps To Speed Bridge Traffic Set

BALTIMORE (AP)—The State Roads Commission will take steps this weekend to alleviate the Sunday evening traffic jam which has choked the Chesapeake Bay Bridge in summer months.

John B. Funk, chairman of the commission and director of highways, Friday ordered officers from the Baltimore Harbor Tunnel to patrol the bridge on motorcycle Sunday and "rigidly enforce" the 35 mile-per-hour minimum speed law.

Funk said he feels slow-poke drivers are the main reason for the tie-ups and he hopes strict enforcement of the minimum speed law enacted by the 1959 General Assembly will speed up the Sunday traffic flow of motorists returning from beach areas.

In the past few weeks, one State Police car has patrolled the bridge on Sundays. Funk said two motorcycle officers will be on the span this weekend.

Five Brothers Held In Rape Of Girl, 17

TOWSON, Md. (AP)—Baltimore County police were holding five brothers Friday in connection with the rape of a 17-year-old girl.

The four oldest brothers were charged with rape. The fifth, 16, was accused of attempted rape.

Grant W. Widener, 27, and his brothers Bobby G., 21, and John C., 19, were held for a preliminary hearing in police court. Francis D., 17, and Dewey, 16, were arraigned at a juvenile hearing and ordered held under $10,000 bail each for criminal court action.

Bobby lives in Phoenix. The other four live in nearby Timonium.

Police said the girl, a young factory worker, told them she was attacked by the brothers after Bobby and Dewey picked her up at 12:35 a.m Wednesday at her place of employment in Towson. She said she thought they would give her a ride home.

Khrushchev's Teacher Says He A 'Poor Pupil'

MANCHESTER, Conn. (AP) — Antonia Hladka says she taught Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev a lesson or two.

She says she was his language teacher, long before Khrushchev became prominent even in his own country.

It was in the Ukraine, shortly after the Russian Revolution, that Mrs. Hladka instructed worker Khrushchev in formal Russian. And she describes him as a "poor pupil." She said his knowledge of basic Russian was "very poor" at the time.

"He knew the words 'capitalists' and 'imperialists,'" she said in an interview with the Manchester Evening Herald Friday.

Fire Sweeps Country Club

LEESBURG, Va. (AP) — Fire raced through the clubhouse of the Goose Creek Country Club near here Friday, destroying most of the building with a loss estimated at $250,000.

Only the rear portion of the rambling, wooden clubhouse was saved by firemen from seven localities who fought the blaze for the better part of three hours.

The part of the building which still stood after the flames were brought under control houses the golf pro shop and locker rooms.

James H. Henkins Jr., who owns controlling interest in the country club five miles east of here on Route 7, said two-thirds of the clubhouse was destroyed and made the estimate of loss.

The fire started about 4:30 p.m. (EST) in a piece of kitchen equipment used to fry potatoes, while preparations were under way to serve 80 to 100 dinners to staff members of the Loudoun Mirror and their friends at an office party. The flames spread rapidly and had gained headway before the first fire company, from Leesburg, arrived.

Two Boys Drown In Choptank River

DENTON, Md. (AP) — Two boys drowned in the Choptank River Friday after one presumably fell in while fishing and the other jumped in to try and save him.

Volunteer firemen from Denton and Greensboro later found the bodies of Jerry Magee, 14, son of Mrs. Frances Butler of Denton, and Richard Collins, 11, son of Mrs. Marguerite Collins of Denton.

State Police said Collins apparently fell into the water near the bridge, then Magee jumped in and tried to save Collins. Both boys were swept under the bridge.

Another boy, Dick Powers, told police he saw the Collins boy in the river on the other side of the bridge and jumped into the water after him. Powers said he tried to grab hold of Collins but was pushed away and lost his grip.

Eugene Meyer, Distinguished Publisher, Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Eugene Meyer, 83, who made newspaper publishing his third distinguished career, died Friday.

Meyer, chairman of the Board of the Washington Post and Times Herald, died at George Washington University Hospital where he had been under treatment for a heart ailment and cancer.

He began as a banker, then devoted 16 years to government service, and at the age of 57 he embarked on a career as a newspaper publisher.

President Eisenhower was among those paying tribute to Meyer.

"In the passing of Eugene Meyer, the nation and the news profession have lost an outstanding newspaper executive," Eisenhower said in a statement. "As a publisher and later as chairman of the Board of the Washington Post and Times Herald, and before that as a government official in a number of major posts, Meyer was known as a distinguished citizen.

"Mrs. Eisenhower and I extend our deep sympathies to Mrs. Meyer and her family in the personal loss they have sustained."

Meyer was thinking of retirement when he resigned as governor of the Federal Reserve Board in the spring of 1933. He decided, however, that the newspaper field offered an opportunity for further public service and on June 1, 1933, he bought the Washington Post at public auction for $825,000.

Legion Urges State Job Preference For Veterans

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Maryland Department of the American Legion urged Friday that wartime veterans be given preference for employment in state jobs.

This was one of several resolutions the group passed during business sessions at its annual convention at a downtown hotel.

The proposal suggested that the merit-system preference be given to veterans who served during the actual conflict of World War II and the Korean War.

The state has considered a man a World War II veteran if he served between May 1, 1940 and Dec. 31, 1946, and a Korean War veteran if he served between June 1, 1950 and June 1, 1959.

In another resolution, the delegates approved a move to have the Legion's education committee work with a committee of the Maryland State Teachers Assn. The group would "advance the education of our youth," said the resolution.

Friday night, the Legionnaires, their wives in auxiliary units, and boys and girls took part in a long parade which terminated at the War Memorial Plaza opposite City Hall. It was followed by a dance in a hotel ballroom.

Milton L. Hubbard, of Cambridge, was elected head of the 40 and 8, the Legion's "good time" organization.

Stock Market Declines In Moderate Trading

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks closed lower for the second straight session Friday in moderate trading.

A late rally helped to pare losses throughout the list but losses outnumbered declines by a good margin at the close. The steels, electrical equipments, chemicals, and rails were the chief offenders in the decline.

There were some fairly sharp gains in the main list, mainly among stocks outside the group used to compile the averages. Some issues responded strongly to favorable corporate developments such as stock splits, increased dividends and mergers.

Fears of a long steel strike, and the effects it would have on corporate earnings and dividends this year, helped to keep the market off balance.

The rails showed the sharpest decline in the averages. This industry already has begun to feel the impact of the steel strike and the effects will get worse as the strike drags on. Norfolk & Western was off more than 2 points while losses of a point or more appeared in Baltimore & Ohio, Great Northern, and Southern Pacific.

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO (UPI)—Grain prices were mixed Friday on the Chicago Board of Trade.

At the close, wheat was unchanged to off 1; corn up ⅛ to ⅜; oats off ¼ to up ⅝; new oats off ½ to up ⅛; rye up 1⅛ to 1⅝; soybeans up ⅜ to ¾.

Wheat prices eased from earlier firm levels in some contracts. Commercial selling was a factor, and hedge sales continued. Offerings were taken on resting orders. An active flour mill demand for cash wheat brought early support in the market. General trade was slow.

Corn was quiet and mostly firm. An elevator broker bought December early. There was more selling of corn against purchases of wheat. Some buying appeared to be on the belief that corn harvests will be smaller than the government July 1 estimate.

Export subsidies were granted on 1,883,000 bushels of corn, 345,000 bushels of oats and 116,000 bushels of rye.

Oats were steady in the nearby and easy in the deferred contracts. December and March met early hedge sales. Commission house trade was mixed.

Rye held at strong levels on limited offerings.

Soybeans started heavy, rallied to a firm tone and eased before firming again near the close. Hedge sales in November and January and liquidation by local longs helped depress the market. Commission houses bought on the recessions, and prices spurted upward briefly. The range:

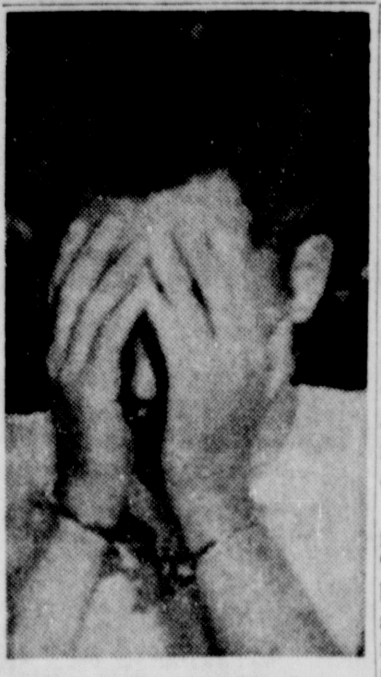
Itinerant Laborer Charged In Slaying



HELD FOR MURDER—Leonard Hall Jr., 22, Keansburg, N.J., hides his face as he was brought to jail after arraignment yesterday on a charge of fatally stabbing Mrs. Anna B. Gaff, wife of an East Baltimore tavern owner, early Thursday. (AP Photofax)

Jersey Man Held In Woman's Death

TOWSON, Md. (AP)—An itinerant laborer from New Jersey was charged with murder Friday in the knife slaying of a Baltimore County woman.

Leonard Hall Jr., 22, of Keansburg, N. J., was arraigned before Magistrate William S. Baldwin in Towson, held without bail in the county jail and ordered to appear for a preliminary hearing at 10 a.m. Monday in Police Court.

Mrs. Anna B. Gaff, 66, was found stabbed to death early Thursday in the tavern operated by her husband. She had been stabbed six times and an eight-inch carving knife was buried to the hilt in her back. An autopsy showed she had not been raped.

Police said they picked up Hall Thursday evening at a tavern about two miles from the murder scene. Police Chief Gilbert L. Deyle praised the "hard work of the Baltimore County police force" that led to the quick arrest.

Hall, a slender man who stands 6-4, told officers he is a former soldier and married.

When Mrs. Gaff's body was found in the tavern, a cash register on the bar had been rifled and $700 was missing from a cigar box behind the counter.

Detectives said a TV mystery movie may be an important factor in the case.

Police arrested Hall after getting descriptions of a stranger seen around the tavern by patrons of the bar and a teen-age girl who lives nearby.

The girl told police she spotted the man and his car outside the tavern about the time of the slaying. She couldn't remember the exact time, but she recalled what was on the television screen as she wandered to her window and saw him.

Police took her to Baltimore television station WJZ-TV where she saw a re-run of the late show and halted the film at the scene she remembered. Station officials consulted their logs and set the time at 51 minutes after midnight, about the time medical examiners believe Mrs. Gaff died.

NLRB Action Against UMW Recommended

WASHINGTON (AP)—A recommendation that the National Labor Relations Board order the United Mine Workers to stop using threats and violence against employes of five northern West Virginia coal companies has been made by an NLRB trial examiner.

Examiner Robert E. Mullin made the recommendation in a 36-page intermediate report. The report noted also that the NLRB general counsel urges entry of a "broad order" prohibiting "similar violations throughout the territorial jurisdiction" of UMW District 31, which has headquarters at Fairmont, W. Va.

The report followed a hearing held before Mullin at Clarksburg, W. Va., last February and March on an unfair labor practice complaint by the five companies. Their mining operations are in Barbour and Taylor counties.

The complainants were the Blue Ridge Coal Corp.; Louis Marra, doing business as the M & T Coal Co.; Louis, Sammie and Robert Marra, partners doing business as Marra Brothers Coal Co.; James W. Thompson, doing business as Thompson Coal and Construction, and Chester Sinsel, doing business as Sinsel Coal Co.

The dispute dates back to April, 1958, start of a UMW attempt to organize the firms and sign them to a union contract.

Mullin's findings listed 21 instances in which he concluded that the international union, District 31 and their agents had engaged in unfair labor practices in violation of law.

Violations which Mullin concluded had been committed by pickets against non-strikers included stoning, threats to kill or injure, assault, and mass picketing which prevented them from going to work.

Diminutive Couple Wed At Alexandria

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP)—Robert B. Hinkson, who stands 3 feet 7 inches tall, and Mary Ann Jones, 6 inches taller, were married Thursday in an elopment ceremony.

Hinkson, 38, an accountant at Walter Reed Army Medical Center, and his bride met through an organization called "The Little People of America" whose motto is "Don't look down on us."

They were married by the Rev. Jack Meyer Jr., of the Church of Christ, who said the couple arranged the wedding by telephone only a short time before the actual ceremony. "I was a bit surprised when I opened the door," he said.

Fatal Auto Crash

BALTIMORE (AP) — William J. Horse 58, was fatally injured Friday when his car smashed into the south end of Gwynns Falls Bridge at Hilton Parkway.

Police said the car went out of control about 129 feet south of the bridge.

House Unit Drafts Mild Labor Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A bitterly split House Labor Committee Friday completed drafting a union reform bill far less objectionable to organized labor leaders than the tougher Senate-passed measure.

Labor - supported congressmen generally prevailed as the committee made more than 100 changes in the Senate bill. The committee scheduled a formal vote on the overall bill next Wednesday when foes could try to substitute the Senate version.

Like the Senate bill, the House measure was designed to promote democratic practices and end labor corruption and racketeering exposed by the Senate Rackets Committee. The House group, however, removed many of the stiff curbs endorsed by the Senate.

Chairman Graham Barden (D-N. C.), an advocate of a stiffer bill, complained that the committee "virtually destroyed" the Senate measure, which was sponsored by Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) and Sam J. Ervin Jr. (D-N. C.) and which passed the Senate in April by a vote of 90-1.

Barden charged that "outside influences" had moved in and "taken over direction of the committee." He declined to name the influences, but union officials have held a number of meetings with some committee members.

One Killed, Two Hurt When Car Strikes Pole

BALTIMORE (AP) — Sylvester Chapell, 20, of Baltimore, was killed Friday when an automobile struck a utility pole near the entrance of the Western Maryland Railway warehouse on McComas Street.

Chapell was pronounced dead on arrival at South Baltimore General Hospital. Police said two others in the car, William Trusty, 17, and Cecil Burton, 19, were injured slightly.

Glen Burnie Man Quizzed In Jackson Murder Case

FERNDALE, Md. (AP)—A Glen Burnie man, who police said forced a car carrying a family of four off the road, was questioned Friday in connection with the Jackson murders.

Wilbur C. Wade, chief of Anne Arundel County police, said the 24-year-old man was being questioned as "a possible suspect" because of the similarities of the two cases.

The car of Carroll V. Jackson Jr. was forced off a road last Jan. 11 in Louisa County, Va. Jackson and one of his daughters were found dead two months later near Fredericksburg, Va., and the bodies of his wife and other daughter were discovered in a shallow grave south of Baltimore last March.

Ralph Swanner of Herald Harbor, Md., told officers he was driving along Maryland 178 with his wife and two children early Wednesday morning when he was overtaken. The car, that had been parked beside the highway, forced Swanner's car to the side.

The man got out of his car, Swanner said, identified himself as a policeman and said: "What do you mean by speeding?"

When the man grabbed the partially open window on the driver's side, breaking it, Swanner drove off. He said the man pursued him for about three miles into the Epping Forest area, where Swanner pulled up in front of a house and began honking his horn.

Chief Wade said the man was arrested Thursday, through tags on his car, and charged with impersonating an officer, destruction of private property and disorderly conduct.

Long Doesn't Think "Cussin'" Political Risk

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—Louisiana Gov. Earl K. Long said Friday he doesn't believe either his public profanity or his recent stays in mental hospitals will harm him him in his try for re-election.

Long held a two-man press conference from his hotel suite bed, where he rested after a hectic night across the Rio Grande in Juarez, Mexico.

Long was asked whether he thought his profanity in public would hurt him.

"All I did," Long said, "was tell those newspaper b— to get the hell out of the Juarez restaurant.

"If I have to give up my individuality, then (obscenity) the governorship.

"Huey cussed and I have cussed. How many people do you think really pay any attention to all those damns and hells?" The governor's public utterances lately have gone far beyond those two words.

Long outlined what he said was his itinerary for the rest of his vacation, with trips to Phoenix, Colorado Springs, Hot Springs, Ark., and back to Louisiana for a stumping tour of the state starting July 28 to push a special session he wants Aug. 10.

He reaffirmed his intention of divorcing his wife, who first committed him to a Texas mental institution last month, but said he didn't want a one-day Mexican divorce.

As for the furore with newspapermen in Juarez Thursday night, he said: "All I did was give some s.o.b a $50 check and get out of there. All I got was one glass of Mexican champagne."

At a plush Juarez restaurant, Long objected strenuously and profanely to the presence of photographers.

SRC Steps To Speed Bridge Traffic Set

BALTIMORE (AP)—The State Roads Commission will take steps this weekend to alleviate the Sunday evening traffic jam which has choked the Chesapeake Bay Bridge in summer months.

John B. Funk, chairman of the commission and director of highways, Friday ordered officers from the Baltimore Harbor Tunnel to patrol the bridge on motorcycle Sunday and "rigidly enforce" the 35 mile-per-hour minimum speed law.

Funk said he feels slow-poke drivers are the main reason for the tie-ups and he hopes strict enforcement of the minimum speed law enacted by the 1959 General Assembly will speed up the Sunday traffic flow of motorists returning from beach areas.

In the past few weeks, one State Police car has patrolled the bridge on Sundays. Funk said two motorcycle officers will be on the span this weekend.

Five Brothers Held In Rape Of Girl, 17

TOWSON, Md. (AP)—Baltimore County police were holding five brothers Friday in connection with the rape of a 17-year-old girl.

The four oldest brothers were charged with rape. The fifth, 16, was accused of attempted rape.

Grant W. Widener, 27, and his brothers Bobby G., 21, and John C., 19, were held for a preliminary hearing in police court. Francis D., 17, and Dewey, 16, were arraigned at a juvenile hearing and ordered held under $10,000 bail each for criminal court action.

Bobby lives in Phoenix. The other four live in nearby Timonium.

Police said the girl, a young factory worker, told them she was attacked by the brothers after Bobby and Dewey picked her up at 12:35 a.m Wednesday at her place of employment in Towson. She said she thought they would give her a ride home.

Khrushchev's Teacher Says He A 'Poor Pupil'

MANCHESTER, Conn. (AP) — Antonia Hladka says she taught Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev a lesson or two.

She says she was his language teacher, long before Khrushchev became prominent even in his own country.

It was in the Ukraine, shortly after the Russian Revolution, that Mrs. Hladka instructed worker Khrushchev in formal Russian. And she describes him as a "poor pupil." She said his knowledge of basic Russian was "very poor" at the time.

"He knew the words 'capitalists' and 'imperialists,'" she said in an interview with the Manchester Evening Herald Friday.

Fire Sweeps Country Club

LEESBURG, Va. (AP) — Fire raced through the clubhouse of the Goose Creek Country Club near here Friday, destroying most of the building with a loss estimated at $250,000.

Only the rear portion of the rambling, wooden clubhouse was saved by firemen from seven localities who fought the blaze for the better part of three hours.

The part of the building which still stood after the flames were brought under control houses the golf pro shop and locker rooms.

James H. Henkins Jr., who owns controlling interest in the country club five miles east of here on Route 7, said two-thirds of the clubhouse was destroyed and made the estimate of loss.

The fire started about 4:30 p.m. (EST) in a piece of kitchen equipment used to fry potatoes, while preparations were under way to serve 80 to 100 dinners to staff members of the Loudoun Mirror and their friends at an office party. The flames spread rapidly and had gained headway before the first fire company, from Leesburg, arrived.

Two Boys Drown In Choptank River

DENTON, Md. (AP) — Two boys drowned in the Choptank River Friday after one presumably fell in while fishing and the other jumped in to try and save him.

Volunteer firemen from Denton and Greensboro later found the bodies of Jerry Magee, 14, son of Mrs. Frances Butler of Denton, and Richard Collins, 11, son of Mrs. Marguerite Collins of Denton.

State Police said Collins apparently fell into the water near the bridge, then Magee jumped in and tried to save Collins. Both boys were swept under the bridge.

Another boy, Dick Powers, told police he saw the Collins boy in the river on the other side of the bridge and jumped into the water after him. Powers said he tried to grab hold of Collins but was pushed away and lost his grip.

Eugene Meyer, Distinguished Publisher, Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Eugene Meyer, 83, who made newspaper publishing his third distinguished career, died Friday.

Meyer, chairman of the Board of the Washington Post and Times Herald, died at George Washington University Hospital where he had been under treatment for a heart ailment and cancer.

He began as a banker, then devoted 16 years to government service, and at the age of 57 he embarked on a career as a newspaper publisher.

President Eisenhower was among those paying tribute to Meyer.

"In the passing of Eugene Meyer, the nation and the news profession have lost an outstanding newspaper executive," Eisenhower said in a statement. "As a publisher and later as chairman of the Board of the Washington Post and Times Herald, and before that as a government official in a number of major posts, Meyer was known as a distinguished citizen.

"Mrs. Eisenhower and I extend our deep sympathies to Mrs. Meyer and her family in the personal loss they have sustained."

Meyer was thinking of retirement when he resigned as governor of the Federal Reserve Board in the spring of 1933. He decided, however, that the newspaper field offered an opportunity for further public service and on June 1, 1933, he bought the Washington Post at public auction for $825,000.

Legion Urges State Job Preference For Veterans

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Maryland Department of the American Legion urged Friday that wartime veterans be given preference for employment in state jobs.

This was one of several resolutions the group passed during business sessions at its annual convention at a downtown hotel.

The proposal suggested that the merit-system preference be given to veterans who served during the actual conflict of World War II and the Korean War.

The state has considered a man a World War II veteran if he served between May 1, 1940 and Dec. 31, 1946, and a Korean War veteran if he served between June 1, 1950 and June 1, 1959.

In another resolution, the delegates approved a move to have the Legion's education committee work with a committee of the Maryland State Teachers Assn. The group would "advance the education of our youth," said the resolution.

Friday night, the Legionnaires, their wives in auxiliary units, and boys and girls took part in a long parade which terminated at the War Memorial Plaza opposite City Hall. It was followed by a dance in a hotel ballroom.

Milton L. Hubbard, of Cambridge, was elected head of the 40 and 8, the Legion's "good time" organization.

Stock Market Declines In Moderate Trading

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks closed lower for the second straight session Friday in moderate trading.

A late rally helped to pare losses throughout the list but losses outnumbered declines by a good margin at the close. The steels, electrical equipments, chemicals, and rails were the chief offenders in the decline.

There were some fairly sharp gains in the main list, mainly among stocks outside the group used to compile the averages. Some issues responded strongly to favorable corporate developments such as stock splits, increased dividends and mergers.

Fears of a long steel strike, and the effects it would have on corporate earnings and dividends this year, helped to keep the market off balance.

The rails showed the sharpest decline in the averages. This industry already has begun to feel the impact of the steel strike and the effects will get worse as the strike drags on. Norfolk & Western was off more than 2 points while losses of a point or more appeared in Baltimore & Ohio, Great Northern, and Southern Pacific.

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO (UPI)—Grain prices were mixed Friday on the Chicago Board of Trade.

At the close, wheat was unchanged to off 1; corn up ⅛ to ⅜; oats off ¼ to up ⅝; new oats off ½ to up ⅛; rye up 1⅛ to 1⅝; soybeans up ⅜ to ¾.

Wheat prices eased from earlier firm levels in some contracts. Commercial selling was a factor, and hedge sales continued. Offerings were taken on resting orders. An active flour mill demand for cash wheat brought early support in the market. General trade was slow.

Corn was quiet and mostly firm. An elevator broker bought December early. There was more selling of corn against purchases of wheat. Some buying appeared to be on the belief that corn harvests will be smaller than the government July 1 estimate.

Export subsidies were granted on 1,883,000 bushels of corn, 345,000 bushels of oats and 116,000 bushels of rye.

Oats were steady in the nearby and easy in the deferred contracts. December and March met early hedge sales. Commission house trade was mixed.

Rye held at strong levels on limited offerings.

Soybeans started heavy, rallied to a firm tone and eased before firming again near the close. Hedge sales in November and January and liquidation by local longs helped depress the market. Commission houses bought on the recessions, and prices spurted upward briefly. The range:

Joy Jackson To Become Bride Of Donald Paupe

Miss Joy Ann Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie I. Jackson, 531 Patterson Avenue, will become the bride of Donald Eugene Paupe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Paupe, 810 Shriver Avenue, tonight.

The wedding ceremony is to be solemnized at 7 p.m. in First Christian Church with Rev. Ralph Burnette, pastor and Rev. John F. Sammel, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, officiating. Bouquets of assorted white flowers are being used in the decorations.

Mrs. Ivan Miller, Fairmont, W. Va., is to be her sister's matron of honor, while Mrs. Roy Kurtz and Miss Doris Duckworth are her bridesmaids. Sherry Burnette will be the flower girl. Owen Morris will serve as Mr. Paupe's best man and Lonnie R. Jackson and Roy Kurtz will be the ushers. Dr. Frank Gamble will be the vocalist, accompanied at the organ by Miss Delores Rowley, who also will play the traditional wedding march from the opera Lohengrin, and Mendelssohn's recessional.

To be given in marriage by her father, the bride will be attired in a gown of white organza, fashioned with fitted bodice and short sleeves, with full skirt with chapel train. With it she will wear matching organza mitts, and a fingertip-length veil of illusion, held by a pearl and rhinestone headdress. Completing her costume, she will carry a bouquet of white roses, mums and baby-breath.

Her attendants all will wear white organdy dresses, made complementary to hers. Mrs. Miller's has a pink sash and she will wear pink hat and slippers. Mrs. Kurtz will have green sash and accessories and Miss Duckworth, yellow. The flower girl's are orchid.

Mrs. Jackson has chosen a silk, black and white print dress for her daughter's wedding. With it she will wear a white hat and accessories and a white orchid corsage, and carry a black patent leather bag.

The bride is a graduate of Allegany High School and is employed on the office staff of the Kelly Springfield Tire Company. The bridegroom also is a graduate of Allegany High School and of Johns Hopkins School of Engineering. He is employed by the Celanese Corporation of America.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson will be hosts at a wedding reception honoring their daughter and her bridal party. It will be at the Ali Ghan Country Club. The bridal motif is to be carried out in the all-white floral arrangements, and repeated in the tiered wedding cake, adorned with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

For their wedding trip the bride has selected an imported linen dress of white with blue flowers. With it she will wear white accessories and her corsage of white roses. Upon their return Mr. Paupe and his bride will reside at 717 Glenmore Street.

SWIMSHEATH

LOW BOW

BRILLIANT COLORS GET IN THE SWIM — The rainbow on the beach is a riot of color. New tropical colors include hot coral, yellow, tangerine, tropic red, deep turquoise, and sea blues, in addition to the perennial black and white. Biggest news on the swim wear is the return of the two piece, bare-midriff suit, often with adjustable drawstrings that can convert it to Bikini proportions. There also are plenty of gay, flattering one-piece suits. They come in vivid solid colors as well as bright prints, woven plaids and stripes. Left is the Swimsheath, bold plaid in bright blue, black and white makes this striking suit, designed by Catalina. Center, Two-piece Look, has the new two-piece look without undue exposure. A contrasting cummerbund joins bra and trunks of tangerine color-locked acetate and cotton, jacquard weave, by Jantzen. Right, Low Bow Silhouette, sheath suit in turquoise and white stripes, by Robby Len Lee, has low hip band.

Mr., Mrs. T. L. McCusker Mark 52d Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. McCusker observed their 52d wedding anniversary quietly yesterday, and will hold a family reunion tomorrow at their home, Little Orleans. Although both are "able to get around," they are not well enough for the excitement of a party.

The former Miss Cecelia Ashkettle, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Ashkettle, Little Orleans, became the bride of Mr. McCusker, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Abner McCusker, Hancock, July 17, 1907. The wedding ceremony was solemnized in St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Little Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. McCusker are the parents of six children. They are Bernard L. McCusker, Mrs. Henry Hofe, James McCusker, Mrs. Leo Wigfield, Hagerstown; Donald McCusker, Little Orleans and Mrs. Wilber George, Cumberland. They have 35 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Although both Mr. and Mrs. McCusker have to use crutches they "get along real well," he continues to do his own gardening and she does all the housework. They also can all their own food. Mr. McCusker is a retired farmer.

Allegany Class Of 1954 Plans Reunion August 8

The deadline for securing reservations for the first five-year reunion of Allegany High School's class of 1954 is July 25, according to Herbert Gaither, chairman of the event.

The reunion will be in the form of a dinner-dance and will be held at the Cumberland Country Club on August 8, beginning at 6:30 p. m.

Reservations may be obtained by contacting Mr. Gaither at 627 Columbia Avenue or by calling PA 2-7307. There will be a choice of three dinners—ham, chicken, or roast beef, and members of the class are asked to state their preference upon making reservations.

Prizes will be awarded to various members of the class and a program of entertainment is being planned. Following the dinner, dancing to an orchestra will begin at 9.

Bernard Beerman is president of the class of 189 members.

Corriganville Swim Class Begins Monday

The swimming course for the Corriganville children will begin Monday morning. The teacher will be Mrs. Helen McGuire and it will be taught at Minke's pool.

A bus will leave Corriganville at 9:15 and return at 12:30.

Three classes will be taught, for beginners, intermediates and advanced swimmers.

Local Women Attend Conference

Miss Irene Lapp and Mrs. C. E. Miller represented St. Mark's Evangelical and Reformed Church, Cumberland at the summer conference at Hood College, which closed yesterday. The four-day conference was sponsored by the Women's Guild of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Following the theme, topics discussed were stewardship, world order, Christian personal relations, evangelism, Bible study, town and country. Miss Sara J. Schilling, a member of the African tour of 1958, spoke on Africa.

Mrs. Regina Lechliter, 12 Jones Street, Ridgeley, is a medical patient in Sacred Heart Hospital.

Charles Long Is Elected PE Employes Club Head

The Potomac Edison Employes Association elected officers for 1959-60. Charles Long was named chairman; Peter Baker, vice chairman; Mrs. Shirley Baker, secretary, and Miss Sandra Long, treasurer.

The following committees were appointed:

Paul Long, program chairman, assisted by Wilbur Thrasher, George Mahaney, Miss Helen Paxton, Nelson Willison, John Walker, Ronald Rice, Melvin Emerick, Miss Shirley Hansroth, Miss Patricia O'Rourke, and Miss Elaine Martin. Raymond Clites, chairman of the athletic committee, with Miss Joann Geary, Jacob Minke, Robert Aleshire, and Mrs. Sadie Koser, members.

Miss Catherine Arnold, chairman of the sunshine committee, will be assisted by Paul Evans, Jerry Matlick, Jack Eckard, Miss Patricia O'Rourke, and Miss Mildred Blades. Mrs Sadie Koser chairman of the publicity committee, will be assisted by Miss Joann Geary.

Norman White is chairman of the dues and membership committee, with Miss Rose Mary Mullaney, Miss Hazel Kemp, Miss Mildred Blades, Jerry Matlick, and Jack Eckard, members.

Social Chart

Pleasant Grove Homemakers will meet at 7:30 Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. William Connor, Baltimore Pike. Mrs. Roy Smith will be cohostess. Blue Cross dues are to be collected.

The Cumberland Country Club swimming pool is available for private night swimming parties, Carroll Boggs has announced. Reservations are to be made with him.

A card party will be held at St. Ambrose social center in Cresaptown Tuesday at 8. Setback and 500 will be played. Prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be served.

The Women of the Moose will hold a games party at 7:30 Tuesday evening at the home. Mrs. Rosalie Evans is chairman.

The Vera Blinn Society of World Service will hold an outing at the summer cottage of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Cook, Fort Ashby, Tuesday.

Chairmen Appointed

The Ladies Auxiliary of the LaVale Volunteer Fire department named Mrs. Elizabeth Zembower chairman for the county picnic, at the meeting held recently. The picnic will be held next month.

Reports on the Allegany-Garrett and state conventions were given by Mrs. Flo Alexander and Mrs. Jeanette Pritts, respectively. Mrs. Leola Knieriem was named chairman for the kitchen for July, August and September. She will be assisted by Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Gwen Pryor and Mrs. Lelia Lancaster. Hostesses for the next meeting are Mrs. Fannie Knox, Mrs. Knieriem and Mrs. Lancaster.

Newcomers Club Picnic Today

The family picnic of the Newcomers Club will be held today at the Ali Ghan picnic grounds, beginning at 4 o'clock. Each family is to bring their own picnic supper and the club will provide ice cream and soft drinks. A program of entertainment has been planned for the children.

Mrs. Charles Kahl is chairman of arrangements. She is being assisted by Mrs. Merle Reedy and Mrs. Ray Burnaella.

Walter J. Maxey, 451 Walnut Street, local agent for the Nationwide Insurance Company, has returned from the sales convention at Ocean City.

Mapleside Club Names Delegate

The Mapleside Homemakers Club voted to send a delegate to Adult Camp and to cancel the August meeting. The annual covered dish picnic was held in conjunction with the meeting Thursday afternoon in Constitution Park. Mrs. Edgar Shoemaker offered the invocation.

Because of conflicting dates with the Cumberland Fair, the club voted not to have a meeting in August. Mrs. Karl Taschenberger was named delegate to Adult Camp at Pleasant Valley, with Mrs. Bert Browne also attending.

A corn roast is planned. It is to be held September 9 at the Plantation Motel, Hancock, home of Mrs. Emory Showman.

Mrs. Loretta Smith, fair chairman, reported the demonstration to be given August 20 from 3 until 5 p. m. at the Fair would be, "Shall I Use a Mix or Mix it Myself?" She will have as her assistants Mrs. Dolan Lewis, Mrs. Forrest Snider, Mrs. Bert Browne and Mrs. Karl Taschenberger. Mrs. Maude Brotemarkle spoke briefly on entering articles at the Fair.

The business session was conducted by Mrs. Wesley Taylor. The collect was read by Mrs. Snider. Roll call was answered with "An interesting place I Have Visited." Guests were Mrs. Doris Henaghan, Karen Sue Henaghan, Sondra Diehl, Joyce Haynes, Darleene Browne, Robert Weakley, and Allen Staggers. Routine reports were given and Mrs. James Weakley reported on Blue Cross.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Danner, Brunswick; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Reynolds and son, Howard, and Mrs. Vance S. Northcraft, 1021 Harding Avenue, are vacationing at Deep Creek Lake and Muddy Falls.

Take A Shine To Summer

Any woman can let color go to her head this summer. And she needn't risk a thing with the new hair rinses that work color magic.

Perking up drab hair is an easy do-it-yourself project. Never have there been so many good tints for giving a shine and color to hair.

The shades can be washed in one day and out the next day or week if a woman wants to try the different ones. It's good for her morale [illegible] and her husband if she finds a flattering tint that [illegible] to take years off her age.

After finding the right shade or hair "cosmetic" to recolor the locks — no woman can think her colorful headlines can be ignored. Daily and weekly grooming are more important than ever. Summer sun has a very drying effect on hair, as every girl knows.

Did you know you can actually sunburn your hair? To offset this, wear a pretty scarf or hat or head covering of some sort that is flattering. The stores have inexpensive fitted scarfs that come in one or two colors to match your summer outfits.

For further insurance against parching your hair give your tresses a daily shine with pomade or supplement the natural oils it has lost with a good rich cream.

Frequent oil shampoos will also help. This helps dryness and split ends. Use warm olive oil or scalp ointment and pat it thoroughly onto the scalp. Then either wrap the head in cheesecloth and leave it on overnight or turban the head in a succession of steaming hot towels. Follow with a good shampoo . . . probably will require two soapings.

Hand towel your hair dry after the shampoo. Your tresses will thrive on this individual treatment that you can only do during the warmer months when you sit outside. Some women feel that the continuous blast of hot air from hair driers causes a dry, brittle condition.

You may need a good hair cut to see you through the summer. Hair is much more easily set and cared for if it is thinned and shaped by a professional. So your hair will be manageable—and this is most important for many times you go from the beach to the ballroom floor — go to the top "razor-and-scissor" man in your vicinity.

Soroptimist Fall Dance Sept. 11

September 11 has been set for the seventh annual benefit dance of the Soroptimist Club of Cumberland. The semi-formal affair will be held at the Ali Ghan Country Club as usual. Happy Laughner's Orchestra, Johnstown, Pa., will play for the dancing from 9 until 1 o'clock.

The dance is open to the public. Reservations will be made on the first come, first served basis. The club plans to sell 200 tickets and when these are gone, the reservations will be closed. No tickets will be sold at the door the night of the dance. Table centerpieces will be presented to the couple responsible for the reservation.

Mrs. Fay Stillwagon, president of the club, is general chairman. Serving with her will be Mrs. Maxine Doak, chairman of reservations; Mrs. Alice DeHaven, receptionist; Mrs. Dorothy Green, tickets for club members and their friends; and Mrs. Stillwagon, tickets for the general public.

Dinner To Be Served Preceding Club Dance

Because of the dance tonight at the Cumberland Country Club, the dining room will close at 8:30 instead of the usual 9:30, Carroll Boggs announces.

Members of the Woman's Golf Association will present a floor show and revue during intermission. Music will be by the Dick Lewis Orchestra.

Non-members may attend the dance. Tickets may be purchased from Mrs. M. R. Barnes, PA 2-1204.

Mrs. Frederick Puderbaugh, 777 Fayette Street, has returned home from Sacred Heart Hospital, where she underwent an operation.

Cresaptown Picnic To Be Aug. 8

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of Cresaptown Methodist Church accepted the conference budget and planned to cooperate with the Sunday school for the annual picnic at the regular business session, earlier in the week at the church. Mrs. Arlie Borror presided.

A budget of $900 was accepted and $400 will be used for the renovation of the church kitchen. The annual Sunday school picnic will be held August 8 at the Episcopal Recreation center, near Romney.

Work of collecting squares for the quilt was continued as the missionary project helping the youth of the church. The women also will do the quilting.

Mrs. Ellsworth Lewis was in charge of the worship program. A report on the trip to the Gaithersburg Home for the Aged was given in the form of a panel discussion, led by Mrs. W. A. Judy. Others participating were Mrs. G. E. Broadwater, Mrs. Harold Lewis and Mrs. Martin Johnson.

Twenty-seven members attended the meeting.

Summer Party Planned

A mid-summer games party will be held by the Central YMCA Auxiliary August 13 at the Y, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. James R. Smith and Mrs. G. W. Diehl are general chairmen. They will be assisted by Mrs. Marshall Twigg, in charge of refreshments; Mrs. George N. Phillippi, Mrs. Charles Heller, in charge of the candy sale; and Mrs. Kenneth Rogers, in charge of prizes.

Joy Jackson To Become Bride Of Donald Paupe

Miss Joy Ann Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie J. Jackson, 551 Patterson Avenue, will become the bride of Donald Eugene Paupe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Paupe, 810 Shriver Avenue, tonight.

The wedding ceremony is to be solemnized at 7 p.m. in First Christian Church with Rev. Ralph Burnette, pastor and Rev. John F. Sammel, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, officiating. Bouquets of assorted white flowers are being used in the decorations.

Mrs. Ivan Miller, Fairmont, W. Va., is to be her sister's matron of honor, while Mrs. Roy Kurtz and Miss Doris Duckworth are her bridesmaids. Sherry Burnette will be the flower girl. Owen Morris will serve as Mr. Paupe's best man and Lonnie R. Jackson and Roy Kurtz will be the ushers. Dr. Frank Gamble will be the vocalist, accompanied at the organ by Miss Delores Rowley, who also will play the traditional wedding march from the opera Lohengrin, and Mendelssohn's recessional.

To be given in marriage by her father, the bride will be attired in a gown of white organza, fashioned with fitted bodice and short sleeves, with full skirt with chapel train. With it she will wear matching organza mitts, and a fingertip-length veil of illusion, held by a pearl and rhinestone headdress. Completing her costume, she will carry a bouquet of white roses, mums and babybreath.

Her attendants all will wear white organdy dresses, made complementary to hers. Mrs. Miller's has a pink sash and she will wear pink hat and slippers. Mrs. Kurtz will have green sash and accessories and Miss Duckworth, yellow. The flower girl's are orchid.

Mrs. Jackson has chosen a silk, black and white print dress for her daughter's wedding. With it she will wear a white hat and accessories and a white orchid corsage, and carry a black patent leather bag.

The bride is a graduate of Allegany High School and is employed on the office staff of the Kelly Springfield Tire Company. The bridegroom also is a graduate of Allegany High School and of Johns Hopkins School of Engineering. He is employed by the Celanese Corporation of America.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson will be hosts at a wedding reception honoring their daughter and her bridal party. It will be at the Ali Ghan Country Club. The bridal motif is to be carried out in the all-white floral arrangements, and repeated in the tiered wedding cake, adorned with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

For their wedding trip the bride has selected an imported linen dress of white with blue flowers. With it she will wear white accessories and her corsage of white roses. Upon their return Mr. Paupe and his bride will reside at 717 Glenmore Street.

SWIMSHEATH TWO-PIECE LOOK LOW BOW

BRILLIANT COLORS GET IN THE SWIM — The rainbow on the beach is a riot of color. New tropical colors include hot coral, yellow, tangerine, tropic red, deep turquoise, and sea blues, in addition to the perennial black and white. Biggest news on the swim wear is the return of the two piece, bare-midriff suit, often with adjustable drawstrings that can convert it to Bikini proportions. There also are plenty of gay, flattering one-piece suits. They come in vivid solid colors as well as bright prints, woven plaids and stripes. Left is the Swimsheath, bold plaid in bright blue, black and white makes this striking suit, designed by Catalina. Center, Two-piece Look, has the new two-piece look without undue exposure. A contrasting cummerbund joins bra and trunks of tangerine color-locked acetate and cotton, jacquard weave, by Jantzen. Right, Low Bow Silhouette, sheath suit in turquoise and white stripes, by Robby Len Lee, has low hip band.

Mr., Mrs. T. L. McCusker Mark 52d Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. McCusker observed their 52d wedding anniversary quietly yesterday, and will hold a family reunion tomorrow at their home, Little Orleans. Although both are "able to get around," they are not well enough for the excitement of a party.

The former Miss Cecelia Ashkettle, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Ashkettle, Little Orleans, became the bride of Mr. McCusker, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Abner McCusker, Hancock, July 17, 1907. The wedding ceremony was solemnized in St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Little Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. McCusker are the parents of six children. They are Bernard L. McCusker, Mrs. Henry Hofe, James McCusker, Mrs. Leo Wigfield, Hagerstown; Donald McCusker, Little Orleans and Mrs. Wilber George, Cumberland. They have 35 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Although both Mr. and Mrs. McCusker have to use crutches they "get along real well," he continues to do his own gardening and she does all the housework. They also can all their own food. Mr. McCusker is a retired farmer.

Allegany Class Of 1954 Plans Reunion August 8

The deadline for securing reservations for the first five-year reunion of Allegany High School's class of 1954 is July 25, according to Herbert Gaither, chairman of the event.

The reunion will be in the form of a dinner-dance and will be held at the Cumberland Country Club on August 8, beginning at 6:30 p. m.

Reservations may be obtained by contacting Mr. Gaither at 627 Columbia Avenue or by calling PA 2-7307. There will be a choice of three dinners—ham, chicken, or roast beef, and members of the class are asked to state their preference upon making reservations.

Prizes will be awarded to various members of the class and a program of entertainment is being planned. Following the dinner, dancing to an orchestra will begin at 9.

Bernard Beerman is president of the class of 189 members.

Soroptimist Fall Dance Sept. 11

September 11 has been set for the seventh annual benefit dance of the Soroptimist Club of Cumberland. The semi-formal affair will be held at the Ali Ghan Country Club as usual. Happy Laughner's Orchestra, Johnstown, Pa., will play for the dancing from 9 until 1 o'clock.

The dance is open to the public. Reservations will be made on the first come, first served basis. The club plans to sell 200 tickets and when these are gone, the reservations will be closed. No tickets will be sold at the door the night of the dance. Table centerpieces will be presented to the couple responsible for the reservation.

Mrs. Fay Stillwagon, president of the club, is general chairman. Serving with her will be Mrs. Maxine Doak, chairman of reservations; Mrs. Alice DeHaven, receptionist; Mrs. Dorothy Green, tickets for club members and their friends; and Mrs. Stillwagon, tickets for the general public.

Dinner To Be Served Preceding Club Dance

Because of the dance tonight at the Cumberland Country Club, the dining room will close at 8:30 instead of the usual 9:30, Carroll Boggs announces.

Members of the Woman's Golf Association will present a floor show and revue during intermission. Music will be by the Dick Lewis Orchestra.

Non-members may attend the dance. Tickets may be purchased from Mrs. M. R. Barnes, PA 2-1204.

Mrs. Frederick Puderbaugh, 777 Fayette Street, has returned home from Sacred Heart Hospital, where she underwent an operation.

Cresaptown Picnic To Be Aug. 8

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of Cresaptown Methodist Church accepted the conference budget and planned to cooperate with the Sunday school for the annual picnic at the regular business session, earlier in the week at the church. Mrs. Arlie Borror presided.

A budget of $900 was accepted and $400 will be used for the renovation of the church kitchen. The annual Sunday school picnic will be held August 8 at the Episcopal Recreation center, near Romney.

Work of collecting squares for the quilt was continued as the missionary project helping the youth of the church. The women also will do the quilting.

Mrs. Ellsworth Lewis was in charge of the worship program. A report on the trip to the Gaithersburg Home for the Aged was given in the form of a panel discussion, led by Mrs. W. A. Judy. Others participating were Mrs. G. E. Broadwater, Mrs. Harold Lewis and Mrs. Martin Johnson.

Twenty-seven members attended the meeting.

Summer Party Planned

A mid-summer games party will be held by the Central YMCA Auxiliary August 13 at the Y, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. James R. Smith and Mrs. G. W. Diehl are general chairmen. They will be assisted by Mrs. Marshall Twigg, in charge of refreshments; Mrs. George N. Phillippi, Mrs. Charles Heller, in charge of the candy sale; and Mrs. Kenneth Rogers, in charge of prizes.

Picnic Areas May Dot Town Of Lonaconing

Forestry Camp Boys May Aid Project

LONACONING — Mayor Robert D. Peebles suggested, at a meeting of the Lonaconing Rotary Club this week, that small wayside picnic areas be placed on city or coal company property in the community.

The project is intended to boost civic pride and to beautify the town.

Robert Hadley, community service chairman, was placed in charge of the project.

Dr. Leslie R. Miles Jr., president, presented a check for $158.55 to Good Will Volunteer Fire Company No. 1 officers—John Eichhorn, president; Wesley Duckworth, treasurer, and Robert Robertson, secretary, at their dinner program on Thursday evening.

Jack Kesner, Midland, was a guest of his father at the Rotary meeting. Dr. Miles distributed committees reports forms to prepare for the visitation of the District Governor in the coming month.

The annual family picnic will be held on July 29 at Bradley Cottage, Deep Creek Lake. Ladies Auxiliary of the VFW will prepare the food.

A snack will be served at 4 p. m. and the picnic dinner at 7 p.m. Activities planned are swimming, boating, water skiing, whistle ball game, tug-o-war, sack races and three legged races.

The Rotary Club will challenge the Lonaconing Lions Club to a softball game September 13.

600 Guardsmen Begin Training Near Kingwood

They are members of the 1092d Engineer Battalion, headquartered in Parkersburg; the 130th Ordnance Company, Williamson; 249th Army Band, Fairmont, and the State Headquarters Detachment of Charleston and Pt. Pleasant.

In addition to these troops, two classes of the West Virginia Military Academy will be in session during the 15-day period.

Highlight of the encampment will be the traditional Governor's Day review July 25. Gov Cecil H. Underwood will be guest of honor.

The visit by Underwood to Camp Dawson will be his first this year to Guard units in training and will help mark the Golden Anniversary of the state's only military post.

The governor will present awards to some 20 Guardsmen throughout the state. Other guests will include Sen Jennings Randolph (D-W. Va.) and Maj. Gen. Rinaldo VanBrunt, deputy commanding general of Second Army headquarters.

The first military academy class began last summer and will have its final examinations during the two - week encampment. Graduation ceremonies are scheduled Aug. 1.

Lt. Col. George P. Black, Parkersburg, commands the 1092d and also will serve as troop commander for the July 25 review.

Capt. William French, Williamson, commands the Williamson unit, CWO Harland S. Hartman the 249th Army Band, and Capt. Thomas C. Damewood, Charleston, the state headquarters detachment.

W. Va. Officials Take Look At Plans For Soft Coal As Paving Material

By CARLO J. SALZANO
United Press International

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — Road Commission officials are taking a long, hard look at a new road building material that could give West Virginia's soft coal industry a shot in the arm.

The material, still in the experimental stage, is made from soft coal derivatives through a process developed by Curtiss - Wright Corp., Woodridge, N. Y.

Two states — Pennsylvania and Kentucky — have contracted with Curtiss - Wright for construction of experimental plants and use of the so - called binder on various highways for testing purposes.

Deputy State Road Commissioner George E. White Jr., who toured an experimental plant at Quehanna, Pa., last week, said Curtiss - Wright has "certain labratory tests which are very interesting and appear to offer promise."

Plant In W. Va.?

White said the establishment of a similar plant in West Virginia "is being considered," but that meanwhile the commission plans to obtain some of the binder for limited testing in the Mountain State.

White said the commission was keeping abreast of the development and had been in touch with Kentucky in an effort to evaluate tests made there.

A Curtiss - Wright representative, G. Frederick Brackett, visited Gov. Cecil H. Underwood Thursday after talking with White and Road Commissioner Patrick C. Graney. Underwood was pictured as "vitally interested" but said the decision on setting up a pilot plant in West Virginia rested with the Road Commission.

As for the cost of the binder on a commercial basis, Brackett said it could not be determined at this time. But he ventured that it would be "competitive" with asphalt although "four - times better" in quality.

Less Repair Needed

Bracket added a highway constructed of the new coal - containing binder would require much less maintenance and would have better resistence to skidding than asphalt.

The federal government also is studying the material for possible use on the Interstate Highway System, he said.

Brackett estimated it would take about 2,200 tons of coal to make enough binder for one mile of highway 20 feet in width. He could not estimate the cost of a pilot plant in West Virginia but said that Kentucky's contract called for a $200,000 facility which included technical help from Curtiss-Wright.

26 To Take W. Va. Police Training

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — State Police Supt. Hazen H. Fair said Friday only 26 of more than 300 applicants qualified for the basic training course opening Aug. 2 at the State Police Academy at nearby Institute.

The recruits who succeed in completing the 14-week training, including some 500 hours of classroom instruction, will become members of the West Virginia Department of Public Safety.

Those scheduled to report Aug. 2 are:

Charles L. Hughes, Charleston; Robert L. Hurt, Fairmont; Ralph C. Keaton, Layland, Fayette County; Richard A. Kettler, Wheeling; Harold W. Lambert, Princeton; Paul B. Lane, Moundsville; John P. Miller, Grafton.

Alfred D. Linville, Charleston; Donald W. McCoy, Buckhannon; Nicholas G. McNeil, Buckeye, Pocahontas County; Russell H. Miller, Clarksburg; William H. Mitchell, Pt. Pleasant; Conley Owens Jr., War, McDowell County.

James E. Parsons, Nutter Fort, Harrison County; Jack M. Perry, Barboursville; Raymond Prudnick, Star City, Monongalia County; Ronald L. Purkey, Philippi; William C. Roach, Huntington.

Franklin Church Will Observe Anniversary

FRANKLIN, W. Va. — Faith Lutheran Church will observe the tenth anniversary of the present church building Sunday with a series of services. The church was dedicated July 17, 1949.

Three services will mark the occasion. The congregation will attend the 10 a. m. worship devotion. Rev. Robert J. Brown, pastor, will preach and new members will be received.

Another service will be held at 8 p. m. following a covered dish supper on the church grounds at 6:30. Guest preacher will be Rev. Orville E. Lueck of Bethel Lutheran Church, Canton, Ohio. Rev. Lueck was pastor of the Franklin Lutheran parish from 1946 to 1954, during which time the church and parsonage were built. His theme will be "Our Task — Still After Ten Years!"

The third anniversary observance will be held Monday at 7:30 p. m. Rev. John Schramm of Hope Lutheran Church, Annandale, Va., is the scheduled speaker. He will preach on the theme, "The Salt of the Earth." Rev. Schramm is minister of a "package mission" congregation, part of a program of the American Lutheran Church by which churches are estabiished in new communities. A social hour in the church basement will follow the service.

Extensive improvements have been made in the church building as part of the anniversary plans. Interior walls were painted, wood floors were sanded and refinished altarware was refinished, and the church was given a general cleaning.

Bedford Fair Entries Due July 25

BEDFORD, Pa. — Bedford Fair officials have issued a reminder to all area farmers intent on showing livestock at the Bedford Fair this year that the closing date for livestock entries has been set at Saturday, July 25. This early closing date is essential so that entries for each event can be recorded and facilities for housing the stock can be assured.

Entries in the other departments including needlework, arts and crafts, and home and dairy products will be received from noon Saturday, August 8, until noon Monday, August 10. All entries must remain on display until the closing of the fair and none, excepting livestock, can be removed until Sunday August 16.

The 86th Bedford Fair, headlining Carmel Quinn and the Four Coins, will run from August 10-15.

Moorefield Is Completing Air Conditioned Hall For Poultry Convention

MOOREFIELD, W. Va. — The firemen's hall at town hall will be ready for the West Virginia Poultry Association Convention meeting here July 30 and 31 and August 1, according to L. L. McConnell, president of the Moorefield Volunteer Fire Company.

Workmen and firemen have been busy all spring and summer renovating the old town hall. The ceiling has been lowered and new flourescent lights installed throughout, with built-in speakers to amplify talks from the stage. Acoustical plastic has been sprayed on the ceiling to level out echos from the speakers platform.

The stage with new lighting has been extended and two dressing rooms installed for performers. The auditorium now has a level floor which will be suitable for dances, banquets or other entertainment. The capacity of the auditorium will be approximately 400.

The new auditorium will be air-conditioned for the comfort of convention delegates. One five-ton unit is ready for installation with an additional unit to be installed later. The entire auditorium has been plastered with a snack bar installed at the rear. A dumb waiter comes up from the basement which will provide facilities for banquets in the future. New wiring has replaced the old inadequate system.

An additional fire escape will be installed on the east side of the building to supplement the present fire escape on the west side. Glass blocks will be used to replace the present 32 windows in the old structure which was braced from the basement with new steel beams throughout.

A new tile floor will be laid next week in readiness for the convention.

McConnell said, "when completed the firemen's hall will be the only air conditioned auditorium available for use of the public in the Valley area."

Practically all the work on the new and modern auditorium has been done by the class of 'On The Job' trainees for carpenters and builders under the supervision of Ervie Wratchford, together with work by members of the Moorefield Volunteer Fire Company.

The seating will be folding chairs which can be easily removed or changed for banquets, dances or other meetings. One feature of the new auditorium is two built-in coves in what formerly was the balcony which can be used for special lighting effects with spots to the stage.

McConnell expressed his thanks on behalf of the firemen for the help and assistance given by the community on the project.

The revival meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock each night except Monday. The Sheets family presents both vocal and instrumental musical numbers. Rev. James L. Tate, pastor, who said the public is welcome, announced that the church bus will run its regular schedule during the revival.

Tentative Plans For Swim Pool Get Approval

KEYSER — The board of directors of Mill Creek Country Club has approved tentative plans and specifications for a swimming pool to be constructed near the Upper Potomac Shrine Club, which will also be used as a club house.

Plans have been sent to the West Virginia Department of Health for approval. Construction is tentatively scheduled to start in about a week.

The pool will be 25 by 50 feet and constructed of concrete with a four-foot walk. It will have modern chlorination and filtration systems and will be located across the stream from the club house and slightly to the west.

Construction of the locker room and pro shop will be completed this week, President James H. Swadley Jr. said.

FCC Control Of Community TV Backed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sanford F. Randolph, Clarksburg, president of the West Virginia Community Television Assn., told a Senate hearing Friday that his group favors a bill providing for Federal Communications Commission regulation of community TV antenna systems.

Randolph said the bill, sponsored by Sen. A. S. (Mike Monroney, is "fair to all and in the public interest."

The Monroney measure is more favorable to the association than a bill proposed by Sen. Frank E. Moss. The Moss bill provides that such systems obtain permission from regular TV stations to distribute their signals whereas the Monroney bill does not.

When his company started in 1953 it had an installation charge of $125 per subscriber, plus a $3.50 monthly charge for three channels it programmed, he said.

In November, 1958, the company added two more channels and upped its monthly charge to $3.75, at the same time the company instituted an installation charge of $110 for homes already wired for the cable.

Randolph said in addition his firm has established a system whereby subscribers are charged a $5 initial fee, plus $5.85 a month for rental. He said his company now has 8,100 subscribers.

Comedienne Joins Cast At Playhouse

Miss Rebecca Singer, night club comedienne, joins the summer cast at the Garrett County Playhouse for the hit comedy "Time Out For Ginger" which will open Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. (DST).

A graduate of the American Academy of Dramatic Arts where she won the Jehlinger Award for ability as an actress, she has performed at the Bergundy Room and 1 Fifth Avenue. She comes here direct from the Green Mountain Playhouse in Vermont.

Next week's domestic comedy deals with a staid banker who needs some sort of creative release and finds it in lecturing to local high school classes on the need for self-fulfillment. It quickly develops that one of his own daughters can only find it by going out for the football team.

Rebecca Singer takes the part of the mother; Jennifer Yell (Teenage daughter of Gene Yell, director) is Ginger; E. J. Peaker, Gene; Sai Springwell, Joan, and Sally Lutin, Lizzie the maid.

The father is played by Neil Flanagan; the bank president, Gene Falcetta; the principal, George Randall; Tommy, Chris Curran; the football player, Sandy Holloway, a local boy who is a student at Brown University.

"Time Out For Ginger" was written by Ronald Alexander, author of the current TV series "Too Young To Go Steady," which stars Donald Cook and Joan Bennett.

The play will run Tuesday to Saturday, beginning at 8:30 p. m. at the Garrett County Playhouse on the shores of Deep Creek Lake.

Reservations may be made by dialing DEerfield 4-4884.

Cemetery Basket Theft Count Dropped

KEYSER — Charges against William K. Linthicum, 48, who was arrested for the theft of baskets from a grave in St. Thomas Cemetery last week, were ordered dismissed Wednesday by Prosecuting Attorney Donald C. Hott.

Linthicum was scheduled for a hearing before Justice of the Peace Madalyn Bazzle, but the prosecutor said he dismissed the charges when he learned all the facts.

The baskets were taken from the grave of Mrs. Leonardo Lamberto the day after her burial July 8. The flowers were found strewn over a bank nearby.

Linthicum, who is caretaker at the cemetery, claimed he discovered the vandalism and returned the baskets to a local florist shop, according to an agreement he had with the florist.

In dismissing the charges, Prosecutor Hott made the following prepared statement:

"It was found necessary for the State to dismiss the charges preferred involving the alleged theft last week of some 38 baskets of flowers from the grave of Mrs. Leonarda Lamberto within a day following her burial. It was revealed in the hearing that the local florists selling funeral flowers consider that the baskets in which the flowers are placed are only loaned to the buyer and are subject to being retaken by the florist after use. The accused in this case was acting under a standing arrangement which he, as caretaker of the cemetery, had with one of the florists to recover the baskets from the grave and return them to the florists, for which he received a slight fee. Under these circumstances, there could be no theft, and so the charges were dismissed.

"It is unfortunate that the law cannot provide an adequate remedy in such instances, but the responsibility for the present situation would lie with the owners of the cemeteries through their control of the caretakers and the local florists, and can be corrected only by them."

In addition to these troops, two classes of the West Virginia Military Academy will be in session during the 15-day period.

Highlight of the encampment will be the traditional Governor's Day review July 25. Gov. Cecil H. Underwood will be guest of honor.

The visit by Underwood to Camp Dawson will be his first this year to Guard units in training and will help mark the Golden Anniversary of the state's only military post.

The governor will present awards to some 20 Guardsmen throughout the state. Other guests will include Sen. Jennings Randolph (D-W. Va.) and Maj. Gen. Rinaldo VanBrunt, deputy commanding general of Second Army headquarters.

The first military academy class began last summer and will have its final examinations during the two - week encampment. Graduation ceremonies are scheduled Aug. 1.

Lt. Col. George P. Black, Parkersburg, commands the 1092d and also will serve as troop commander for the July 25 review.

Capt. William French, Williamson, commands the Williamson unit, CWO Harland S. Hartman the 249th Army Band, and Capt. Thomas C. Damewood, Charleston, the state headquarters detachment.

W. Va. Officials Take Look At Plans For Soft Coal As Paving Material

By CARLO J. SALZANO
United Press International

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — Road Commission officials are taking a long, hard look at a new road building material that could give West Virginia's soft coal industry a shot in the arm.

The material, still in the experimental stage, is made from soft coal derivatives through a process developed by Curtiss - Wright Corp., Woodridge, N. Y.

Two states — Pennsylvania and Kentucky — have contracted with Curtiss - Wright for construction of experimental plants and use of the so - called binder on various highways for testing purposes.

Deputy State Road Commissioner George E. White Jr., who toured an experimental plant at Quehanna, Pa., last week, said Curtiss - Wright has "certain labratory tests which are very interesting and appear to offer promise."

Plant In W. Va.?

White said the establishment of a similar plant in West Virginia "is being considered," but that meanwhile the commission plans to obtain some of the binder for limited testing in the Mountain State.

White said the commission was keeping abreast of the development and had been in touch with Kentucky in an effort to evaluate tests made there.

A Curtiss - Wright representative, G. Frederick Brackett, visited Gov. Cecil H. Underwood Thursday after talking with White and Road Commissioner Patrick C. Graney. Underwood was pictured as "vitally interested" but said the decision on setting up a pilot plant in West Virginia rested with the Road Commission.

As for the cost of the binder on a commercial basis, Brackett said it could not be determined at this time. But he ventured that it would be "competitive" with asphalt although "four - times better" in quality.

Less Repair Needed

Bracket added a highway constructed of the new coal - containing binder would require much less maintenance and would have better resistence to skidding than asphalt.

The federal government also is studying the material for possible use on the Interstate Highway System, he said.

Brackett estimated it would take about 2,200 tons of coal to make enough binder for one mile of highway 20 feet in width. He could not estimate the cost of a pilot plant in West Virginia but said that Kentucky's contract called for a $200,000 facility which included technical help from Curtiss-Wright.

Franklin Church Will Observe Anniversary

FRANKLIN, W. Va. — Faith Lutheran Church will observe the tenth anniversary of the present church building Sunday with a series of services. The church was dedicated July 17, 1949.

Three services will mark the occasion. The congregation will attend the 10 a. m. worship devotion. Rev. Robert J. Brown, pastor, will preach and new members will be received.

Another service will be held at 8 p. m. following a covered dish supper on the church grounds at 6:30. Guest preacher will be Rev. Orville E. Lueck of Bethel Lutheran Church, Canton, Ohio. Rev. Lueck was pastor of the Franklin Lutheran parish from 1946 to 1954, during which time the church and parsonage were built. His theme will be "Our Task — Still After Ten Years!"

The third anniversary observance will be held Monday at 7:30 p. m. Rev. John Schramm of Hope Lutheran Church, Annandale, Va., is the scheduled speaker. He will preach on the theme, "The Salt of the Earth." Rev. Schramm is minister of a "package mission" congregation, part of a program of the American Lutheran Church by which churches are established in new communities. A social hour in the church basement will follow the service.

Extensive improvements have been made in the church building as part of the anniversary plans. Interior walls were painted, wood floors were sanded and refinished altarware was refinished, and the church was given a general cleaning.

Bedford Fair Entries Due July 25

BEDFORD, Pa. — Bedford Fair officials have issued a reminder to all area farmers intent on showing livestock at the Bedford Fair this year that the closing date for livestock entries has been set at Saturday, July 25. This early closing date is essential so that entries for each event can be recorded and facilities for housing the stock can be assured.

Entries in the other departments including needlework, arts and crafts, and home and dairy products will be received from noon Saturday, August 8, until noon Monday, August 10. All entries must remain on display until the closing of the fair and none, excepting livestock, can be removed until Sunday August 16.

The 86th Bedford Fair, headlining Carmel Quinn and the Four Coins, will run from August 10-15.

Moorefield Is Completing Air Conditioned Hall For Poultry Convention

MOOREFIELD, W. Va. — The firemen's hall at town hall will be ready for the West Virginia Poultry Association Convention meeting here July 30 and 31 and August 1, according to L. L. McConnell, president of the Moorefield Volunteer Fire Company.

Workmen and firemen have been busy all spring and summer renovating the old town hall. The ceiling has been lowered and new flourescent lights installed throughout, with built-in speakers to amplify talks from the stage. Acoustical plastic has been sprayed on the ceiling to level out echos from the speakers platform.

The stage with new lighting has been extended and two dressing rooms installed for performers. The auditorium now has a level floor which will be suitable for dances, banquets or other entertainment. The capacity of the auditorium will be approximately 400.

The new auditorium will be air-conditioned for the comfort of convention delegates. One five-ton unit is ready for installation with an additional unit to be installed later. The entire auditorium has been plastered with a snack bar installed at the rear. A dumb waiter comes up from the basement which will provide facilities for banquets in the future. New wiring has replaced the old inadequate system.

An additional fire escape will be installed on the east side of the building to supplement the present fire escape on the west side. Glass blocks will be used to replace the present 32 windows in the old structure which was braced from the basement with new steel beams throughout.

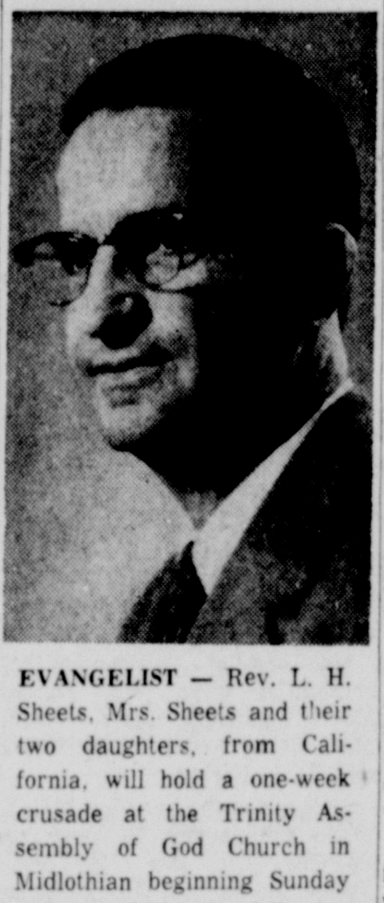
A new tile floor will be laid next week in readiness for the convention.

McConnell said, "when completed the firemen's hall will be the only air conditioned auditorium available for use of the public in the Valley area."

Practically all the work on the new and modern auditorium has been done by the class of 'On The Job' trainees for carpenters and builders under the supervision of Ervie Wratchford, together with work by members of the Moorefield Volunteer Fire Company.

The seating will be folding chairs which can be easily removed or changed for banquets, dances or other meetings. One feature of the new auditorium is two built-in coves in what formerly was the balcony which can be used for special lighting effects with spots to the stage.

McConnell expressed his thanks on behalf of the firemen for the help and assistance given by the community on the project.



EVANGELIST — Rev. L. H. Sheets, Mrs. Sheets and their two daughters, from California, will hold a one-week crusade at the Trinity Assembly of God Church in Midlothian beginning Sunday and concluding the following Sunday, July 26. The revival meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock each night except Monday. The Sheets family presents both vocal and instrumental musical numbers. Rev. James L. Tate, pastor, who said the public is welcome, announced that the church bus will run its regular schedule during the revival.

Tentative Plans For Swim Pool Get Approval

KEYSER — The board of directors of Mill Creek Country Club has approved tentative plans and specifications for a swimming pool to be constructed near the Upper Potomac Shrine Club, which will also be used as a club house.

Plans have been sent to the West Virginia Department of Health for approval. Construction is tentatively scheduled to start in about a week.

The pool will be 25 by 50 feet and constructed of concrete with a four-foot walk. It will have modern chlorination and filtration systems and will be located across the stream from the club house and slightly to the west.

Construction of the locker room and pro shop will be completed this week, President James H. Swadley Jr. said.

Deaths And Funerals

CHARLES R. DURST

OAKLAND — Charles Russell Durst, 77, of Mt. Lake Park, died Wednesday in Baltimore where he had been visiting a son, Wendell Durst, for the past six weeks.

Born at New Germany, he was a son of the late Francis and Alice (Bankard) Durst. He held membership in Crellin Methodist Church and the Woodmen of the World.

Surviving, besides his son, are two brothers, Cecil and John Durst, both of Akron, two sisters, Mrs. Ethel Poland, Luke, and Mrs. Frank Stephens, Westernport, and two grandchildren.

The body is at the Minnich Funeral Home here where services will be conducted today at 2 p. m. Rev. W. Shelby Welthall will officiate and interment will be in Ashby Cemetery.

FCC Control Of Community TV Backed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sanford F. Randolph, Clarksburg, president of the West Virginia Community Television Assn., told a Senate hearing Friday that his group favors a bill providing for Federal Communications Commission regulation of community TV antenna systems.

Randolph said the bill, sponsored by Sen. A. S. (Mike Monroney, is "fair to all and in the public interest."

The Monroney measure is more favorable to the association than a bill proposed by Sen. Frank E. Moss. The Moss bill provides that such systems obtain permission from regular TV stations to distribute their signals whereas the Monroney bill does not.

When his company started in 1953 it had an installation charge of $125 per subscriber, plus a $3.50 monthly charge for three channels it programmed, he said.

In November, 1958, the company added two more channels and upped its monthly charge to $3.75, at the same time the company instituted an installation charge of $110 for homes already wired for the cable.

Randolph said in addition his firm has established a system whereby subscribers are charged a $5 initial fee, plus $5.85 a month for rental. He said his company now has 8,100 subscribers.

Comedienne Joins Cast At Playhouse

Miss Rebecca Singer, night club comedienne, joins the summer cast at the Garrett County Playhouse for the hit comedy "Time Out For Ginger" which will open Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. (DST).

A graduate of the American Academy of Dramatic Arts where she won the Jehlinger Award for ability as an actress, she has performed at the Bergundy Room and 1 Fifth Avenue. She comes here direct from the Green Mountain Playhouse in Vermont.

Next week's domestic comedy deals with a staid banker who needs some sort of creative release and finds it in lecturing to local high school classes on the need for self-fulfillment. It quickly develops that one of his own daughters can only find it by going out for the football team.

The father is played by Neil Flanagan; the bank president, Gene Falcetta; the principal, George Randall; Tommy, Chris Curran; the football player, Sandy Holloway, a local boy who is a student at Brown University.

"Time Out For Ginger" was written by Ronald Alexander, author of the current TV series "Too Young To Go Steady," which stars Donald Cook and Joan Bennett.

The play will run Tuesday to Saturday, beginning at 8:30 p. m. at the Garrett County Playhouse on the shores of Deep Creek Lake.

Reservations may be made by dialing DEerfield 4-4884.

Cemetery Basket Theft Count Dropped

KEYSER — Charges against William K. Linthicum, 48, who was arrested for the theft of baskets from a grave in St. Thomas Cemetery last week, were ordered dismissed Wednesday by Prosecuting Attorney Donald C. Hott.

Linthicum was scheduled for a hearing before Justice of the Peace Madalyn Bazzle, but the prosecutor said he dismissed the charges when he learned all the facts.

The baskets were taken from the grave of Mrs. Leonardo Lamberto the day after her burial July 8. The flowers were found strewn over a bank nearby.

Linthicum, who is caretaker at the cemetery, claimed he discovered the vandalism and returned the baskets to a local florist shop, according to an agreement he had with the florist.

In dismissing the charges, Prosecutor Hott made the following prepared statement:

"It was found necessary for the State to dismiss the charges preferred involving the alleged theft last week of some 38 baskets of flowers from the grave of Mrs. Leonarda Lamberto within a day following her burial. It was revealed in the hearing that the local florists selling funeral flowers consider that the baskets in which the flowers are placed are only loaned to the buyer and are subject to being retaken by the florist after use. The accused in this case was acting under a standing arrangement which he, as caretaker of the cemetery, had with one of the florists to recover the baskets from the grave and return them to the florists, for which he received a slight fee. Under these circumstances, there could be no theft, and so the charges were dismissed.

"It is unfortunate that the law cannot provide an adequate remedy in such instances, but the responsibility for the present situation would lie with the owners of the cemeteries through their control of the caretakers and the local florists, and can be corrected only by them."

the leap of FAITH

The paratrooper has faith in his "chute." The motorist has faith in his brakes. The shopper has faith in the brand-name she buys. All of us exercise our faith a hundred times a day.

Religious faith is like its every-day cousin. It is the same implicit reliance . . . the same daring confidence.

Religious faith comes when we seek it. But there is always the leap. Man has to step from his worldly floor into the spiritual space where God reveals his power and love. He must decide to believe what he cannot prove!

Like the leap of the paratrooper, the leap of faith begins months earlier in careful training.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

the leap of FAITH

The paratrooper has faith in his "chute." The motorist has faith in his brakes. The shopper has faith in the brand-name she buys. All of us exercise our faith a hundred times a day.

Religious faith is like its every-day cousin. It is the same implicit reliance . . . the same daring confidence.

Religious faith comes when we seek it. But there is always the leap. Man has to step from his worldly floor into the spiritual space where God reveals his power and love. He must decide to believe what he cannot prove!

Like the leap of the paratrooper, the leap of faith begins months earlier in careful training.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Maggot Flies Visit Orchards

Apple orchards in this area are being pestered by apple maggot flies, according to County Agent Joseph M. Steger.

Theodore L. Bissell, extension entomologist, has written in his publication called "Maryland Insect Notes" that the pests have begun to emerge.

The 1959 spray calendar states that apple maggots are a serious problem in certain sections and especially in early varieties such as Wealthy, Summer Rambo and Duchess. These varieties are susceptible because they are maturing when the adult insects are most active.

Where maggots have been a problem on fall varieties the following two sprays are recommended:

About July 15, three pounds of lead arsenate, one-half pound of parathion, one pound of captan or ferbam and 100 gallons of water.

PSC STUDIES CASE

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — The West Virginia Public Service Commission took under consideration Friday an application by the Country Club Addition in Clarksburg to furnish water service to its residents. Representatives of the public service district told the PSC water would be purchased from the Clarksburg Water Board.

Cuba To Host Arabs

CAIRO (UPI)—The United Arab Republic will send an economic delegation to Cuba shortly, officials said Friday. Economic Under Secretary Mahmoud Badawi Elshiati will head the delegation.

Area Must Beat The Drum For North Branch Project

Communities along the North Branch of the Potomac River should not depend upon Washington to beat the drums for proposed development of this area's water resources.

Any wishful thinking that the pressure for the proposed program would come from the Washington area was quashed by D. V. C. Birrell, chief of the Potomac River Survey being conducted by the Corps of Engineers, during a planning meeting held here this week by officials of the Interstate Commission on the Potomac River Basin.

He said the water from the North Branch of the Potomac River represents only about 10 per cent of Washington's water supply.

An interim report on the North Branch, designed to meet the area's needs for the next 50 years, was outlined last fall at a commission meeting at Blackwater Falls.

Heart of the plan are a dam on the North Branch of the Potomac 2.4 miles above the junction of the Savage River, a dam on Stony River and a third on the Savage River 3.5 miles above the present Savage River Dam.

Control of floods on the North Branch, the report said, would prevent flood damage from Luke to below Cumberland and remove from flood hazards some 1,600 acres of land suitable for industrial development.

More land could be made suitable for industry with only minor improvements by land fill or levees, the report said.

Randolph Calls Water Pollution Law A Success

ELKINS, W. Va. (UPI) — Sen. Jennings Randolph (D-W. Va.) said Friday that the federal water pollution act has proved a great success and has resulted in construction projects started or completed which will clean up 14,000 miles of the nation's streams.

Randolph made the statement at ground breaking ceremonies Friday for a new million dollar sewage treatment plant to be built here. Rep. Harley O. Staggers and Elkins' Mayor Garland Hickman also joined in the ground breaking ceremonies.

The West Virginia senator also said there is another bill which has cleared the House Committee on Public Works. This one has the "purpose of further stimulating construction of needed municipal waste - treatment facilities to prevent the discharge of untreated of inadequately treated sewage or other waste into the nation's waters," he said.

"Construction of sewage treatment plants has also increased with federal plants," he said. Elkins received $250,000 in federal funds for its plant.

1916 Check Received

That would not be unusual except that the check was dated Oct. 3, 1916.

The check found recently at Huntington State Hospital was made out to a Belle Pitts for services rendered in September of that year.

Business Manager J. V. Pinney inquired of the state agency as to its disposal.

"If the rightful heir can prove his claim, we'll turn the check over to him," Asst. Atty. Gen. Curtis Trent said. "However, chances are that it will be destroyed."

The check was mailed to the Pitts woman at 23rd street, Huntington, but returned to the hospital for a "better address."

Musical Groups Will Feature YFC Rally

Two musical groups will be featured at the Tri-State Youth For Christ rally at 115 North Mechanic Street at 7:45 p. m. today.

These are The Ambassadors of Grace male quartet from Grace College, Winona Lake, Indiana, and a teen-age duet of Northern Virginia Youth For Christ.

The quartet includes Charles Bearinger, tenor, Warsaw, Ind.; Jerry Young, Sterling, Ohio; Dan Grabill, Altoona; Jim Custer, Martinsburg; Bill Schaffer, accompanist, Kittaning, Pa., and Donald Ogden, director of the group and speaker of the evening. Instrumental numbers will be presented along with gospel numbers in song.

The teen-age duet is "Butch" and Sharon Brumback, winners of the 1959 South Central Youth For Christ teen talent contest.

Jaycees To Meet At Elkins, W. Va.

ELKINS, W. Va. (UPI) — Sen. Jennings Randolph (D-W. Va.) and Bob Clark, Des Moines, Iowa, national president of the junior chamber of commerce, will be featured speakers Saturday at the West Virginia State Junior Chamber of Commerce board meeting here.

Jaycees from 28 communities throughout the state started arriving in Elkins Friday for the two - day meeting. State President Jack E. Stillman, Charleston, will preside over the meeting.

Doctor Injured In Fall From Tractor

ELKINS, W. Va. (UPI) — A prominent Charleston doctor was seriously injured in a lawn mower accident near Bartow, Pendleton County, Thursday night.

Dr. John A. B. Holt, 46, received six fractured ribs, severe lacerations of the scalp and laceration of the left foot when he fell off a tractor pulling the mower at his hunting and fishing camp.

FARMER WINS AWARD

SPENCER, W. Va. (UPI) — Garrison G. Tawney, Looneyville, has been named Roane County's top conservation farmer for 1959 by the Little Kanawha Soil Conservation District. Tawney operates a 500 acre farm near here.

Monongahela Forest Study Is Under Way

ELKINS, W. Va. (UPI) — R. O. Smoot, of the U. S. Forest Services, Upper Darby, Pa., district office, said Friday a survey of future needs of the Monongahela National Forest which might result in the assignment of land for hotels, resorts and summer homes is under way.

Smoot said the survey was a part of the outdoor recreation resources review being conducted on a nationwide basis.

Don Parslow of Elkins is in charge of the Monongahela project, he said.

The demand for public recreation occupancy sites in the forest by the year 2000 would reach 9,300 acres, Smoot said.

Smoot said on this basis, acreage would be allotted in the following amounts for the various recreation categories: 3,544 acres in camp grounds, 777 in picnic areas, 1,224 as organization sites, 461 for swimming, 52 for boating and 765 for winter sports.

He said if the areas were developed in these amounts some land would probably be allocated for hotels, resorts and summer homes. At present the Monongahela policy is that private land owners supply these three types of facilities.

Housing Leads State Construction

May contracts for future construction in Maryland totalled $160,139,000, an increase of 5 per cent compared to May 1958, according to F. W. Dodge Corporation.

A breakdown of contracts showed non-residential at $15,315,000, down 9 per cent; residential at $38,270,000, up 29 per cent and heavy engineering at $6,554,000, down 39 per cent.

Contracts for the first five months of 1959 amounted to $293,769,000, up 12 per cent. Cumulative total of contracts showed non-residential at $84,203,000, up 16 per cent; residential at $153,412,000, up 42 per cent; and heavy engineering at $56,154,000, down 32 per cent.

Extra Clerks End Their Duties Today

Allegany County Tax Collector William B. Orndorff informed the Board of County Commissioners yesterday two of the extra clerks who have been working in his office during the rush period will conclude their service tomorrow.

They are Mrs. Ann Whinnie and Robert Dawson, who have been working at the Court House since the rush period for tax payments started in May.

SPOTTE NAMED

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Princess Coal Sales Co. vice president Everett H. Larue said Friday Alder E. Spotte, Mallory, Logan County, was named general manager of sales. Spotte was transferred to the post from general managership of the firm's Powellton Coal Division.

FINE GIVEN CONSTABLE

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va. (UPI) — Magistrate Chester A. Burks Friday fined Marshall County Constable J. T. Rose $100 and costs on charges of using improper license plates on his automobile. State Police charged Rose was using a plate that had been issued for another vehicle.

Brotemarkle Will Retire From City Job

Charles L. Brotemarkle, assistant superintendent of Evitts Creek Water Company, has submitted his resignation to Water Commissioner G. Ray Light and will retire effective August 31.

Brotemarkle, who will be 67 in September, will have completed 40 years and six months in city service the end of next month and is the oldest city employe in point of service. He outranks Carl F. Minke, a meter reader in the city Water Department, by one month. Brotemarkle began city service in March, 1919, and Minke in April the same year.

Actually, Brotemarkle will leave the job August 11 to take his first vacation since 1941.

Brotemarkle worked on construction of the Ridgedale Reservoir in 1918 for the Cumberland Contracting Company and when it was nearing completion, asked Arthur G. Fowler, then superintendent of Evitts Creek Water Company, for a job.

Fowler said "Come on out, I'll give you a couple of days." Brotemarkle has been at the Lake Gordon water plant ever since.

Beginning as a laborer, he has been assistant superintendent 35 years. He was in complete charge for seven months in 1947 after the sudden death of C. J. Bruce, superintendent, and again from November 1, 1958 until the present time as the result of the resignation of the former superintendent, George M. Hitchcock.

Brotemarkle recalls when the old wooden water line was used and much of his time was spent in repairing frequent breaks. Often, he says, he would leave home Monday and not return until Saturday in order to keep the line in repair. This line was in operation from 1912 to 1932. Then a 36-inch reinforced concrete line was installed and in 1949 another of the same type.

Brotemarkle says the most important development for the city water system during his tenure was construction of the Koon Dam.

His recommendation upon retiring is installation of a pipeline connecting the water plant with Lake Koon. That way, he said if anything happens to Lake Gordon, the line could cut into Lake Koon dam without interruption of water service.

Brotemarkle saw the modern city filtration plant grow from six filters capable of six to seven million gallons to the present 18 filters and a capacity of 18 million gallons. He has seen the water system improved until it ranks with the best in the country.

During the recent modernization of the filter plant, Brotemarkle said he was in charge of shutting down the plant on 17 different occasions but at no time was the city without water.

The retiring superintendent holds a certified waterworks operator license from Pennsylvania and for four years attended a short course on waterworks operation at State College, Pa.

Brotemarkle says his plans for the future include doing odd jobs, fishing and "making up for all those vacations I've lost."

This is the second superintendent to resign within a month. Thomas S. Post, former mayor who has been superintendent of the sewage treatment plant, also has resigned, effective this month.

The city's new sanitary engineer, Franklin J. Blaney, is taking over the supervision of both the filtration and sewage treatment facilities.

Two Wills Filed For Probate Here

Two wills were admitted to probate yesterday in Allegany County Orphans Court.

The will of Oscar Ervin Steinla, local auto dealer, who died July 2 named the Liberty Trust Company as executor with bond set at $3,000.

Mrs. Mernie (Ours) Steinla, widow, and Evelyn (Steinla) Light, a daughter; Paul E. and Jacon Oscar Steinla, sons, were named as beneficiaries of stock in the Steinla Motor Company. Another daughter, Catherine Steinla Judy, received stock from her father previously.

The will of Paul A. Williams, who died May 10 named his widow, Mrs. Frances D. Williams, Windsor Road, The Dingle, as executrix and beneficiary.

Church To Hold Meeting Here

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will hold its second branch conference Sunday in Central YMCA's second floor, the branch's temporary meeting place while a new chapel is being built on Columbia Avenue.

District President Glacus G. Merrill of Clarksburg will preside over the meeting which will be conducted by Elder William K. Dick, local branch president.

The morning service will run from 10 a. m. until noon and a report of the year's activities will be given by each of the auxiliary organizations.

A light lunch will be served by the local branch's Relief Society members and at 1 p. m. the afternoon session will begin.

Girl Scouts To Open Third Camp Session

Campers for the third session of Camp Tioga, Cumberland Council Girl Scouts camp near Flintstone, will enroll Sunday between 2 and 4 p. m., Miss Olive Hurlburt, Scout executive, said yesterday.

Second session campers, 65 strong, will break camp today between 1:30 and 2 p. m.

Members of the Camp Council, Carter Mason, Yvonne Montana, Jane Stallings, Elisa Simpson, Margo King and Barbara Stuby, representing each of the three units in camp, have planned a program for the closing campfire this evening. Square dancing will open the program.

Later, each patrol of eight girls will demonstrate camping skills or present some phase of the program learned while in camp. "Sailing of wishes" on the lake will officially close the second camp session. Boats to sail the wishes have been made by each camper.

On leaving, each girl receives an activities record showing events in which she participated and requirements toward badges which she has completed.

During the first two sessions, ceramics have been popular. Many items made have been patterned after nature subjects on the campsite. Leaf plaques are being made to decorate the wall of the dining porch.

Campers during the second period include those from Troops 3, 4, 7, 9, 10, 13, 16, 17, 19, 21, 22, 23, 29, 42 and 51 of Cumberland; 11, 47, 48 and 49 Cresaptown; 26 of Wiley Ford; 59 and 60 of Frostburg; 74 of Keyser and one from Sandusky, Ohio.

Miss Hurlburt said during the last period of camp, July 26 to August 1, Brownie Scouts will be accepted for one unit. Previous registrations have included only Brownie "fly-ups" but many requests have been received from other Brownies desiring to attend a one week session.

Registrations will be accepted at the Girl Scout House, Greene Street, from 9 a. m. to noon and 1 to 5 p. m. Monday through Friday.

Ridgeley Lions Name Committees

They are Lloyd Coffman, attendance; Eston Turner, membership; Robert Maxson, program; Aden Everstine, public relations and information.

Jack Cornett, boys and girls work; Melvin Heiskell, citizenship, patriotism and safety; Charles Fryer, civic improvement and community betterment; Thomas Cowan, education, health and welfare, and Clarence Hartman, sight conservation and blind.

Perfect attendance pins for the 1958-59 club year were presented to Coffman, Perry Davis, Everstine, Leon Hammond, Hartman, Heiskell, Bert Spiker, Turner and Carl Johnson.

The monthly board of directors' meeting will be held Thursday, July 23, at 7:30 p. m. in Hammond's office.

Heat Causes Walkout

BRANTFORD, Ont. (UPI) — A group of employes of the Super Oil Seal Manufacturing Co. walked off their jobs Thursday because of the heat. Plant superintendent Charles Todd said the 50 workers walked out after the company refused to open windows to lessen the heat. Todd said the building has its own ventilating system and windows are kept closed.

Civil Service Unit Making Survey Of Jobs In County

The Civil Service Board of Allegany County is in the process of making a survey of all county departments and has requested the County Commissioners to furnish an organization chart to aid them in their project.

The letter to the county commissioners from the Civil Service Board stated that in some cases it was unable to determine where one department stopped and another started.

The chart should show the jurisdiction of the departments, duties of each employe, and the name of the responsible department head and other officials.

The Civil Service Board has also written Magistrates F. Allan Weatherholt, Peter J. Carpenti and Louis Fatkin asking them to furnish information on the personnel in their courts. The board wants data on what qualifications are necessary for the various positions.

Rev. Thomas L. Henderson, pastor of McCoole Presbyterian Church wrote the board that he and his congregation greatly appreciate the work done by the County Roads Department under Mr. (Harry) Skelly in correcting a drainage system in the church yard.

The Connecticut General Life Insurance Company informed the board that they have deposited $2,500 in the retrospective rate section of the county's group insurance policy.

A ten per cent reduction of the premium rate for the group accident and sickness policy of the county has been made.

The board granted Howard M. Bender Jr., a County Roads Department worker, military leave for the period between July 24 and August 8 when he will take summer training at Fort Knox as a member of Company C, 1st Medium Tank Battalion, National Guard.

Rev. Clarence McCloud, pastor of Grace Methodist Church at Midland, invited the board to attend Citizenship Day at the church September 6.

County Receives $14,717 In Liquor Fees From State

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday received a check from Louis L. Goldstein, state comptroller, for its share of revenue on distilled spirits for the fourth quarter.

A total of $14,717.96 was realized by Allegany County from the 50-cent fee on each gallon of distilled spirits. A total of 29,435.91 gallons was sold in this county during the three-month period.

The total amount of revenue received by the county during the fiscal year ending June 30 was $61,137.95 from the 50 cent fee on 122,275.98 gallons.

Washington County's quarterly share was $13,065.48 and the fiscal period resulted in $56,144.41 revenue on 112,288.82 gallons delivered in the county.

Garrett County, which is the only county in the state which does not license the sale of liquor, received nothing.

The four quarterly distributions for 1959 amount to $2,147,125 and account for an overall increase of 2.29% for the current fiscal year above the previous year. A few of the counties received slightly less than was distributed to them last year.

The county also received $2,093.50 from the estate of an inmate at Sylvan Retreat who died recently. The county has a lien on the estate of persons cared for at the county institutions. The estate was allowed the necessary funds to provide for burial expenses of the inmate.

A total of $323.76 was received from the state comptroller's office for its share of admission taxes. A refund of $821 was received by the county from the state of money in the Health Department budget.

Partner Shoots Bandit

TORONTO (UPI) —An escaped convict was shot dead Thursday by his partner during a robbery. Police said Ronald Watts, 22, and another bandit, George Burton, 42, entered a cafe on Toronto's waterfront bent on robbing it. A customer, Arthur Keay, an ex-policeman, tried to strike Watts with a pop bottle. The other gunman fired, missing Keay and hitting Watts. Burton was apprehended and charged with murder.

Maggot Flies Visit Orchards

Apple orchards in this area are being pestered by apple maggot flies, according to County Agent Joseph M. Steger.

Theodore L. Bissell, extension entomologist, has written in his publication called "Maryland Insect Notes" that the pests have begun to emerge.

The 1959 spray calendar states that apple maggots are a serious problem in certain sections and especially in early varieties such as Wealthy, Summer Rambo and Duchess. These varieties are susceptible because they are maturing when the adult insects are most active.

Where maggots have been a problem on fall varieties the following two sprays are recommended:

About July 15, three pounds of lead arsenate, one-half pound of parathion, one pound of captan or ferbam and 100 gallons of water.

PSC STUDIES CASE

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — The West Virginia Public Service Commission took under consideration Friday an application by the Country Club Addition in Clarksburg to furnish water service to its residents. Representatives of the public service district told the PSC water would be purchased from the Clarksburg Water Board.

Cuba To Host Arabs

CAIRO (UPI)—The United Arab Republic will send an economic delegation to Cuba shortly, officials said Friday. Economic Under Secretary Mahmoud Badawi Elshiati will head the delegation.

Area Must Beat The Drum For North Branch Project

Communities along the North Branch of the Potomac River should not depend upon Washington to beat the drums for proposed development of this area's water resources.

Any wishful thinking that the pressure for the proposed program would come from the Washington area was quashed by D. V. C. Birrell, chief of the Potomac River Survey being conducted by the Corps of Engineers, during a planning meeting held here this week by officials of the Interstate Commission on the Potomac River Basin.

He said the water from the North Branch of the Potomac River represents only about 10 per cent of Washington's water supply.

An interim report on the North Branch, designed to meet the area's needs for the next 50 years, was outlined last fall at a commission meeting at Blackwater Falls.

Heart of the plan are a dam on the North Branch of the Potomac 2.4 miles above the junction of the Savage River, a dam on Stony River and a third on the Savage River 3.5 miles above the present Savage River Dam.

Control of floods on the North Branch, the report said, would prevent flood damage from Luke to below Cumberland and remove from flood hazards some 1,600 acres of land suitable for industrial development.

More land could be made suitable for industry with only minor improvements by land fill or levees, the report said.

Randolph Calls Water Pollution Law A Success

ELKINS, W. Va. (UPI) — Sen. Jennings Randolph (D-W. Va.) said Friday that the federal water pollution act has proved a great success and has resulted in construction projects started or completed which will clean up 14,000 miles of the nation's streams.

Randolph made the statement at ground breaking ceremonies Friday for a new million dollar sewage treatment plant to be built here. Rep. Harley O. Staggers and Elkins' Mayor Garland Hickman also joined in the ground breaking ceremonies.

The West Virginia senator also said there is another bill which has cleared the House Committee on Public Works. This one has the "purpose of further stimulating construction of needed municipal waste - treatment facilities to prevent the discharge of untreated of inadequately treated sewage or other waste into the nation's waters," he said.

"Construction of sewage treatment plants has also increased with federal plants," he said. Elkins received $250,000 in federal funds for its plant.

1916 Check Received

That would not be unusual except that the check was dated Oct. 3, 1916.

The check found recently at Huntington State Hospital was made out to a Belle Pitts for services rendered in September of that year.

Business Manager J. V. Pinney inquired of the state agency as to its disposal.

"If the rightful heir can prove his claim, we'll turn the check over to him," Asst. Atty. Gen. Curtis Trent said. "However, chances are that it will be destroyed."

The check was mailed to the Pitts woman at 23rd street, Huntington, but returned to the hospital for a "better address."

Musical Groups Will Feature YFC Rally

Two musical groups will be featured at the Tri-State Youth For Christ rally at 115 North Mechanic Street at 7:45 p. m. today.

These are The Ambassadors of Grace male quartet from Grace College, Winona Lake, Indiana, and a teen-age duet of Northern Virginia Youth For Christ.

The quartet includes Charles Bearinger, tenor, Warsaw, Ind.; Jerry Young, Sterling, Ohio; Dan Grabill, Altoona; Jim Custer, Martinsburg; Bill Schaffer, accompanist, Kittaning, Pa., and Donald Ogden, director of the group and speaker of the evening. Instrumental numbers will be presented along with gospel numbers in song.

The teen-age duet is "Butch" and Sharon Brumback, winners of the 1959 South Central Youth For Christ teen talent contest.

Jaycees To Meet At Elkins, W. Va.

Jaycees from 28 communities throughout the state started arriving in Elkins Friday for the two - day meeting. State President Jack E. Stillman, Charleston, will preside over the meeting.

Doctor Injured In Fall From Tractor

ELKINS, W. Va. (UPI) — A prominent Charleston doctor was seriously injured in a lawn mower accident near Bartow, Pendleton County, Thursday night.

Dr. John A. B. Holt, 46, received six fractured ribs, severe lacerations of the scalp and laceration of the left foot when he fell off a tractor pulling the mower at his hunting and fishing camp.

FARMER WINS AWARD

SPENCER, W. Va. (UPI) — Garrison G. Tawney, Looneyville, has been named Roane County's top conservation farmer for 1959 by the Little Kanawha Soil Conservation District. Tawney operates a 500 acre farm near here.

Monongahela Forest Study Is Under Way

ELKINS, W. Va. (UPI) — R. O. Smoot, of the U. S. Forest Services, Upper Darby, Pa., district office, said Friday a survey of future needs of the Monongahela National Forest which might result in the assignment of land for hotels, resorts and summer homes is under way.

Smoot said the survey was a part of the outdoor recreation resources review being conducted on a nationwide basis.

Don Parslow of Elkins is in charge of the Monongahela project, he said.

The demand for public recreation occupancy sites in the forest by the year 2000 would reach 9,300 acres, Smoot said.

Smoot said on this basis, acreage would be allotted in the following amounts for the various recreation categories: 3,544 acres in camp grounds, 777 in picnic areas, 1,224 as organization sites, 461 for swimming, 52 for boating and 765 for winter sports.

He said if the areas were developed in these amounts some land would probably be allocated for hotels, resorts and summer homes. At present the Monongahela policy is that private land owners supply these three types of facilities.

Second session campers, 65 strong, will break camp today between 1:30 and 2 p. m.

Members of the Camp Council, Carter Mason, Yvonne Montana, Jane Stallings, Elisa Simpson, Margo King and Barbara Stuby, representing each of the three units in camp, have planned a program for the closing campfire this evening. Square dancing will open the program.

Later, each patrol of eight girls will demonstrate camping skills or present some phase of the program learned while in camp. "Sailing of wishes" on the lake will officially close the second camp session. Boats to sail the wishes have been made by each camper.

On leaving, each girl receives an activities record showing events in which she participated and requirements toward badges which she has completed.

During the first two sessions, ceramics have been popular. Many items made have been patterned after nature subjects on the campsite. Leaf plaques are being made to decorate the wall of the dining porch.

Campers during the second period include those from Troops 3, 4, 7, 9, 10, 13, 16, 17, 19, 21, 22, 23, 29, 42 and 51 of Cumberland; 11, 47, 48 and 49 Cresaptown; 26 of Wiley Ford; 59 and 60 of Frostburg; 74 of Keyser and one from Sandusky, Ohio.

Miss Hurlburt said during the last period of camp, July 26 to August 1, Brownie Scouts will be accepted for one unit. Previous registrations have included only Brownie "fly-ups" but many requests have been received from other Brownies desiring to attend a one week session.

Registrations will be accepted at the Girl Scout House, Greene Street, from 9 a. m. to noon and 1 to 5 p. m. Monday through Friday.

Ridgeley Lions Name Committees

They are Lloyd Coffman, attendance; Eston Turner, membership; Robert Maxson, program; Aden Everstine, public relations and information.

Jack Cornett, boys and girls work; Melvin Heiskell, citizenship, patriotism and safety; Charles Fryer, civic improvement and community betterment; Thomas Cowan, education, health and welfare, and Clarence Hartman, sight conservation and blind.

Perfect attendance pins for the 1958-59 club year were presented to Coffman, Perry Davis, Everstine, Leon Hammond, Hartman, Heiskell, Bert Spiker, Turner and Carl Johnson.

The monthly board of directors' meeting will be held Thursday, July 23, at 7:30 p. m. in Hammond's office.

Heat Causes Walkout

BRANTFORD, Ont. (UPI) — A group of employes of the Super Oil Seal Manufacturing Co. walked off their jobs Thursday because of the heat. Plant superintendent Charles Todd said the 50 workers walked out after the company refused to open windows to lessen the heat. Todd said the building has its own ventilating system and windows are kept closed.

Civil Service Unit Making Survey Of Jobs In County

The Civil Service Board of Allegany County is in the process of making a survey of all county departments and has requested the County Commissioners to furnish an organization chart to aid them in their project.

The letter to the county commissioners from the Civil Service Board stated that in some cases it was unable to determine where one department stopped and another started.

The chart should show the jurisdiction of the departments, duties of each employe, and the name of the responsible department head and other officials.

The Civil Service Board has also written Magistrates F. Allan Weatherholt, Peter J. Carpenti and Louis Fatkin asking them to furnish information on the personnel in their courts. The board wants data on what qualifications are necessary for the various positions.

Rev. Thomas L. Henderson, pastor of McCoole Presbyterian Church wrote the board that he and his congregation greatly appreciate the work done by the County Roads Department under Mr. (Harry) Skelly in correcting a drainage system in the church yard.

The Connecticut General Life Insurance Company informed the board that they have deposited $2,500 in the retrospective rate section of the county's group insurance policy.

A ten per cent reduction of the premium rate for the group accident and sickness policy of the county has been made.

The board granted Howard M. Bender Jr., a County Roads Department worker, military leave for the period between July 24 and August 8 when he will take summer training at Fort Knox as a member of Company C, 1st Medium Tank Battalion, National Guard.

Rev. Clarence McCloud, pastor of Grace Methodist Church at Midland, invited the board to attend Citizenship Day at the church September 6.

County Receives $14,717 In Liquor Fees From State

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday received a check from Louis L. Goldstein, state comptroller, for its share of revenue on distilled spirits for the fourth quarter.

A total of $14,717.96 was realized by Allegany County from the 50-cent fee on each gallon of distilled spirits. A total of 29,435.91 gallons was sold in this county during the three-month period.

The total amount of revenue received by the county during the fiscal year ending June 30 was $61,137.95 from the 50 cent fee on 122,275.98 gallons.

Washington County's quarterly share was $13,065.48 and the fiscal period resulted in $56,144.41 revenue on 112,288.82 gallons delivered in the county.

Garrett County, which is the only county in the state which does not license the sale of liquor, received nothing.

The four quarterly distributions for 1959 amount to $2,147,125 and account for an overall increase of 2.29% for the current fiscal year above the previous year. A few of the counties received slightly less than was distributed to them last year.

The county also received $2,093.50 from the estate of an inmate at Sylvan Retreat who died recently. The county has a lien on the estate of persons cared for at the county institutions. The estate was allowed the necessary funds to provide for burial expenses of the inmate.

A total of $323.76 was received from the state comptroller's office for its share of admission taxes. A refund of $821 was received by the county from the state of money in the Health Department budget.

Partner Shoots Bandit

TORONTO (UPI) —An escaped convict was shot dead Thursday by his partner during a robbery. Police said Ronald Watts, 22, and another bandit, George Burton, 42, entered a cafe on Toronto's waterfront bent on robbing it. A customer, Arthur Keay, an ex-policeman, tried to strike Watts with a pop bottle. The other gunman fired, missing Keay and hitting Watts. Burton was apprehended and charged with murder.

The Russian Gold Pile

Experts have estimated that the cost of producing an ounce of gold in Russia is $160. This, making due allowance for the artificially high exchange rate for the ruble maintained by the Soviet government, is fantastically high.

The Soviet Union never declares its gold reserves and so they are subject to rumor and inspired guessing in the Western world. The absence of this exact information is obviously a strong weapon not only in economic, but also in foreign policy.

Russian gold has been sold in the London and Zurich markets, but never in great quantities. It is certainly never spent on consumer goods, so-called frivolities, but is always reserved for essential capital equipment.

This cost estimate and the sparing manner in which the Soviet Union disposes of its gold are food for conjecture. The gold is obviously of no use while it lies in vaults. It has to be "spent" in world markets to have any value.

If this cost of $160 an ounce is in line with production costs throughout the Soviet economy then, in effect, extremely high prices must be paid for machinery and plants purchased in Western markets. Other commodities, too, must bear special price tags for export and must take on the character of subsidization in terms of labor costs.

There are, however, dangers in comparing the economics of capitalism and those of total socialism. Attitudes are entirely different. It is certain that if the Soviet Union could produce gold at a much lower cost in terms of labor and transportation than the West, and it had a sufficient quantity, it would not use it as sparingly as it does now.

Possession of huge gold reserves is a strong economic weapon in a world in which this metal is still the basis of international trade.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

Is Socialism Conquering?

The essence of Frol Kozlov's statement after his visit to the United States was this:

"We are convinced that victory in this competition (capitalism v. socialism) will be with us, and we are doing our utmost to attain such a development of productive forces in our country as would allow us in the shortest possible time to catch up with the U.S.A., not only in the total volume of production but also in per capita production."

This statement means much. Marxists have always held that it was inevitable that the Marxist concept of sociology and economics would ultimately succeed. To them that represents a scientific view of history. To them, it does not reflect unfavorably upon the capitalist system which they interpret as one step in the historic development of man. The ultimate goal is Communism when there will be a universal system of life during which government will be unnecessary and will wither away.

The present stage of the Russian government is called socialistic which is a stage toward Communism. There are many different forms of socialism. For instance, the British Labour Party regards itself as socialistic but its social and economic concepts are very different from the Russians. The Red Chinese are socialists but their system is closer to that of the Spartans with an approach to some Russian ideas during the first ten years of the Russian Revolution. Sukarno in Indonesia regards himself as a socialist but his system runs closer to Mussolini's. In fact, Mussolini was for much of his life an active socialist, the editor of the socialist paper, "Avanti," and the protege of Angelica Balabanov who was closely associated with Lenin at one time.

What is interesting about Kozlov's paragraph, in this era when words count for so much, is that Kozlov does not say that the victory will be for Marxism-Leninism. His point simply is that the two systems, the American and the Russian, the capitalist and the socialist, are different and that ultimately the United States will accept the Russian way of life.

It is interesting to note, however, that year by year, the Russians come closer to an older American way of life; that Russia's departures from primitive Marxism are notable and that the present Russian system, with certain modifications, resembles the United States of Mark Hanna rather than the Russia of Lenin.

The first point is the departure from the Communist concept of "to each according to his needs." This was the essence of the revolt against capitalism and holds that each individual earns what he can by his own efforts. Today, while in both the United States and Great Britain the dole provides for those who either cannot or will not work, in Soviet Russia everybody must accept employment and wages are paid according to ability and achievement. In fact, in Soviet Russia the "speed-up" in industry is such as our labor unions will not tolerate and automation is regarded as the inevitable, scientific development of industry. There it is not the social function of labor unions to interfere with the functions of management.

Wages are graduated and reach the figure of 360,000 roubles a year, which is about as high as they go in the United States, each in local currency. The basic difference is that certain categories of persons are relieved of taxation in Russia because of their services to the state and are given special privileges. Thus an elite is formed which is the equivalent of an ancient aristocracy. Such categories, apart from the managerial class, include scientists, notable physicians, writers, ballerinas, etc.

This then is the second generation departure from Marxism-Leninism, words which Frol Kozlov would ordinarily use to describe the Russian system. All industry in Russia is monopolistic and the monopoly is state owned and managed. This is true in the satellites and as politically the complex of Soviet countries is controlled from the Kremlin, all production, both agricultural and manufacturing, in the Soviet Universal State is Kremlin-controlled and is distributed according to Soviet political necessities. Thus, a Russian diplomat can barter Egyptian cotton to be delivered to Poland for arms built at the Skoda Works in Czechoslovakia.

So close is this system interlaced that such a separatist trend from the United States as Cuba has developed is intolerable in the Russian concept and would be crushed, as it has been in Hungary.

Eisenhower Didn't Discuss Steel Negotiations With Union's Chief

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — One interesting fact behind the steel strike is that when Eisenhower flew up to New York and held a well advertised conference with Dave McDonald, head of the United Steelworkers, he did not talk about steel. In fact, he did not even permit the question of the steel wage negotiations to come up. McDonald tried to bring them up, but was unsuccessful.

This was one reason why McDonald, in a last effort to head off the strike, flew to Pittsburgh to see Vice President Nixon, known to lean toward the view of Secretary of Labor James Mitchell that more positive steps could and should have been taken by the government to head off a strike.

However, the policy sold Ike by his close friends in the steel industry was to keep hands off, that this was the time to take a firm stand against spiraling wage increases, and that the steelworkers, having recently come through wage layoffs, could ill afford a strike. Furthermore the industry, having stockpiled approximately three months steel supplies, was in the reverse position of being well prepared for a strike.

There's a certain amount of private concern among Ike's economic advisers that a long strike might upset the current business boom. However, those who have the ear of the President are his old friends, George Humphrey, former Secretary of the Treasury, now head of National Steel; Jim Black, vice president of Republic Steel; and George Allen, Ike's bridge partner, a director of Republic. These are the advisers who are calling the steel shots as far as the White House is concerned.

Pipeline On "Secret" Voting

Members of the House Labor and Education Committee have tried to conceal their votes on the vitally important labor bill by holding their sessions behind closed doors. However, the secret voting has already leaked out to labor leaders.

When Chairman Graham Barden (D., N.C.) heard what was going on, he angrily stopped taking roll-call votes. In order to throw off the labor leaders, he accepted a quick show of hands which could not be counted so easily.

"Under what rule of Congress are you refusing a roll-call vote?" protested freshman Congressman Roman Pucinski (D., Ill.).

The Illinois freshman leaped to his feet.

"Dammit, Mr. Chairman," he shouted, "I am sick and tired of being treated like a North Carolina sharecropper!"

On the first eight votes, labor lobbyists classified each amendment pro- or anti-labor, then checked how each Congressman voted. Here is the tabulation of the secret voting:

Congressmen Powell of New York, Bailey of West Virginia, Perkins of Kentucky, Holland of Pennsylvania, Roosevelt of California, Zelenko of New York and Pucinski of Illinois, all Democrats, voted 100 per cent for labor.

Casting all their votes against labor were Hoffman of Michigan, Wainwright of New York, Frelinghuysen of New Jersey, Ayres of Ohio and Hiestand of California, all Republicans.

No Republican voted more than once for labor. Those listed with one pro-labor vote were Kearns of Pennsylvania, Holt of California, Griffith of Michigan, Lafore of Pennsylvania and Quie of Minnesota.

Of the Democrats, Chairman Barden had the No. 1 anti-labor record. He voted six times against labor, twice for pro-labor amendments.

Congressmen Wier of Minnesota, Teller of New York, Dent of Pennsylvania and Daniels of New Jersey had only one anti-labor vote, though Wier and Daniels refrained from voting on some amendments.

The unions listed as middle-of-the-roaders Congressmen Elliott of Alabama with a 2-3 record against labor; Green of Oregon, 3-3; Thompson of New Jersey, 4-3; Udall of Arizona, 3-4; Brademas of Indiana, 4-3; Giaimo of Connecticut, 3-2; O'Hara of Michigan, 4-2 and Landrum of Georgia, 1-4.

No Taxi Tips

An ardent lady Republican reported at GOP national headquarters the other day how she helped the cause by generously tipping taxi drivers and urging them to "vote Republican."

Mrs. Clare Williams, the vivacious assistant national chairman, claimed she had a better—and cheaper—strategy.

"I give no tip, slam the car door and say 'vote Democratic,'" she confided.

Clark Backs Lyndon

Sen. Joe Clark, the Pennsylvania Democrat has corrected a recent report in this column that he, Clark, "maintains Lyndon Johnson doesn't deserve to serve as Democratic leader."

"I have differed with Lyndon publicly and privately," says Senator Clark. "But despite our disagreements, I still think Lyndon Johnson is the best Democrat to lead our party in the Senate."

Senator Clark has also prepared an interesting diagram showing how Johnson has failed to vote with the majority of Democrats on certain key issues. Particularly significant is the fact that Johnson failed to vote with the majority of Democrats with the newly elected Senators who went to Washington on the huge Democratic landslide of last November and therefore presumably represent the latest thing in public opinion.

Clark's chart shows that on the key amendment to urban renewal, Johnson voted "no," despite the fact that 32 Democrats voted yes — a clear majority. On the McCarthy amendment knocking out the tax benefits for stock market operators, Johnson voted "yes," but reversed himself and voted "no" against the majority of his own party when House-Senate conferees opposed the amendment.

Johnson was absent when the key question of unemployment compensation came up on two votes sponsored by McNamara of Michigan and McCarthy of Minnesota, but voted against these amendments when a joint Congressional committee opposed them. Again, according to Senator Clark's chart, Johnson voted against the majority of his own party even though he is the majority leader.

Public Opinion Alone Can Settle Steel Strike

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — The nation is witnessing an example of how easy it is to slide into a war — to resort to force because there has been no effective exercise of the processes of reason.

A nationwide steel strike is a confession that differences between two large groups can be resolved only by economic force. The end result is a devastating blow to the national economy, involving the loss of hundreds of millions of dollars — to the workers, to the companies directly involved, to related industries such as railroads, to collateral industries, to defense production, and to the government itself, which loses taxes when business operations are interrupted.

Yet in a free country, with all facilities of communication and negotiation available and without duress of any kind upon those who confer, the two parties nevertheless decide to fight it out on the economic battlefield. Reason fails because union leaders are not free agents — they are the victims of organized pressure, within their own ranks, for gain at any cost.

There was a time when the "public interest" — the party of the third part — received more attention than today. This usually meant governmental intervention of some kind. But the method has fallen into disrepute, because during past administrations it came to mean politically motivated policies that were not impartial. The side with the most political influence had its way. The governmental intervention that the country wants — a disinterested study and recommendation for a solution — no longer seems to be obtainable, due to the tremendous power the labor unions have mobilized politically.

Certainly the issues are resolvable. Any disinterested tribunal could come up with a formula for settlement. The union leaders, who are themselves elected to office, cannot directly negotiate reasonable settlements — they are compelled, because of politics inside the unions, to insist on more and more wages, irrespective of productivity or any other factor. As for the steel companies, they are up against competition from abroad, where wage rates are much lower than in this country. They are losing some of their markets. Tariffs are not popular these days, so there isn't much relief in sight from protectionist laws.

There is, of course, a basis for an agreement. It involves a revision of the complex working rules in existing contracts which today make it necessary for the employers to pay for work not done — this is called "featherbedding." If the standards of measurement were based only on efficiency, there could be savings that would mean increases in wages to those who give satisfactory performance.

But the fact is that the union doctrines which have been preached consistently call for increased wages, irrespective of the economic consequences in price inflation.

So, what is the answer? It used to be to submit a dispute to some form of arbitration with both sides agreeing in advance to accept the verdict. But who today can select impartial arbitrators? And what responsibility can such arbitrators have for the conduct of the businesses which may be asked to accept heavier financial burdens than they themselves feel are warranted?

President Eisenhower said at his press conference on Wednesday that he has done all he could to urge a settlement by the parties themselves. He declared:

"I believe that we have got thoroughly to test out and to use the method of free bargaining."

The President added that the moment that government tries to bring about pressure on collective bargaining, it no longer remains free bargaining. This is but another way of saying that the government itself cannot become involved in telling one party or the other in the dispute what it should accept or reject.

But if the government cannot do this, should anybody else do it? Existing law calls for a "cooling off" period of 80 days and even a federal injunction to stop a strike temporarily, but it provides no formula to settle a strike if the parties are adamant after the 80 days have expired.

Public opinion alone can settle the steel strike. This means that the facts have to be brought out into the open, so judgment can be rendered by the American people. The power of labor-union monopolies is extensive. While an individual may quit work if he pleases, there is no constitutional right of any organized group to inflict damage on the people as a whole.

Congress has been investigating the abuses in labor unions. The rackets that have been revealed are shocking. It is true that only a few unions have been exposed, but the potential monopoly power permitted under present law is the basis for the rackets.

Labor unions, like the trusts of yesteryear, are a monopoly. Are they using their power reasonably, or are they abusing it? When the people of America make up their minds that labor unions should be covered under the antitrust statutes that prohibit restraints of trade, there will be an end to the industry-wide bargaining monopolies and collusive agreements which today can put the whole economic life of the country at the mercy of a few individuals.

Inside Washington

By Henry Cathcart

The federal government has long been known as the issuer and enforcer of literally thousands of regulations on as many subjects. In fact to some people around the country regulations appear to be not only the principal, but the sole function of the government.

There has been a contention that everything under the sun is regulated by Washington. However, the other day a new regulation on a new subject turned up, and it is generally conceded that the man who thought it up is a regulations genius.

No longer, some government workers have been told, can they feed the pigeons outside their windows on their lunch hour. It seems that pigeon-feeding was a favorite pastime for a group of federal workers. They'd open their windows and throw breadcrumbs to the hungry birds gathered on their window ledge, and below on the street.

However, the building maintenance people objected, as did the owners of cars in the area. As a result, the order was issued, along with the threat that noncompliance would force the powers that be to nail the windows shut, closing out any much-needed ventilation during these steamy summer days.

The pigeons have gone to greener pastures—or streets—we hope.

Featherbedding

By Leslie Gould

NEW YORK — In the last minutes of the steel wage negotiations, David McDonald, the union President, offered to write into the contract:

"The provisions of this section are not intended to prevent the company from continuing to make progress."

He added:

"The existing language rebuts the notion that featherbedding has been protected or that management has been obstructed in improving productivity or efficiency . . . the union has not opposed technological change or automation of equipment. We oppose only the automation of the worker."

This brings into the open the major issue in the steel wage contract negotiations:

The right of management to manage.

Management—not only in steel but in many other key industries—has lost or more correctly has abdicated many of its prerogatives.

The result is the spiraling cost inflation.

This country is threatened with a double inflation—

A monetary inflation resulting from the squandering by all governments — federal, state, and local — with budget deficits, and

Despite this, the Federal Reserve Board has followed and continues to pursue a policy of attacking the inflation as if it were like that of the late 1920s—a credit inflation. The only way the Federal Reserve policy can be effective is to bring on a business recession, with unemployment. It can do nothing about free spending politicians.

Present union contracts tie management's hands so that any wage and fringe benefit increases can only be passed on to the consumers — which is inflationary — or taken out of profits.

These wage and fringe benefits can seldom be offset by more efficient machinery and plant. Job classifications, for one thing, are frozen, even though these are outmoded by new manufacturing technics and procedures. The railroads are the greatest example of this. But it also is true in steel and many other lines.

"Featherbedding" is pay for made work or no work.

The railroad industry claims "Featherbedding" costs a half billion dollars a year — nearly 10 per cent of the payrolls. It accounts for a large share of the $750 million annual passenger deficit. It is a contributing factor in the commuter service crisis.

In addition to the railroads, these industries in particular are similarly afflicted — construction, entertainment, printing, trucking, and air line. Entertainment covers TV, radio, theatres, and movies.

The only way inflation can be checked and prices brought down is for production costs to be controlled or lowered and goods made in plentiful supply.

The steel industry is the first maor industry to stand firm on this. It is willing to grant wage increases provided management recaptures its basic right to manage. If the companies don't, then the ballgame is over as far as curbing the wage-price spiral.

A strike is an expensive way of settling the issue. It will cost about a half billion dollars a week in lost wages, lost business, lost railroad traffic, lost wages in other lines serving steel, and in profits.

The wage cost to the steelworkers alone is $125 million a week, plus millions in pay of coal, iron ore and railroad workers who will be laid off. It will take the steel workers 36½ weeks to make up the loss of wages for one week, and this strike will run longer than that — maybe six or eight weeks.

Most steel customers have prepared for a six-week strike and have built up sufficient inventory for up to eight weeks of a shutdown at the mills. The whole economy will be pinched if the strike runs into September.

As for the stock market:

Americans Accomplish More, But Live Less

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Americans may accomplish more than others but they live less. We are busybees not only at work but during our leisure hours. We have been indoctrinated with the idea that inactivity is disgraceful.

It is easy for us to get caught in the mad rush. Anyone who is willing to serve on a committee or bake pies for a church social usually is given the job. The busy man gets things done because he is willing to work a little longer and a little harder. Many cannot say no. The late Col. Robert R. McCormick, when asked why he refused to attend meetings and work on committees, replied, "Because it cuts into my leisure time."

I am not referring to the lazy person who slides by on a mimimum of work and is adept at shirking duties and responsibilities, nor to the individual who supports his family by working but spends his leisure as he wishes. Nor does this apply to the man with two jobs and no leisure time unless it is deducted from the allotted time for sleep.

Most of us are too concerned with the superficial. It has become a compulsion to keep the car highly polished and to remove every weed and fallen leaf from the lawn. There is no objection to these chores provided they are enjoyable or are done in the name of exercise.

Life is short and most of us wait too long to do the things we want to do. Many of us would love to sit quietly under a tree or stare at nothing out of the window. This is not harmful. The housewife who spends a morning walking through the park instead of washing dishes and floors may be doing more to eliminate her worries, tensions, and fears than all the tranquilizers combined.

Psychiatrists agree that inhibitions are troublemakers and there is no better mental catharsis than spending a little time doing what we like to do the best. Put idleness on the daily agenda; it offers a golden opportunity to think.

BLEEDING ULCER

M. J. writes: Is it dangerous for a person who has ulcer that tends to bleed to make a long trip through the mountains?

REPLY

Yes, especially if you plan to visit out of the way places, far from medical care. This aspect of the trip is more important than the altitude. Anyone who has had three or more gastric hemorrhages should have the ulcer operated on to prevent recurrences of bleeding.

ARCH WEAKNESS

L. H. writes: Are there any special exercises to help fallen arches?

REPLY

Yes, and they are easy to do. The most popular exercise is to pick up marbles with the toes. Another is to stand on the balls of the feet. Our leaflet on flat feet describes several helpful exercises. Send a stamped self-addressed envelope for this leaflet.

SWOLLEN LEGS

REPLY

Yes, depending upon the origin of edema. When circulatory disorders, a deficiency of protein in the diet, or certain types of kidney conditions are responsible, swelling disappears if the cause can be treated successfully. Dropsy due to heart disease responds well to modern remedies that increase the elimination of tissue fluid.

KIDNEY DISEASE PAIN

F. D. writes: Is pain due to kidney disease always felt in the back?

REPLY

No. Some have no pain. In others, it may be felt in the flank or low in the abdomen.

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

A young actor with a name five syllables long got a big part in a new movie and promptly had his name changed to Flash Upton. The picture was a smash, and the actor won rave notices and a new contract. Ensconced in his new 14-room penthouse, he gave a great housewarming party, and thoughtfully named his elderly monther the guest of honor.

Everybody showed up but mamma, and the actor was frantic with worry. Finally he went to the lobby to speak to the doorman. "You didn't see a little old lady come in here at any time?" he asked anxiously. "There was one," recalled the doorman. "She's been sitting patiently over in that corner for about three hours now.'

She was his mother all right.

"Mamma," he cried, "you've had me in a state! Why didn't you come up to my apartment?"

"I wanted to, my son," she told him with tears in her eyes, "but I couldn't remember your new name!"

You're Telling Me

By William Ritt

It was during that last heat wave that we came to the conclusion that America, after all, may truly be the world's greatest melting pot.

Dallas, Tex., police are seeking thieves who swiped 150 electric irons. Shouldn't be so tough, following such a hot trail.

A Los Angeles television station plans to put on a half-hour program of nothing but commercials. This should prove the greatest sleep producer since the invention of ether.

The Russian Gold Pile

Experts have estimated that the cost of producing an ounce of gold in Russia is $160. This, making due allowance for the artificially high exchange rate for the ruble maintained by the Soviet government, is fantastically high.

The Soviet Union never declares its gold reserves and so they are subject to rumor and inspired guessing in the Western world. The absence of this exact information is obviously a strong weapon not only in economic, but also in foreign policy.

Russian gold has been sold in the London and Zurich markets, but never in great quantities. It is certainly never spent on consumer goods, so-called frivolities, but is always reserved for essential capital equipment.

This cost estimate and the sparing manner in which the Soviet Union disposes of its gold are food for conjecture. The gold is obviously of no use while it lies in vaults. It has to be "spent" in world markets to have any value.

If this cost of $160 an ounce is in line with production costs throughout the Soviet economy then, in effect, extremely high prices must be paid for machinery and plants purchased in Western markets. Other commodities, too, must bear special price tags for export and must take on the character of subsidization in terms of labor costs.

There are, however, dangers in comparing the economics of capitalism and those of total socialism. Attitudes are entirely different. It is certain that if the Soviet Union could produce gold at a much lower cost in terms of labor and transportation than the West, and it had a sufficient quantity, it would not use it as sparingly as it does now.

Possession of huge gold reserves is a strong economic weapon in a world in which this metal is still the basis of international trade.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

Is Socialism Conquering?

The essence of Frol Kozlov's statement after his visit to the United States was this:

"We are convinced that victory in this competition (capitalism v. socialism) will be with us, and we are doing our utmost to attain such a development of productive forces in our country as would allow us in the shortest possible time to catch up with the U.S.A., not only in the total volume of production but also in per capita production."

This statement means much. Marxists have always held that it was inevitable that the Marxist concept of sociology and economics would ultimately succeed. To them that represents a scientific view of history. To them, it does not reflect unfavorably upon the capitalist system which they interpret as one step in the historic development of man. The ultimate goal is Communism when there will be a universal system of life during which government will be unnecessary and will wither away.

The present stage of the Russian government is called socialistic which is a stage toward Communism. There are many different forms of socialism. For instance, the British Labour Party regards itself as socialistic but its social and economic concepts are very different from the Russians. The Red Chinese are socialists but their system is closer to that of the Spartans with an approach to some Russian ideas during the first ten years of the Russian Revolution. Sukarno in Indonesia regards himself as a socialist but his system runs closer to Mussolini's. In fact, Mussolini was for much of his life an active socialist, the editor of the socialist paper, "Avanti," and the protege of Angelica Balabanov who was closely associated with Lenin at one time.

What is interesting about Kozlov's paragraph, in this era when words count for so much, is that Kozlov does not say that the victory will be for Marxism-Leninism. His point simply is that the two systems, the American and the Russian, the capitalist and the socialist, are different and that ultimately the United States will accept the Russian way of life.

It is interesting to note, however, that year by year, the Russians come closer to an older American way of life; that Russia's departures from primitive Marxism are notable and that the present Russian system, with certain modifications, resembles the United States of Mark Hanna rather than the Russia of Lenin.

The first point is the departure from the Communist concept of "to each according to his needs." This was the essence of the revolt against capitalism and holds that each individual earns what he can by his own efforts. Today, while in both the United States and Great Britain the dole provides for those who either cannot or will not work, in Soviet Russia everybody must accept employment and wages are paid according to ability and achievement. In fact, in Soviet Russia the "speed-up" in industry is such as our labor unions will not tolerate and automation is regarded as the inevitable, scientific development of industry. There it is not the social function of labor unions to interfere with the functions of management.

Wages are graduated and reach the figure of 360,000 roubles a year, which is about as high as they go in the United States, each in local currency. The basic difference is that certain categories of persons are relieved of taxation in Russia because of their services to the state and are given special privileges. Thus an elite is formed which is the equivalent of an ancient aristocracy. Such categories, apart from the managerial class, include scientists, notable physicians, writers, ballerinas, etc.

This then is the second generation departure from Marxism-Leninism, words which Frol Kozlov would ordinarily use to describe the Russian system. All industry in Russia is monopolistic and the monopoly is state owned and managed. This is true in the satellites and as politically the complex of Soviet countries is controlled from the Kremlin, all production, both agricultural and manufacturing, in the Soviet Universal State is Kremlin-controlled and is distributed according to Soviet political necessities. Thus, a Russian diplomat can barter Egyptian cotton to be delivered to Poland for arms built at the Skoda Works in Czechoslovakia.

So close is this system interlaced that such a separatist trend from the United States as Cuba has developed is intolerable in the Russian concept and would be crushed, as it has been in Hungary.

Public Opinion Alone Can Settle Steel Strike

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — The nation is witnessing an example of how easy it is to slide into a war — to resort to force because there has been no effective exercise of the processes of reason.

A nationwide steel strike is a confession that differences between two large groups can be resolved only by economic force. The end result is a devastating blow to the national economy, involving the loss of hundreds of millions of dollars — to the workers, to the companies directly involved, to related industries such as railroads, to collateral industries, to defense production, and to the government itself, which loses taxes when business operations are interrupted.

Yet in a free country, with all facilities of communication and negotiation available and without duress of any kind upon those who confer, the two parties nevertheless decide to fight it out on the economic battlefield. Reason fails because union leaders are not free agents — they are the victims of organized pressure, within their own ranks, for gain at any cost.

There was a time when the "public interest" — the party of the third part — received more attention than today. This usually meant governmental intervention of some kind. But the method has fallen into disrepute, because during past administrations it came to mean politically motivated policies that were not impartial. The side with the most political influence had its way. The governmental intervention that the country wants — a disinterested study and recommendation for a solution — no longer seems to be obtainable, due to the tremendous power the labor unions have mobilized politically.

Certainly the issues are resolvable. Any disinterested tribunal could come up with a formula for settlement. The union leaders, who are themselves elected to office, cannot directly negotiate reasonable settlements — they are compelled, because of politics inside the unions, to insist on more and more wages, irrespective of productivity or any other factor. As for the steel companies, they are up against competition from abroad, where wage rates are much lower than in this country. They are losing some of their markets. Tariffs are not popular these days, so there isn't much relief in sight from protectionist laws.

There is, of course, a basis for an agreement. It involves a revision of the complex working rules in existing contracts which today make it necessary for the employers to pay for work not done — this is called "featherbedding." If the standards of measurement were based only on efficiency, there could be savings that would mean increases in wages to those who give satisfactory performance.

But the fact is that the union doctrines which have been preached consistently call for increased wages, irrespective of the economic consequences in price inflation.

So, what is the answer? It used to be to submit a dispute to some form of arbitration with both sides agreeing in advance to accept the verdict. But who today can select impartial arbitrators? And what responsibility can such arbitrators have for the conduct of the businesses which may be asked to accept heavier financial burdens than they themselves feel are warranted?

President Eisenhower said at his press conference on Wednesday that he has done all he could to urge a settlement by the parties themselves. He declared:

"I believe that we have got thoroughly to test out and to use the method of free bargaining."

The President added that the moment that government tries to bring about pressure on collective bargaining, it no longer remains free bargaining. This is but another way of saying that the government itself cannot become involved in telling one party or the other in the dispute what it should accept or reject.

But if the government cannot do this, should anybody else do it? Existing law calls for a "cooling off" period of 80 days and even a federal injunction to stop a strike temporarily, but it provides no formula to settle a strike if the parties are adamant after the 80 days have expired.

Public opinion alone can settle the steel strike. This means that the facts have to be brought out into the open, so judgment can be rendered by the American people. The power of labor-union monopolies is extensive. While an individual may quit work if he pleases, there is no constitutional right of any organized group to inflict damage on the people as a whole.

Congress has been investigating the abuses in labor unions. The rackets that have been revealed are shocking. It is true that only a few unions have been exposed, but the potential monopoly power permitted under present law is the basis for the rackets.

Labor unions, like the trusts of yesteryear, are a monopoly. Are they using their power reasonably, or are they abusing it? When the people of America make up their minds that labor unions should be covered under the antitrust statutes that prohibit restraints of trade, there will be an end to the industry-wide bargaining monopolies and collusive agreements which today can put the whole economic life of the country at the mercy of a few individuals.

Inside Washington

By Henry Cathcart

The federal government has long been known as the issuer and enforcer of literally thousands of regulations on as many subjects. In fact to some people around the country regulations appear to be not only the principal, but the sole function of the government.

There has been a contention that everything under the sun is regulated by Washington. However, the other day a new regulation on a new subject turned up, and it is generally conceded that the man who thought it up is a regulations genius.

No longer, some government workers have been told, can they feed the pigeons outside their windows on their lunch hour. It seems that pigeon-feeding was a favorite pastime for a group of federal workers. They'd open their windows and throw breadcrumbs to the hungry birds gathered on their window ledge, and below on the street.

However, the building maintenance people objected, as did the owners of cars in the area. As a result, the order was issued, along with the threat that noncompliance would force the powers that be to nail the windows shut, closing out any much-needed ventilation during these steamy summer days.

The pigeons have gone to greener pastures—or streets—we hope.

Eisenhower Didn't Discuss Steel Negotiations With Union's Chief

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — One interesting fact behind the steel strike is that when Eisenhower flew up to New York and held a well advertised conference with Dave McDonald, head of the United Steelworkers, he did not talk about steel. In fact, he did not even permit the question of the steel wage negotiations to come up. McDonald tried to bring them up, but was unsuccessful.

This was one reason why McDonald, in a last effort to head off the strike, flew to Pittsburgh to see Vice President Nixon, known to lean toward the view of Secretary of Labor James Mitchell that more positive steps could and should have been taken by the government to head off a strike.

However, the policy sold Ike by his close friends in the steel industry was to keep hands off, that this was the time to take a firm stand against spiraling wage increases, and that the steelworkers, having recently come through wage layoffs, could ill afford a strike. Furthermore the industry, having stockpiled approximately three months steel supplies, was in the reverse position of being well prepared for a strike.

There's a certain amount of private concern among Ike's economic advisers that a long strike might upset the current business boom. However, those who have the ear of the President are his old friends, George Humphrey, former Secretary of the Treasury, now head of National Steel; Jim Black, vice president of Republic Steel; and George Allen, Ike's bridge partner, a director of Republic. These are the advisers who are calling the steel shots as far as the White House is concerned.

Pipeline On "Secret" Voting

Members of the House Labor and Education Committee have tried to conceal their votes on the vitally important labor bill by holding their sessions behind closed doors. However, the secret voting has already leaked out to labor leaders.

When Chairman Graham Barden (D., N.C.) heard what was going on, he angrily stopped taking roll-call votes. In order to throw off the labor leaders, he accepted a quick show of hands which could not be counted so easily.

"Under what rule of Congress are you refusing a roll-call vote?" protested freshman Congressman Roman Pucinski (D., Ill.).

The Illinois freshman leaped to his feet.

"Dammit, Mr. Chairman," he shouted, "I am sick and tired of being treated like a North Carolina sharecropper!"

On the first eight votes, labor lobbyists classified each amendment pro- or anti-labor, then checked how each Congressman voted. Here is the tabulation of the secret voting:

Casting all their votes against labor were Hoffman of Michigan, Wainwright of New York, Frelinghuysen of New Jersey, Ayres of Ohio and Hiestand of California, all Republicans.

No Republican voted more than once for labor. Those listed with one pro-labor vote were Kearns of Pennsylvania, Holt of California, Griffith of Michigan, Lafore of Pennsylvania and Quie of Minnesota.

Of the Democrats, Chairman Barden had the No. 1 anti-labor record. He voted six times against labor, twice for pro-labor amendments.

Congressmen Wier of Minnesota, Teller of New York, Dent of Pennsylvania and Daniels of New Jersey had only one anti-labor vote, though Wier and Daniels refrained from voting on some amendments.

The unions listed as middle-of-the-roaders Congressmen Elliott of Alabama with a 2-3 record against labor; Green of Oregon, 3-3; Thompson of New Jersey, 4-3; Udall of Arizona, 3-4; Brademas of Indiana, 4-3; Giaimo of Connecticut, 3-2; O'Hara of Michigan, 4-2 and Landrum of Georgia, 1-4.

No Taxi Tips

An ardent lady Republican reported at GOP national headquarters the other day how she helped the cause by generously tipping taxi drivers and urging them to "vote Republican."

Mrs. Clare Williams, the vivacious assistant national chairman, claimed she had a better—and cheaper—strategy.

"I give no tip, slam the car door and say 'vote Democratic,'" she confided.

Clark Backs Lyndon

Sen. Joe Clark, the Pennsylvania Democrat has corrected a recent report in this column that he, Clark, "maintains Lyndon Johnson doesn't deserve to serve as Democratic leader."

"I have differed with Lyndon publicly and privately," says Senator Clark. "But despite our disagreements, I still think Lyndon Johnson is the best Democrat to lead our party in the Senate."

Senator Clark has also prepared an interesting diagram showing how Johnson has failed to vote with the majority of Democrats on certain key issues. Particularly significant is the fact that Johnson failed to vote with the majority of Democrats with the newly elected Senators who went to Washington on the huge Democratic landslide of last November and therefore presumably represent the latest thing in public opinion.

Clark's chart shows that on the key amendment to urban renewal, Johnson voted "no," despite the fact that 32 Democrats voted yes — a clear majority. On the McCarthy amendment knocking out the tax benefits for stock market operators, Johnson voted "yes," but reversed himself and voted "no" against the majority of his own party when House-Senate conferees opposed the amendment.

Johnson was absent when the key question of unemployment compensation came up on two votes sponsored by McNamara of Michigan and McCarthy of Minnesota, but voted against these amendments when a joint Congressional committee opposed them. Again, according to Senator Clark's chart, Johnson voted against the majority of his own party even though he is the majority leader.

Featherbedding

By Leslie Gould

NEW YORK — In the last minutes of the steel wage negotiations, David McDonald, the union President, offered to write into the contract:

"The provisions of this section are not intended to prevent the company from continuing to make progress."

He added:

"The existing language rebuts the notion that featherbedding has been protected or that management has been obstructed in improving productivity or efficiency . . . the union has not opposed technological change or automation of equipment. We oppose only the automation of the worker."

This brings into the open the major issue in the steel wage contract negotiations:

The right of management to manage.

Management—not only in steel but in many other key industries—has lost or more correctly has abdicated many of its prerogatives.

The result is the spiraling cost inflation.

This country is threatened with a double inflation—

A monetary inflation resulting from the squandering by all governments — federal, state, and local — with budget deficits, and

Despite this, the Federal Reserve Board has followed and continues to pursue a policy of attacking the inflation as if it were like that of the late 1920s—a credit inflation. The only way the Federal Reserve policy can be effective is to bring on a business recession, with unemployment. It can do nothing about free spending politicians.

Present union contracts tie management's hands so that any wage and fringe benefit increases can only be passed on to the consumers — which is inflationary — or taken out of profits.

These wage and fringe benefits can seldom be offset by more efficient machinery and plant. Job classifications, for one thing, are frozen, even though these are outmoded by new manufacturing technics and procedures. The railroads are the greatest example of this. But it also is true in steel and many other lines.

"Featherbedding" is pay for made work or no work.

The railroad industry claims "Featherbedding" costs a half billion dollars a year — nearly 10 per cent of the payrolls. It accounts for a large share of the $750 million annual passenger deficit. It is a contributing factor in the commuter service crisis.

In addition to the railroads, these industries in particular are similarly afflicted — construction, entertainment, printing, trucking, and air line. Entertainment covers TV, radio, theatres, and movies.

The only way inflation can be checked and prices brought down is for production costs to be controlled or lowered and goods made in plentiful supply.

The steel industry is the first maor industry to stand firm on this. It is willing to grant wage increases provided management recaptures its basic right to manage. If the companies don't, then the ballgame is over as far as curbing the wage-price spiral.

A strike is an expensive way of settling the issue. It will cost about a half billion dollars a week in lost wages, lost business, lost railroad traffic, lost wages in other lines serving steel, and in profits.

The wage cost to the steelworkers alone is $125 million a week, plus millions in pay of coal, iron ore and railroad workers who will be laid off. It will take the steel workers 36½ weeks to make up the loss of wages for one week, and this strike will run longer than that — maybe six or eight weeks.

Most steel customers have prepared for a six-week strike and have built up sufficient inventory for up to eight weeks of a shutdown at the mills. The whole economy will be pinched if the strike runs into September.

As for the stock market:

Americans Accomplish More, But Live Less

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Americans may accomplish more than others but they live less. We are busybees not only at work but during our leisure hours. We have been indoctrinated with the idea that inactivity is disgraceful.

It is easy for us to get caught in the mad rush. Anyone who is willing to serve on a committee or bake pies for a church social usually is given the job. The busy man gets things done because he is willing to work a little longer and a little harder. Many cannot say no. The late Col. Robert R. McCormick, when asked why he refused to attend meetings and work on committees, replied, "Because it cuts into my leisure time."

I am not referring to the lazy person who slides by on a mimimum of work and is adept at shirking duties and responsibilities, nor to the individual who supports his family by working but spends his leisure as he wishes. Nor does this apply to the man with two jobs and no leisure time unless it is deducted from the allotted time for sleep.

Most of us are too concerned with the superficial. It has become a compulsion to keep the car highly polished and to remove every weed and fallen leaf from the lawn. There is no objection to these chores provided they are enjoyable or are done in the name of exercise.

Life is short and most of us wait too long to do the things we want to do. Many of us would love to sit quietly under a tree or stare at nothing out of the window. This is not harmful. The housewife who spends a morning walking through the park instead of washing dishes and floors may be doing more to eliminate her worries, tensions, and fears than all the tranquilizers combined.

Psychiatrists agree that inhibitions are troublemakers and there is no better mental catharsis than spending a little time doing what we like to do the best. Put idleness on the daily agenda; it offers a golden opportunity to think.

BLEEDING ULCER

M. J. writes: Is it dangerous for a person who has ulcer that tends to bleed to make a long trip through the mountains?

REPLY

Yes, especially if you plan to visit out of the way places, far from medical care. This aspect of the trip is more important than the altitude. Anyone who has had three or more gastric hemorrhages should have the ulcer operated on to prevent recurrences of bleeding.

ARCH WEAKNESS

L. H. writes: Are there any special exercises to help fallen arches?

REPLY

Yes, and they are easy to do. The most popular exercise is to pick up marbles with the toes. Another is to stand on the balls of the feet. Our leaflet on flat feet describes several helpful exercises. Send a stamped self-addressed envelope for this leaflet.

SWOLLEN LEGS

REPLY

Yes, depending upon the origin of edema. When circulatory disorders, a deficiency of protein in the diet, or certain types of kidney conditions are responsible, swelling disappears if the cause can be treated successfully. Dropsy due to heart disease responds well to modern remedies that increase the elimination of tissue fluid.

KIDNEY DISEASE PAIN

F. D. writes: Is pain due to kidney disease always felt in the back?

REPLY

No. Some have no pain. In others, it may be felt in the flank or low in the abdomen.

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

A young actor with a name five syllables long got a big part in a new movie and promptly had his name changed to Flash Upton. The picture was a smash, and the actor won rave notices and a new contract. Ensconced in his new 14-room penthouse, he gave a great housewarming party, and thoughtfully named his elderly monther the guest of honor.

Everybody showed up but mamma, and the actor was frantic with worry. Finally he went to the lobby to speak to the doorman. "You didn't see a little old lady come in here at any time?" he asked anxiously. "There was one," recalled the doorman. "She's been sitting patiently over in that corner for about three hours now.'

She was his mother all right.

"Mamma," he cried, "you've had me in a state! Why didn't you come up to my apartment?"

"I wanted to, my son," she told him with tears in her eyes, "but I couldn't remember your new name!"

Giants Trim Pirates, 4-1; White Sox Stop Yanks, 2-0

Jones Puts Frisco Two Games Ahead

Sam Whiffs Seven, Ups Total To 128, Chalks Up 13th Win

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Sad Sam Jones doled out seven hits and struck out seven to pace San Francisco to a 4-1 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates and enabled the Giants to stretch their National League lead to two games.

the Giants racked up 10 hits for their 10th triumph in 15 road games on their current swing and gained on the second-place Los Angeles Dodgers, who were edged 3-2 by the Philadelphia Phils.

In achieving his 13th victory of the season, Jones raised his strikeout total to 128 and is second to Dodger Don Drysdale in that department. He allowed only one walk. Jones was deprived of a shutout in the second when Don Hoak singled to left with two away, stole second, and scored on Roberto Clemente's line single.

Back-to-back doubles by Willie Mays and Orlando Cepeda with two out in the first inning gave the Giants a 1-0 lead and paved the way for Ronnie Kline's eighth defeat. Doubles by Ed Bressoud and Willie Kirkland off Kline in the seventh made it 2-1.

Roy Face entered the game in the eighth inning and allowed two more Giant tallies on singles by Cepeda and Bressoud, a sacrifice by Hobie Landrith and an error by Dick Stuart. Cepeda opened the inning with a single, stole second, and after Daryl Spencer struck out, Jackie Brandt walked for the third time. Cepeda stole third and came home on a squeeze play when Hobie Landrith sacrificed. Landrith was safe at first when Stuart dropped the ball. Then Bressoud drove Brandt home with a single.

After the second inning the Pirates could get only one man as far as second base as Jones retired the last eight batters in a row.

Ridgeley replaced the Wildcats in second place by defeating Midland to the tune of 9-6 in a game staged at Ridgeley.

The game at Barton was featured by the hitting of Jimmy High, Barton shortstop, who collected five hits in five trips to the plate, a triple, double and three singles, and extended his string to 13 hits in three games. High, Mickey Johnson, "Butch" Snyder, Larry Suder and Paul Green accounted for 14 of the winners' 17 blows. Suder hit a home run.

Deffenbaugh, losing pitcher, hit a homer and two singles for the Wildcats.

Joe McIntyre got the Barton win but Larry "Elroy" Duckworth, fork ball artist, turned in a creditable relief job after coming on in the fifth.

Charley Coffman hit a grand slam homer after two out in the 6th inning to give Ridgeley the verdict over Midland.

Coffman started on the rubber for Ridgeley but Ronnie McFarland chalked up the win in the role of relief hurler.

Thrasher poled a two-run homer, Cutter larruped two triples and Lancaster hit a three-bagger for Midland. The scores:

Manager Earl Drenning's VFW tossers won the first half championship of the Rec High School Baseball League by defeating Woody Gurley's yesterday at Stitcher Field by the score of 2-0.

Allan Stevenson was returned the winner over Charley Rice in a neat pitching duel as the Vets notched their fifth victory in six outings.

Stevenson yielded only three hits, struck out seven and failed to issue a base on balls. Rice tossed a five-hitter, whiffed ten and gave up only one walk.

At Fort Hill Field, the Toy Shop concluded its first half schedule with a 3-2 victory over the Forty Niners and finished in the runner-up spot with a 4-2 record.

The game was highlighted by the relief hurling of "Butch" Bosley who relieved Abell in the first inning and blanked the Forty Niners the remaining 6⅓ frames. He mowed down eleven via the strikeout route.

Trailing 2-0, the Toy Shop handed the Forty Niners their sixth straight loss by rallying for three runs in the fourth when Glenn Shipway tripled with the bases loaded.

Sports Shoppe, Police-Firemen, P.E. Win Games

The Sports Shoppe, under the supervision of new managers, Bob Carey and Lee Taylor, registered its fourth straight victory and moved within a half game of first place in the National Division of the Men's Rec Softball League by beating Keech's Drug Stores yesterday at Naval Reserve Field by the score of 7-4.

Rich Smith scored his ninth win, giving up five hits while striking out 12. He has lost three games.

Pat McNally with a bases loaded double and two singles and Wayne Holly with a double and single led the Shoppers at the plate. Lee Cover had a double and single for Keech's as Jim Lease took the loss, giving up eight hits.

Holly had six chances at third base without a slipup and figured in a game-ending double play.

Potomac Edison routed the National Guard, 18-0, at East Side Field, and the Police and Firemen whipped Whitacre's Grocery on the Rolling Mill Field by the score of 11-3.

Jack Eckard and Fred Meeks of P.E. held the Guards to four hits while the winners racked up 11 safeties. Bill Eckard blasted a homer, double and single, John Walker hit for the circuit and Ed Dowton obtained a two-bagger and single for P.E.

The Police and Firemen made it two straight wins, racking up 11 hits at the expense of four Whitacre pitchers.

Denny Knippenberg hammered a triple and two singles, Ronnie Norris garnered three singles and Warnick hit a home run for the Police and Firemen. Lechliter had a triple and two singles, Carl Whitacre a three-bagger and single and Kenney two hits for the Grocers.

Athletics Halt Washington, 7-4

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Dick Williams and Harry Chiti delivered two-run blows to spark a four-run rally in the seventh innings and carry the Kansas City Athletics to a 7-4 victory that snapped the Washington Senators' three-game winning streak Friday night.

kansas City filled the bases on two walks and a single with one out in the seventh when the score was tied at 3-3. Williams singled in two runs and Harry Chiti doubled in two more for the payoff.

Roy Sievers hit his 12th homer of the year off starter Ned Garver who got the victory but needed help in the seventh from Murry Dickson. The latter gave up two singles with one out in the ninth and was rescued by Bob Grim, who ended the game with one pitch when Bob Allison grounded into a double play.

Russ Kemmerer was the loser. Each side got 10 hits.

Pappas Saves Brown, Orioles Down Detroit

Tigers Suffer 5th Straight Loss, 3-2

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Milt Pappas came to Skinny Brown's rescue in a hectic eighth inning Friday night and saved a 3-2 victory for the Baltimore Orioles over the Detroit Tigers who suffered their fifth straight setback.

Pappas stepped in with one out and the tieing run on second and the lead run on first. He retired Ted Lepcio and Harvey Kuenn on grounders, then set down the side in order in the ninth. The 20-year-old youngster who has 10 victories to his credit this year, saved Brown's sixth triumph as against five losses.

It was a heartbreaker for southpaw Don Mossi to lose. He allowed only three hits and was the victim of a two-run error by Rocky Bridges in the third which permitted the winning runs to trickle over the plate.

After Joe Taylor's harmless single in the third, Mossi retired the next 13 men in order until lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth. He walked three and fanned two. Tom Morgan pitched a 1-2-3 8th inning.

Jim Landis' Hit In Ninth Beats Terry

Ralph Had No-Hitter For Eight Innings; Wynn Notches 12th

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jim Landis' single with the bases loaded in the ninth inning gave the league-leading Chicago White Sox a 2-0 victory over the New York Yankees tonight after loser Ralph Terry had pitched a no-hitter for eight innings.

Early Wynn, who registered his 12th victory, pitched one-hit ball until the ninth and wound up with a two-hitter while Terry, who suffered his seventh loss, also yielded only two hits.

Rookie Jim McAnany, playing his first game at Yankee Stadium, broke Terry's hitless string when he singled through the box to lead off the ninth. McAnany moved to second on Wynn's sacrifice bunt and both runners were safe when Terry threw too late to Gil McDougald, covering second base.

Luis Aparicio then sacrificed both runners along and Nellie Fox was intentionally walked to load the bases. Landis then lined a 2-and-2 pitch past first baseman Elston Howard scoring McAnany and Wynn with the only runs of the game.

The Yankees threatened in their half of the ninth when Norm Siebern opened with a single but Mickey Mantle bounced into a double play and Yogi Berra popped out to end the game.

The crowd of 42,020 was treated to one of the finest pitching duels of the season as both hurlers pitched hitless ball for 5½ innings.

Dapper Red Sox Reach .500 Class

Jim Wilson's Red Sox moved into the .500 class with a 4-4 record in the Dapper Division of the Dapper Dan Little League yesterday by edging the Pirates at Penn Avenue Field by the score of 9-8.

Jimmy Willis starred in a relief role for the Sox by fanning 13 and yielded only four hits in five frames. He whiffed the side in the second, third and fourth innings.

Jerry Klavuhn slammed a homer and batted in two of the Red Sox runs. Jerry Cessna and Dave Martin obtained two hits each and Jack Hebner rapped a two-bagger. John Irons smacked a triple and single and batted in four runs for the Buccos. Al Delbrugge excelled at third base for the Pirates and Stanley Twigg starred afield for the Red Sox.

Calhoun Gets Nod Over Dick Tiger

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (UPI) — Rory Calhoun of White Plains, N. Y., won a split decision over Dick Tiger of Nigeria Friday night in a slow-moving dull 10-round televised bout.

The decision, as roundly booed by the crowd as was the general lack of action during the 30-minutes went to Calhoun when the two judges, Dick Fazio and Harold McGrath scored it 6-4 in the underdog's favor.

Referee Joe Palmer had it 5-3-2 in favor of Tiger, the British Empire's middleweight champ who entered the ring an 8-5 favorite. The United Press International agreed with Palmer's scoring of the fight.

Homewood Tavern's Old Exports defeated Cumberland Cement, 1-0, in 14 innings, the longest game of the season, and the Corriganville Hermans maintained their half game lead by beating Stringtown in eight innings, 5-4, yesterday in the County Softball League.

George Bishields' double and Lenny Campbell's single produced the only run in the game at Homewood Field and gave Junior Brelsford the decision over Gary Hite in the best pitching duel of the season in the league.

Brelsford gave up only three hits, fanned 12 and notched his 14th win of the season against three losses. Hite yielded eight hits and struck out four. The win was the fifth in a row for Brelsford and his seventh shutout triumph.

Frank Scarpelli had two hits and two walks in six times at bat and "Smoky" Howe also collected a pair of bingles for Homewood. Corky Jamison starred at short for the losers.

With the bases loaded in the 11th inning, Ron Cook, Jack Lowery and Rich Lowery executed a triple play.

Joe Raygor issued 13 walks and despite his wildness Corriganville emerged the winner over Stringtown in the eighth inning when Price tripled and Kreigline and Johnson doubled for two runs for the runs that decided the issue.

Stringtown scored three runs in the sixth on a hit and five bases on balls.

Maple Inn ran roughshod over Fossilville in the third game of the day by the score of 18-4.

Ronnie Neubeiser collected four hits, including a triple and double, Buddy Meade obtained a triple, double and single and Leroy Morris had a two-bagger and two singles for Maple Inn. Shaffer homered a homer and Willison collected two hits for Fossilville. Bagley and Ronnie Neubeiser were the fielding stars. Scores:

Reed Advances To Clay Courts Tourney Finals

Bartzen And Segal Will Tangle Today

CHICAGO (AP)—Whitney Reed, blond NCAA champion, ended the upstart antics of young fellow Californian Larry Nagler Friday to ente. the finals of the National Clay Court Tennis Tournament.

Reed huffed and puffed and finally blew down the steady-stroking game of his slightly built opponent 6-4, 7-5, 1-6, 9-7 in a semifinals marathon at suburban River Forest Tennis Club.

Reed, 26, of San Jose State College and a resident of Alameda, earned the questionable privilege of meeting the winner of Saturday's semifinals match between defending champion Bernard (Tut) Bartzen of Dallas and 28-year-old Abe Segal of South Africa. Segal upset top-seeded Alex Olmedo Thursday.

No matter who wins that second semifinals battle, the primarily defensive tactics of both participants guarantees a long afternoon's work for the slugging Reed in Sunday's championship final.

Sally Moore took a bit of the gloss off South Africa's magnificent showing in the tournament as she whipped Renee Schurman of Durban, South Africa, 6-3, 6-1, in the women's semifinals.

Phillies Edge Dodgers, 3-2

Roger Craig Loses First Of Season

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The Philadelphia Phillies, riding high on Harry Anderson's seventh-inning homer, handed Roger Craig his first defeat of the season Friday night by beating the Los Angeles Dodgers, 3-2.

Jim Owens, loser of five in a row, survived an extra-base hit attack in the late innings to win his first victory since June 3 and keep the Dodgers dangling in second place pending the outcome of the night's other games.

Frank Murray Posts 5th Victory In Row

Manager John Daum's Lions moved within two games of the front-running Bedford Road Optimists in the Hot Stove Baseball League by nosing out the Rotary Club last night at Penn Avenue Field by the score of 3-2.

The victory gave the Lions an 8-4 record. Bedford Road is setting the pace with 10 wins and two losses.

Frank Murray registered his fifth straight triumph of the season without a loss. He held the Rotarians to two hits, including a two-bagger by Roy, and struck out a dozen batsmen. Ronnie Manges, Rotary hurler, yielded only three hits and also whiffed a dozen.

Colen Smith and Jim Bowman belted home runs for the Lions.

Gordon, Minoso Are Ejected As Cleveland Wins

Indians Nose Out Boston Red Sox, 8-7

BOSTON (UPI)—Manager Joe Gordon and outfielder Minnie Minoso were thrown out of the game Friday night as the Cleveland Indians built up a seven-run lead and then hung on to edge the Boston Red Sox 8-7.

Gordon was tossed out by second base umpire Jim Honochick for protesting a call in the eighth inning. Honochick had ruled Vic Power out on a play for interference.

Minoso, the next batter as the score stood 8-4, refused to enter the batter's box and was called out by plate umpire Frank Umont on three pitches from reliefer Leo Kiely. Minoso tossed his bat in Umont's direction and also was ejected. Words were exchanged and a half a dozen players had to restrain Minoso from attacking Umont.

The Red Sox came within one run of tying it with a three-run rally in the ninth before reliefer Gary Bell struck out pinch hitter Bobby Avila for the final out.

Rookie Larry Locke, who gave way to Jim Perry in the seventh, won his first major league game after a previous loss. Boston starter Ike Delock was the loser. The Indians chased Delock in the second, scoring four runs, three of them unearned, in the first two frames.

U.S., Russian Track Teams Clash Today

Men, Women Stars Vie In Philadelphia

By TED SMITS
Associated Press Sports Editor

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The United States and Russia clash Saturday in a dual meet that brings together most of the world's best men and women in track and field.

America is favored to win in the men's events and Russia in the women's in the two-day competition which, with good weather, should draw 40,000 both days to Franklin Field. The forecast for the weekend is good.

The powerful Russian team includes such stars as Igor Kaskarov, who has high jumped 7 feet ½ inch; Vasily Kuznetsov, who has bettered the world record in the decathlon; and Igor Ter-Ovanesyan, a 26-foot broad jumper.

The United States is counting on veteran aces Harold Connolly in the hammer, Al Oerter in the discus, Greg Bell in the broad jump, and Parry O'Brien in the shot — all Olympic champions—together with such sensational youngsters as Ray Norton in the sprints, Tom Murphy in the 800, and Al Cantello, who recently threw the javelin 282-3½ to better the world record.

In the women's events the United States is looking to Earlene Brown in the weights, Isabelle Daniels in the 200, and Wilma Rudolph in the 100 for points.

One of the blue ribbon events should be the pole vault. Russia has a 15-foot pole vaulter in Vladimir Bulatov, but the USA's Don Bragg, who set a world indoor record at 15-9½, should stop him.

The high jump brings together two of the men who have bettered the magic 7-foot mark — Kashkarov and Charles Dumas of the United States.

Optimists To Play B'nai B'rith Today

B'nai B'rith and the Cumberland Optimist Club will meet in a Hot Stove Baseball League game today at 6 p.m., at Penn Avenue Field.

Giants Trim Pirates, 4-1; White Sox Stop Yanks, 2-0

Sam Whiffs Seven, Ups Total To 128, Chalks Up 13th Win

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Sad Sam Jones doled out seven hits and struck out seven to pace San Francisco to a 4-1 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates and enabled the Giants to stretch their National League lead to two games.

the Giants racked up 10 hits for their 10th triumph in 15 road games on their current swing and gained on the second-place Los Angeles Dodgers, who were edged 3-2 by the Philadelphia Phils.

In achieving his 13th victory of the season, Jones raised his strikeout total to 128 and is second to Dodger Don Drysdale in that department. He allowed only one walk. Jones was deprived of a shutout in the second when Don Hoak singled to left with two away, stole second, and scored on Roberto Clemente's line single.

Back-to-back doubles by Willie Mays and Orlando Cepeda with two out in the first inning gave the Giants a 1-0 lead and paved the way for Ronnie Kline's eighth defeat. Doubles by Ed Bressoud and Willie Kirkland off Kline in the seventh made it 2-1.

Roy Face entered the game in the eighth inning and allowed two more Giant tallies on singles by Cepeda and Bressoud, a sacrifice by Hobie Landrith and an error by Dick Stuart. Cepeda opened the inning with a single, stole second, and after Daryl Spencer struck out, Jackie Brandt walked for the third time. Cepeda stole third and came home on a squeeze play when Hobie Landrith sacrificed. Landrith was safe at first when Stuart dropped the ball. Then Bressoud drove Brandt home with a single.

After the second inning the Pirates could get only one man as far as second base as Jones retired the last eight batters in a row.

Ridgeley replaced the Wildcats in second place by defeating Midland to the tune of 9-6 in a game staged at Ridgeley.

The game at Barton was featured by the hitting of Jimmy High, Barton shortstop, who collected five hits in five trips to the plate, a triple, double and three singles, and extended his string to 13 hits in three games. High, Mickey Johnson, "Butch" Snyder, Larry Suder and Paul Green accounted for 14 of the winners' 17 blows. Suder hit a home run.

Deffenbaugh, losing pitcher, hit a homer and two singles for the Wildcats.

Joe McIntyre got the Barton win but Larry "Elroy" Duckworth, fork ball artist, turned in a creditable relief job after coming on in the fifth.

Charley Coffman hit a grand slam homer after two out in the 6th inning to give Ridgeley the verdict over Midland.

Coffman started on the rubber for Ridgeley but Ronnie McFarland chalked up the win in the role of relief hurler.

Thrasher poled a two-run homer, Cutter larruped two triples and Lancaster hit a three-bagger for Midland. The scores:

Manager Earl Drenning's VFW tossers won the first half championship of the Rec High School Baseball League by defeating Woody Gurley's yesterday at Stitcher Field by the score of 2-0.

Allan Stevenson was returned the winner over Charley Rice in a neat pitching duel as the Vets notched their fifth victory in six outings.

Stevenson yielded only three hits, struck out seven and failed to issue a base on balls. Rice tossed a five-hitter, whiffed ten and gave up only one walk.

At Fort Hill Field, the Toy Shop concluded its first half schedule with a 3-2 victory over the Forty Niners and finished in the runner-up spot with a 4-2 record.

The game was highlighted by the relief hurling of "Butch" Bosley who relieved Abell in the first inning and blanked the Forty Niners the remaining 6⅓ frames. He mowed down eleven via the strikeout route.

Trailing 2-0, the Toy Shop handed the Forty Niners their sixth straight loss by rallying for three runs in the fourth when Glenn Shipway tripled with the bases loaded.

Sports Shoppe, Police-Firemen, P.E. Win Games

The Sports Shoppe, under the supervision of new managers, Bob Carey and Lee Taylor, registered its fourth straight victory and moved within a half game of first place in the National Division of the Men's Rec Softball League by beating Keech's Drug Stores yesterday at Naval Reserve Field by the score of 7-4.

Rich Smith scored his ninth win, giving up five hits while striking out 12. He has lost three games.

Pat McNally with a bases loaded double and two singles and Wayne Holly with a double and single led the Shoppers at the plate. Lee Cover had a double and single for Keech's as Jim Lease took the loss, giving up eight hits.

Holly had six chances at third base without a slipup and figured in a game-ending double play.

Potomac Edison routed the National Guard, 18-0, at East Side Field, and the Police and Firemen whipped Whitacre's Grocery on the Rolling Mill Field by the score of 11-3.

Jack Eckard and Fred Meeks of P.E. held the Guards to four hits while the winners racked up 11 safeties. Bill Eckard blasted a homer, double and single, John Walker hit for the circuit and Ed Dowton obtained a two-bagger and single for P.E.

The Police and Firemen made it two straight wins, racking up 11 hits at the expense of four Whitacre pitchers.

Denny Knippenberg hammered a triple and two singles, Ronnie Norris garnered three singles and Warnick hit a home run for the Police and Firemen. Lechliter had a triple and two singles, Carl Whitacre a three-bagger and single and Kenney two hits for the Grocers.

Athletics Halt Washington, 7-4

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Dick Williams and Harry Chiti delivered two-run blows to spark a four-run rally in the seventh innings and carry the Kansas City Athletics to a 7-4 victory that snapped the Washington Senators' three-game winning streak Friday night.

kansas City filled the bases on two walks and a single with one out in the seventh when the score was tied at 3-3. Williams singled in two runs and Harry Chiti doubled in two more for the payoff.

Roy Sievers hit his 12th homer of the year off starter Ned Garver who got the victory but needed help in the seventh from Murry Dickson. The latter gave up two singles with one out in the ninth and was rescued by Bob Grim, who ended the game with one pitch when Bob Allison grounded into a double play.

Russ Kemmerer was the loser. Each side got 10 hits.

Pappas Saves Brown, Orioles Down Detroit

Tigers Suffer 5th Straight Loss, 3-2

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Milt Pappas came to Skinny Brown's rescue in a hectic eighth inning Friday night and saved a 3-2 victory for the Baltimore Orioles over the Detroit Tigers who suffered their fifth straight setback.

Pappas stepped in with one out and the tieing run on second and the lead run on first. He retired Ted Lepcio and Harvey Kuenn on grounders, then set down the side in order in the ninth. The 20-year-old youngster who has 10 victories to his credit this year, saved Brown's sixth triumph as against five losses.

It was a heartbreaker for southpaw Don Mossi to lose. He allowed only three hits and was the victim of a two-run error by Rocky Bridges in the third which permitted the winning runs to trickle over the plate.

After Joe Taylor's harmless single in the third, Mossi retired the next 13 men in order until lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth. He walked three and fanned two. Tom Morgan pitched a 1-2-3 8th inning.

Jim Landis' Hit In Ninth Beats Terry

Ralph Had No-Hitter For Eight Innings; Wynn Notches 12th

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jim Landis' single with the bases loaded in the ninth inning gave the league-leading Chicago White Sox a 2-0 victory over the New York Yankees tonight after loser Ralph Terry had pitched a no-hitter for eight innings.

Early Wynn, who registered his 12th victory, pitched one-hit ball until the ninth and wound up with a two-hitter while Terry, who suffered his seventh loss, also yielded only two hits.

Rookie Jim McAnany, playing his first game at Yankee Stadium, broke Terry's hitless string when he singled through the box to lead off the ninth. McAnany moved to second on Wynn's sacrifice bunt and both runners were safe when Terry threw too late to Gil McDougald, covering second base.

Luis Aparicio then sacrificed both runners along and Nellie Fox was intentionally walked to load the bases. Landis then lined a 2-and-2 pitch past first baseman Elston Howard scoring McAnany and Wynn with the only runs of the game.

The Yankees threatened in their half of the ninth when Norm Siebern opened with a single but Mickey Mantle bounced into a double play and Yogi Berra popped out to end the game.

The crowd of 42,020 was treated to one of the finest pitching duels of the season as both hurlers pitched hitless ball for 5½ innings.

Dapper Red Sox Reach .500 Class

Jim Wilson's Red Sox moved into the .500 class with a 4-4 record in the Dapper Division of the Dapper Dan Little League yesterday by edging the Pirates at Penn Avenue Field by the score of 9-8.

Jimmy Willis starred in a relief role for the Sox by fanning 13 and yielded only four hits in five frames. He whiffed the side in the second, third and fourth innings.

Jerry Klavuhn slammed a homand batted in two of the Red Sox runs. Jerry Cessna and Dave Martin obtained two hits each and Jack Hebner rapped a two-bagger. John Irons smacked a triple and single and batted in four runs for the Buccos. Al Delbrugge excelled at third base for the Pirates and Stanley Twigg starred afield for the Red Sox.

Calhoun Gets Nod Over Dick Tiger

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (UPI) — Rory Calhoun of White Plains, N. Y., won a split decision over Dick Tiger of Nigeria Friday night in a slow-moving dull 10-round televised bout.

The decision, as roundly booed by the crowd as was the general lack of action during the 30-minutes went to Calhoun when the two judges, Dick Fazio and Harold McGrath scored it 6-4 in the underdog's favor.

Referee Joe Palmer had it 5-3-2 in favor of Tiger, the British Empire's middleweight champ who entered the ring an 8-5 favorite. The United Press International agreed with Palmer's scoring of the fight.

Homewood Tavern's Old Exports defeated Cumberland Cement, 1-0, in 14 innings, the longest game of the season, and the Corriganville Hermans maintained their half game lead by beating Stringtown in eight innings, 5-4, yesterday in the County Softball League.

George Bishields' double and Lenny Campbell's single produced the only run in the game at Homewood Field and gave Junior Brelsford the decision over Gary Hite in the best pitching duel of the season in the league.

Brelsford gave up only three hits, fanned 12 and notched his 14th win of the season against three losses. Hite yielded eight hits and struck out four. The win was the fifth in a row for Brelsford and his seventh shutout triumph.

Frank Scarpelli had two hits and two walks in six times at bat and "Smoky" Howe also collected a pair of bingles for Homewood. Corky Jamison starred at short for the losers.

With the bases loaded in the 11th inning, Ron Cook, Jack Lowery and Rich Lowery executed a triple play.

Joe Raygor issued 13 walks and despite his wildness Corriganville emerged the winner over Stringtown in the eighth inning when Price tripled and Kreigline and Johnson doubled for two runs for the runs that decided the issue.

Johnson, Price, Kreigline and Jim Shaffer had two hits each for the Hermans.

Stringtown scored three runs in the sixth on a hit and five bases on balls.

Maple Inn ran roughshod over Fossilville in the third game of the day by the score of 18-4.

Ronnie Neubeiser collected four hits, including a triple and double, Buddy Meade obtained a triple, double and single and Leroy Morris had a two-bagger and two singles for Maple Inn. Shaffer homered a homer and Willison collected two hits for Fossilville. Bagley and Ronnie Neubeiser were the fielding stars.

Reed Advances To Clay Courts Tourney Finals

Bartzen And Segal Will Tangle Today

CHICAGO (AP)—Whitney Reed, blond NCAA champion, ended the upstart antics of young fellow Californian Larry Nagler Friday to enter the finals of the National Clay Court Tennis Tournament.

Reed huffed and puffed and finally blew down the steady-stroking game of his slightly built opponent 6-4, 7-5, 1-6, 9-7 in a semifinals marathon at suburban River Forest Tennis Club.

Reed, 26, of San Jose State College and a resident of Alameda, earned the questionable privilege of meeting the winner of Saturday's semifinals match between defending champion Bernard (Tut) Bartzen of Dallas and 28-year-old Abe Segal of South Africa. Segal upset top-seeded Alex Olmedo Thursday.

No matter who wins that second semifinals battle, the primarily defensive tactics of both participants guarantees a long afternoon's work for the slugging Reed in Sunday's championship final.

Sally Moore took a bit of the gloss off South Africa's magnificent showing in the tournament as she whipped Renee Schurman of Durban, South Africa, 6-3, 6-1, in the women's semifinals.

Phillies Edge Dodgers, 3-2

Roger Craig Loses First Of Season

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The Philadelphia Phillies, riding high on Harry Anderson's seventh-inning homer, handed Roger Craig his first defeat of the season Friday night by beating the Los Angeles Dodgers, 3-2.

Jim Owens, loser of five in a row, survived an extra-base hit attack in the late innings to win his first victory since June 3 and keep the Dodgers dangling in second place pending the outcome of the night's other games.

Frank Murray Posts 5th Victory In Row

Manager John Daum's Lions moved within two games of the front-running Bedford Road Optimists in the Hot Stove Baseball League by nosing out the Rotary Club last night at Penn Avenue Field by the score of 3-2.

The victory gave the Lions an 8-4 record. Bedford Road is setting the pace with 10 wins and two losses.

Frank Murray registered his fifth straight triumph of the season without a loss. He held the Rotarians to two hits, including a two-bagger by Roy, and struck out a dozen batsmen. Ronnie Manges, Rotary hurler, yielded only three hits and also whiffed a dozen.

Colen Smith and Jim Bowman belted home runs for the Lions.

Gordon, Minoso Are Ejected As Cleveland Wins

Indians Nose Out Boston Red Sox, 8-7

BOSTON (UPI)—Manager Joe Gordon and outfielder Minnie Minoso were thrown out of the game Friday night as the Cleveland Indians built up a seven-run lead and then hung on to edge the Boston Red Sox 8-7.

Gordon was tossed out by second base umpire Jim Honochick for protesting a call in the eighth inning. Honochick had ruled Vic Power out on a play for interference.

Minoso, the next batter as the score stood 8-4, refused to enter the batter's box and was called out by plate umpire Frank Umont on three pitches from reliefer Leo Kiely. Minoso tossed his bat in Umont's direction and also was ejected. Words were exchanged and a half a dozen players had to restrain Minoso from attacking Umont.

The Red Sox came within one run of tying it with a three-run rally in the ninth before reliefer Gary Bell struck out pinch hitter Bobby Avila for the final out.

Rookie Larry Locke, who gave way to Jim Perry in the seventh, won his first major league game after a previous loss. Boston starter Ike Delock was the loser. The Indians chased Delock in the second, scoring four runs, three of them unearned, in the first two frames.

U.S., Russian Track Teams Clash Today

Men, Women Stars Vie In Philadelphia

By TED SMITS
Associated Press Sports Editor

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The United States and Russia clash Saturday in a dual meet that brings together most of the world's best men and women in track and field.

America is favored to win in the men's events and Russia in the women's in the two-day competition which, with good weather, should draw 40,000 both days to Franklin Field. The forecast for the weekend is good.

The powerful Russian team includes such stars as Igor Kaskarov, who has high jumped 7 feet ½ inch; Vasily Kuznetsov, who has bettered the world record in the decathlon; and Igor Ter-Ovanesyan, a 26-foot broad jumper.

The United States is counting on veteran aces Harold Connolly in the hammer, Al Oerter in the discus, Greg Bell in the broad jump, and Parry O'Brien in the shot — all Olympic champions—together with such sensational youngsters as Ray Norton in the sprints, Tom Murphy in the 800, and Al Cantello, who recently threw the javelin 282-3½ to better the world record.

In the women's events the United States is looking to Earlene Brown in the weights, Isabelle Daniels in the 200, and Wilma Rudolph in the 100 for points.

One of the blue ribbon events should be the pole vault. Russia has a 15-foot pole vaulter in Vladimir Bulatov, but the USA's Don Bragg, who set a world indoor record at 15-9½, should stop him.

The high jump brings together two of the men who have bettered the magic 7-foot mark — Kashkarov and Charles Dumas of the United States.

Optimists To Play B'nai B'rith Today

B'nai B'rith and the Cumberland Optimist Club will meet in a Hot Stove Baseball League game today at 6 p.m., at Penn Avenue Field.

This game originally was set for Tuesday but was postponed on account of rain.

Frostburg Little Leaguers Named For District Playoffs

Opening Tilt With Oakland Set July 27

Frostburg Is Host; 14 Regulars, Three Alternates Chosen

Frostburg's Little League All-Stars have been selected for the opening game of the district playoffs with Oakland's All-Stars at Frostburg, Monday, July 27 at 6 p. m.

Fourteen regulars and three alternates have been selected from the six teams in the loop as the Mountain City aggregation prepares to participate in the playoffs for the fifth consecutive year.

The regulars are as follows:

ROTARY CLUB — Nick Edwards and Ronnie Ware.

EAGLES — Dick Delaney, Greg Harper and Billy Lewis.

LIONS CLUB — Doug Layman and Eddie Spates.

K. of C. — Wayne Miller, Marshall Coleman and Kenny Fike.

REPUBLICAN CLUB — Bobby Seibert.

Won Three Last Year

In four previous years, Frostburg made its best showing in 1958 when it lost out in the quarter-finals to the Hagerstown American League All-Stars, 4-3, after having disposed of Oakland, 8-1, Hancock, 4-2 and Williamsport in the district finals, 8-4.

Frostburg beat Oakland, 4-3, downed Berkeley-Hancock, 6-0, and was eliminated by Williamsport, 6-5, in the district finals at Williamsport in 1957.

The previous year the Mountain City tossers ushered out the Pen-Mar Little League All-Stars, 6-5, then lost to Hancock-Berkeley, 9-2.

In 1955, Frostburg's first year in the playoffs, the Pen-Mar Little Leaguers won the opening game, 6-1, and then went on to the state finals before bowing to Easton at the latter place, 3-2. On the way the Pen-Mar League's small fry also disposed of Oakland, 8-7, Berkeley-Hancock, 5-2, Thurmont, 9-3, and Brooklyn Park, 6-4.

Play In 11th Game

Negro Collegian Plays For National Public Links Title

DENVER (AP) — Bill Wright, Seattle's putting sensation, defeated Doug Essig III, the 1957 champion, 1-up and Frank Campbell of Jacksonville, Fla., crushed San Francisco Patrolman Bill McCool 3 and 1 in Friday's 36-hole semifinals of the National Public Links Golf Tournament.

Campbell, 33, and insurance agent, and Wright, 23, Negro collegian, play 36 holes Saturday over the 6,617-yard par 71 Wellshire course for the championship. Defending champion Dan Sikes Jr., Jacksonville law student, lost in the second round.

Tee Hee Restaurant Routs Saints, 35-8

Melva Herath and Janet Robertson collected five and four hits, respectively, to lead the Tee Hee Restaurant to a 35-8 victory over St. Mary's CYO in a Women's Rec Softball League game yesterday at Post Field.

Robertson and Mosser blasted home runs for the winning team. Pichards collected two of the eight hits credited to St. Mary's. Score:

Tee Hee Restaurant	35	26	3
St. Mary's CYO	8	8	5

Elkins Will Host Moorefield Sunday

Undefeated Moorefield will be gunning for its ninth win of the season in the Mountain State Baseball League when it plays at Elkins on Sunday.

In other Sunday 2 p. m., EST., games, Franklin visits Century, Mill Creek is at the Medium Security Prison Farm, Huttonsville, and Belington hosts Moatsville.

In last week's games, Moorefield whipped Mill Creek, 8-2, Elkins downed Medium Security Prison, 7-1, and Century's Miners trimmed Belington, 12-4. The Moatsville at Franklin game was rained out.

Barrelville Aims For 8th Win In Row

Visits Flintstone For Sunday Game

Manager Raymond "Buck" Fiorita's Barrelville Old Exports, leading the race by four games with only eight more to play, will be gunning for their eighth straight Pen-Mar Baseball League victory when they play at Flintstone on Sunday afternoon.

The league leaders with a 17-3 record hold two decisions over the Farmers, 13-0 and 6-1. Bobby Raines is expected to work on the firing line for the Old Exports and he will be angling for his eighth straight triumph. His record now is 8-1.

Barrelville's last loss came at the hands of Salisbury (2-1) on June 14. Since then the Exports have won over Flintstone 6-1, Wellersburg 7-6 in 11 innings, Mt. Savage 6-0, Centerville 11-6, Grantsville 7-1, Salisbury 5-2 and Hyndman 8-3.

Hyndman's Merchants (13-7), runner-up in the pennant race, will host the Salisbury Cardinals on Sunday. Third place Salisbury (12-8) has won the first two games of the four-game series from Hyndman, 4-2 and 4-3.

In other Sunday action, Mt. Savage plays the Sluggers at Grantsville and Wellersburg will entertain the Centerville Reds.

Mt. Savage defeated Grantsville, 11-8, then lost to the Sluggers via the forfeit route, 9-0. Wellersburg holds a 15-6 decision over Centerville while the Reds won the second contest, 18-8.

Grantsville holds fourth place with a 10-10 record. Mt. Savage, Centerville, Flintstone and Wellersburg make up the second division and all are below the .500 mark.

All games on Sunday will get under way at 2:30 p. m.

The league's all-star game between players of the four Maryland and four Pennsylvania teams is set for Saturday, July 25 at 4 p. m., in Hyndman.

Pony Season Is Extended

Frostburg Games Are Rescheduled

Extension of the season one week through August 7 has been announced by the Bi-State Pony Baseball League due to the Frostburg Club being idle next week because a carnival will hold forth at the Mountain City team's park.

The regular season was to have ended July 31.

The Ellerslie at Frostburg game has been postponed from July 20 to August 3 while the LaVale at Frostburg game on July 24 has been rescheduled for August 7.

The Frostburg at Mt. Savage game of yesterday has been rescheduled for Sunday at 6 p.m., at Mt. Savage.

The league at its meeting this week also decided that the game of June 26 in which Lonaconing was credited with defeating Ellerslie, 4-3, must be replayed on August 5 at Lonaconing. The claim that 'Coney stalled for darkness which brought a halt of hostilities in the 6th inning was upheld by the league. If inclement weather results in postponement of the game it will be rescheduled for August 7.

Waterford Plans Twilight Racing

CHESTER, W. Va. (UPI)—Twilight racing will be a daily event at nearby Waterford Park in the future, track officials said Friday.

Waterford President James F. Edwards said races in the future would start at 4:15 p.m. instead of the normal 2 p.m. starting time. The inovation will be in effect each day except Saturday.

Edwards said that success earlier this month with a twilight race held to avoid conflict with the All - Star baseball game at Pittsburgh prompted the track to delay starting times.

Fred Gets New Job
Half Million Dream
KHS Coach 14 Years
Rice Had 6-1 Mark

By C. V. BURNS

FRED COLWILL, the horse, hasn't been doing so good this season at New York tracks but J. Fred Colwill, the Maryland racing secretary after whom the thoroughbred was named, is doing quite well for himself.

Colwill is slated to become racing secretary at Hagerstown (Sept. 28-Oct. 10) as successor to Henry J. Carroll, who died of a heart attack at Laurel in March.

Fred will serve as racing secretary at Fairgo for the tenth consecutive year, according to Harry J. Barton, general manager of the Cumberland Fair Association.

The Pride of Lutherville (Md.) made his debut as secretary here in 1950, one year after he had filled the role of director of racing.

Colwill is Cumberland's fifth secretary. Eddie Brennan, now general manager at Monmouth Park, N. J., was here for 21 years (1925-1945) and was followed by Bill Shewbridge (1946), John P. Turner, Jr., (1947), and "Ty" Shea (1948 and 1949).

GENERAL MANAGER Barton says the local association is hopeful the Maryland Racing Commission will make the nine races daily optional for the 12-day session at Fairgo which is less than two months away—September 14-26.

It is felt that with increased competition from other tracks and the anticipated shortage of horses eight races daily will be sufficient on most days and if a ninth race is to be added it would be on the two Saturdays and Cumberland Day.

Joe B. Hickey, Jr., who writes "The Racing Scene" for The Maryland Horse, official publication of the Maryland Horse Breeders Association, says:

"With complete returns of the Maryland spring racing season at hand, opponents of the ninth race have some heavy artillery to throw at the advocates who viewed the plan with $$ in their eyes.

"When the ninth race bill was written into law last winter, its sponsors expected the measure to raise parimutuel betting in the state by eight per cent. They since have learned that milking a cow from both sides does not increase the bovine's output.

"Pimlico's handle declined 9 per cent, Bel Air was off 8 per cent. Laurel crowds were off 8 per cent, Pimlico was down 13 per cent and Bel Air plummeted 16 percentage points.

"The half million expected in 1959 from the ninth race is just a dream."

WHEN Romney High School meets Allegany on the gridiron November 14 it will mark the first meeting of the Pioneers and the Campers in 22 years.

Records show that the schools met in football only once before and that was early in the 1937 season when the Campers, coached by Herman Ball, clobbered the Hampshire countians, 60 to 6.

Romney has lost two games to Fort Hill. The Pioneers' last game with a Cumberland team was in 1949 when they beat LaSalle, 27-0.

TO THE FAN who inquired about the largest crowd in the history of Ebbets Field:

"Pie" Traynor informs us that the record crowd for Forbes Field was 44,932 on September 23, 1956.

UNIONTOWN has landed the Eastern Zone Trapshooting Tournament and firing will be over the traps of the Fayette Gun Club, July 30-31 and August 1-2.

There will be $1,000 in added money and a total of 20 trophies will be offered during the four days of action.

The last Eastern Zone tourney held in this section dates back to the 1930s and the scene was the Meadow Lark Gun Club on the J. Sloan Arnold property at New Creek near Keyser.

Joe Hiestand, the sharpshooting Ohioan and one of the nation's all-time great shots, and Ned Lilly, of Michigan, headed the large turnout of scatter gun artists on that occasion.

JOHN R. SHELTON steps down as Keyser High School basketball coach to become assistant principal after 14 years of tutoring Golden Tornado cage teams.

His teams won 65 per cent of their games, scoring 233 victories while losing 125. Shelton also coached track and field.

In March, dual honors were conferred on Shelton in West Virginia during the state basketball tourney at Huntington. He was elected president of the West Virginia Football Officials Association and also was named to head the West Virginia High School Coaches Association.

There are seven applicants for the job at the present time, according to S. T. McGee, county superintendent.

The appointment probably will be made at the next session of the Mineral County School Board Tuesday, August 4.

William "Huck" Miers, a native of Keyser, and Piedmont High's cage mentor with a 248-132 record and a 65 per cent average for 16 years, has been favorably mentioned for the post and he is reported to be giving it consideration.

Miers' teams have won four P.V.C. basketball championships in the past six years.

OUR ATTENTION was called several weeks after the high school baseball season ended to a discrepancy that appeared in a game report that cheated a pitcher of a victory to which he was entitled.

It seems that on May 19, LaSalle won at Flintstone by the score of 11-5 and in this game Bobby Green was reported as the winning pitcher and Charley Rice as a pinch-hitter. It was just the opposite, so we are informed.

That win gives Rice a 6-1 record instead of 5-1 for the season and the six strikeouts upped the LaSalle junior's total to 45 in 47⅔ innigs and made him the County High School League strikeout king for 1959.

The other night, Tojo boxed on a card in Johnstown and lost a decision to Aurie Snook, Lewistown, Pa., policeman.

Wade lost to Homer Boone and decisioned Cumberland's Bill Frazier twice in 1948 shows here.

Patty Berg's 143 Trails By 2 Shots

ALLIANCE, Ohio (UPI)—Faye Crocker, the only foreign entrant in the 72-hole $12,500 Alliance international golf tournament, grabbed the lead at the halfway mark Friday with a one-under-par 70 for a two-day total of 141.

The bespeckled golfer from Montevideo, Uruguay, who admits to being "in her 40s," had rounds of 34-36 over the rolling 6,253-yard course to add to her 71 Thursday. Two strokes behind Miss Crocker was another old-timer—Patty Berg, of St. Andrews, Ill.

Miss Berg, a veteran of 27 years on the golf trails and the all-time money winner, shot a one-over-par 72 for a 36-hole total of 143.

She said she missed "six putts under three feet," but had three birdies.

The first round leader, 19-year-old Kathyann Whitworth, from Jal, N. M., blew to a nine over par 80 as she started out the round with an eight on the third hole. She had a 71 Thursday.

Art Ceccarelli Twirls Chicago To 1-0 Victory

Reds' Bob Purkey Loses Mound Duel

CHICAGO (AP) — Southpaw Art Ceccarelli turned his second National League start into his second victory as he blanked Cincinnati on six hits and scored the only run of the Chicago Cubs' 1-0 triumph here Friday.

Ceccarelli, recalled from Fort Worth of the American Association 10 days ago, walked six and fanned one to give the Cubs their fourth straight victory and sixth triumph in the past seven games to move over the .500 mark at 45-44.

Bob Purkey was the loser, suffering his 10th—third to Chicago—while winning eight. Purkey yielded seven hits as he watched the Cubs score in the fifth.

Catcher Sammy Taylor opened the gates with a single, but was forced at second on Ceccarelli's sacrifice attempt. Tony Taylor bunted for a single as the pitcher stopped at second.

Ripple Rites Set Sunday

JEANNETTE, Pa. (UPI)—Funeral services will be held here Sunday for James A. (Jimmy) Ripple, 49, former major league outfielder who died Thursday after a lengthy illness.

Ripple played for the pennant-winning New York Giants in 1936 and 1937 and the 1940 World Series with the Cincinnati Reds. He also played for the Brooklyn Dodgers and the Philadelphia Athletics in 1943, his last year in the majors.

Larry Adams Posts Triple

Rides 37 Winners At Delaware Park

STANTON, Del., July 17 (AP)—Larry Adams, the hottest jockey at Delaware Park this season, rode three more winners today, completing his triple in the featured Valdina Spirea Purse astride the front-running Michore from the stable of Walter E. Crismer.

Making a show of six rivals in the six furlong dash witnessed by a crowd of 10,832, Michore loped to the wire with five lengths to spare over Harold G. Bensing's Mr. Kip, a slight favorite over the winner.

Michore's backers collected $6, $3.20 and $2.80. Mr. Kip paid $3 and $2.80, with Coral Key $3.60 third. The time on a track that had dried out to fast condition was a snappy 1:11 3/5.

Adams captured the second race on Sew Square, $22, and the fifth astride All Four, $8. He now has 37 triumphs at the 43-day-old meeting and has the local riding title virtually locked up.

Maye Is Recalled

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves Friday recalled Louisville outfielder Lee Maye, the American Assn. RBI leader with 80. The Negro star's .340 batting average is third in the league. He also has 17 homers.

Littler Leads By Five Strokes In New England

Gene Has 12-Below Par Score Of 130

WETHERSFIELD, Conn (UPI)—Gene Littler, with a 12-under par score of 130, increased his lead to five strokes in the second round of the Insurance City Open golf tournament Friday.

Littler continued the "pin point" brand of golf he has displayed since the start of the tournament, moving around the middle of the course with remarkable consistency. His putting moreover has pleased him no end.

He bagged six birdies Friday with putts ranging from 25 to 4 feet, and he again birdied the testing 18th hole, duplicating his first round effort.

His score of 31-35—66 is against par of 35-36—71. Littler needs a 68 Saturday to establish a new low for 54 holes in this eight-year-old event.

Jackie Burke, Jr., the defending titlist, had 199 with a round to go last year.

After Littler, the players were rather well bunched. Bruce Crampton, son of a Sydney, Australia policeman, scored a 66 Friday for 135 matching the score of Bob Goalby of Crystal River, Fla. Goalby had a 67 Friday, a shot better than his Thursday effort.

Then came Al Besselink of Grossinger, N. Y., and Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex., with identical scores of 67-69—136 for fourth place.

The group at 137 included Julius Boros of Mid-Pines, N. C., 69-68, and Wes Ellis, Jr., Aldercrest, N. J., who slipped to a 71 after his opening round 66.

Burke was 10 shots behind the leader with rounds of 69 and 71 for 140, a mark shared by another former Insurance City Open winner, Gardner Dickinson, who has 70-70—140.

Frostburg Little Leaguers Named For District Playoffs

Opening Tilt With Oakland Set July 27

Frostburg Is Host; 14 Regulars, Three Alternates Chosen

Frostburg's Little League All-Stars have been selected for the opening game of the district playoffs with Oakland's All-Stars at Frostburg, Monday, July 27 at 6 p. m.

Fourteen regulars and three alternates have been selected from the six teams in the loop as the Mountain City aggregation prepares to participate in the playoffs for the fifth consecutive year.

The regulars are as follows:

LIONS CLUB — Doug Layman and Eddie Spates.

K. of C. — Wayne Miller, Marshall Coleman and Kenny Fike.

REPUBLICAN CLUB — Bobby Seibert.

Won Three Last Year

In four previous years, Frostburg made its best showing in 1958 when it lost out in the quarter-finals to the Hagerstown American League All-Stars, 4-3, after having disposed of Oakland, 8-1, Hancock, 4-2 and Williamsport in the district finals, 8-4.

Frostburg beat Oakland, 4-3, downed Berkeley-Hancock, 6-0, and was eliminated by Williamsport, 6-5, in the district finals at Williamsport in 1957.

The previous year the Mountain City tossers ushered out the Pen-Mar Little League All-Stars, 6-5, then lost to Hancock-Berkeley, 9-2.

In 1955, Frostburg's first year in the playoffs, the Pen-Mar Little Leaguers won the opening game, 6-1, and then went on to the state finals before bowing to Easton at the latter place, 3-2. On the way the Pen-Mar League's small fry also disposed of Oakland, 8-7, Berkeley-Hancock, 5-2, Thurmont, 9-3, and Brooklyn Park, 6-4.

Play In 11th Game

Negro Collegian Plays For National Public Links Title

DENVER (AP) — Bill Wright, Seattle's putting sensation, defeated Doug Essig III, the 1957 champion, 1-up and Frank Campbell of Jacksonville, Fla., crushed San Francisco Patrolman Bill McCool 3 and 1 in Friday's 36-hole semi-finals of the National Public Links Golf Tournament.

Campbell, 33, and insurance agent, and Wright, 23, Negro collegian, play 36 holes Saturday over the 6,617-yard par 71 Wellshire course for the championship. Defending champion Dan Sikes Jr., Jacksonville law student, lost in the second round.

Tee Hee Restaurant Routs Saints, 35-8

Melva Herath and Janet Robertson collected five and four hits, respectively, to lead the Tee Hee Restaurant to a 35-8 victory over St. Mary's CYO in a Women's Rec Softball League game yesterday at Post Field.

Tee Hee Restaurant	35	26	3
St. Mary's CYO	8	8	5

Herath and Crabtree. Richards and Ullery.

HR—Mosser, Robertson (Tee Hee Restaurant).

Elkins Will Host Moorefield Sunday

Undefeated Moorefield will be gunning for its ninth win of the season in the Mountain State Baseball League when it plays at Elkins on Sunday.

In other Sunday 2 p. m., EST., games, Franklin visits Century, Mill Creek is at the Medium Security Prison Farm, Huttonsville, and Belington hosts Moatsville.

In last week's games, Moorefield whipped Mill Creek, 8-2, Elkins downed Medium Security Prison, 7-1, and Century's Miners trimmed Belington, 12-4. The Moatsville at Franklin game was rained out.

Visits Flintstone For Sunday Game

Manager Raymond "Buck" Fiorita's Barrelville Old Exports, leading the race by four games with only eight more to play, will be gunning for their eighth straight Pen-Mar Baseball League victory when they play at Flintstone on Sunday afternoon.

The league leaders with a 17-3 record hold two decisions over the Farmers, 13-0 and 6-1. Bobby Raines is expected to work on the firing line for the Old Exports and he will be angling for his eighth straight triumph. His record now is 8-1.

Barrelville's last loss came at the hands of Salisbury (2-1) on June 14. Since then the Exports have won over Flintstone 6-1, Wellersburg 7-6 in 11 innings, Mt. Savage 6-0, Centerville 11-6, Grantsville 7-1, Salisbury 5-2 and Hyndman 8-3.

Hyndman's Merchants (13-7), runner-up in the pennant race, will host the Salisbury Cardinals on Sunday. Third place Salisbury (12-8) has won the first two games of the four-game series from Hyndman, 4-2 and 4-3.

In other Sunday action, Mt. Savage plays the Sluggers at Grantsville and Wellersburg will entertain the Centerville Reds.

Mt. Savage defeated Grantsville, 11-8, then lost to the Sluggers via the forfeit route, 9-0. Wellersburg holds a 15-6 decision over Centerville while the Reds won the second contest, 18-8.

Grantsville holds fourth place with a 10-10 record. Mt. Savage, Centerville, Flintstone and Wellersburg make up the second division and all are below the .500 mark.

All games on Sunday will get under way at 2:30 p. m.

The league's all-star game between players of the four Maryland and four Pennsylvania teams is set for Saturday, July 25 at 4 p. m., in Hyndman.

Pony Season Is Extended

Frostburg Games Are Rescheduled

Extension of the season one week through August 7 has been announced by the Bi-State Pony Baseball League due to the Frostburg Club being idle next week because a carnival will hold forth at the Mountain City team's park.

The regular season was to have ended July 31.

The Ellerslie at Frostburg game has been postponed from July 20 to August 3 while the LaVale at Frostburg game on July 24 has been rescheduled for August 7.

The Frostburg at Mt. Savage game of yesterday has been rescheduled for Sunday at 6 p.m., at Mt. Savage.

The league at its meeting this week also decided that the game of June 26 in which Lonaconing was credited with defeating Ellerslie, 4-3, must be replayed on August 5 at Lonaconing. The claim that 'Coney stalled for darkness which brought a halt of hostilities in the 6th inning was upheld by the league. If inclement weather results in postponement of the game it will be rescheduled for August 7.

Waterford Plans Twilight Racing

CHESTER, W. Va. (UPI)—Twilight racing will be a daily event at nearby Waterford Park in the future, track officials said Friday.

Waterford President James F. Edwards said races in the future would start at 4:15 p.m. instead of the normal 2 p.m. starting time. The inovation will be in effect each day except Saturday.

Edwards said that success earlier this month with a twilight race held to avoid conflict with the All - Star baseball game at Pittsburgh prompted the track to delay starting times.

Fred Gets New Job
Half Million Dream
KHS Coach 14 Years
Rice Had 6-1 Mark

By C. V. BURNS

FRED COLWILL, the horse, hasn't been doing so good this season at New York tracks but J. Fred Colwill, the Maryland racing secretary after whom the thoroughbred was named, is doing quite well for himself.

Colwill is slated to become racing secretary at Hagerstown (Sept. 28-Oct. 10) as successor to Henry J. Carroll, who died of a heart attack at Laurel in March.

Fred will serve as racing secretary at Fairgo for the tenth consecutive year, according to Harry J. Barton, general manager of the Cumberland Fair Association.

Colwill is Cumberland's fifth secretary. Eddie Brennan, now general manager at Monmouth Park, N. J., was here for 21 years (1925-1945) and was followed by Bill Shewbridge (1946), John P. Turner, Jr., (1947), and "Ty" Shea (1948 and 1949).

GENERAL MANAGER Barton says the local association is hopeful the Maryland Racing Commission will make the nine races daily optional for the 12-day session at Fairgo which is less than two months away—September 14-26.

It is felt that with increased competition from other tracks and the anticipated shortage of horses eight races daily will be sufficient on most days and if a ninth race is to be added it would be on the two Saturdays and Cumberland Day.

Joe B. Hickey, Jr., who writes "The Racing Scene" for The Maryland Horse, official publication of the Maryland Horse Breeders Association, says:

"With complete returns of the Maryland spring racing season at hand, opponents of the ninth race have some heavy artillery to throw at the advocates who viewed the plan with $$ in their eyes.

"When the ninth race bill was written into law last winter, its sponsors expected the measure to raise pari-mutuel betting in the state by eight per cent. They since have learned that milking a cow from both sides does not increase the bovine's output.

"Pimlico's handle declined 9 per cent, Bel Air was off 8 per cent. Laurel crowds were off 8 per cent, Pimlico was down 13 per cent and Bel Air plummeted 16 percentage points.

WHEN Romney High School meets Allegany on the gridiron November 14 it will mark the first meeting of the Pioneers and the Campers in 22 years.

Records show that the schools met in football only once before and that was early in the 1937 season when the Campers, coached by Herman Ball, clobbered the Hampshire countians, 60 to 6.

Romney has lost two games to Fort Hill. The Pioneers' last game with a Cumberland team was in 1949 when they beat LaSalle, 27-0.

TO THE FAN who inquired about the largest crowd in the history of Ebbets Field:

"Pie" Traynor informs us that the record crowd for Forbes Field was 44,932 on September 23, 1956.

UNIONTOWN has landed the Eastern Zone Trapshooting Tournament and firing will be over the traps of the Fayette Gun Club, July 30-31 and August 1-2.

There will be $1,000 in added money and a total of 20 trophies will be offered during the four days of action.

The last Eastern Zone tourney held in this section dates back to the 1930s and the scene was the Meadow Lark Gun Club on the J. Sloan Arnold property at New Creek near Keyser.

Joe Hiestand, the sharpshooting Ohioan and one of the nation's all-time great shots, and Ned Lilly, of Michigan, headed the large turnout of scatter gun artists on that occasion.

JOHN R. SHELTON steps down as Keyser High School basketball coach to become assistant principal after 14 years of tutoring Golden Tornado cage teams.

His teams won 65 per cent of their games, scoring 233 victories while losing 125. Shelton also coached track and field.

In March, dual honors were conferred on Shelton in West Virginia during the state basketball tourney at Huntington. He was elected president of the West Virginia Football Officials Association and also was named to head the West Virginia High School Coaches Association.

There are seven applicants for the job at the present time, according to S. T. McGee, county superintendent.

The appointment probably will be made at the next session of the Mineral County School Board Tuesday, August 4.

William "Huck" Miers, a native of Keyser, and Piedmont High's cage mentor with a 248-132 record and a 65 per cent average for 16 years, has been favorably mentioned for the post and he is reported to be giving it consideration.

Miers' teams have won four P.V.C. basketball championships in the past six years.

OUR ATTENTION was called several weeks after the high school baseball season ended to a discrepancy that appeared in a game report that cheated a pitcher of a victory to which he was entitled.

It seems that on May 19, LaSalle won at Flintstone by the score of 11-5 and in this game Bobby Green was reported as the winning pitcher and Charley Rice as a pinch-hitter. It was just the opposite, so we are informed.

That win gives Rice a 6-1 record instead of 5-1 for the season and the six strikeouts upped the LaSalle junior's total to 45 in 47⅔ innnigs and made him the County High School League strike-out king for 1959.

The other night, Tojo boxed on a card in Johnstown and lost a decision to Aurie Snook, Lewistown, Pa., policeman.

Patty Berg's 143 Trails By 2 Shots

ALLIANCE, Ohio (UPI)—Faye Crocker, the only foreign entrant in the 72-hole $12,500 Alliance international golf tournament, grabbed the lead at the halfway mark Friday with a one-under-par 70 for a two-day total of 141.

The bespeckled golfer from Montevideo, Uruguay, who admits to being "in her 40s," had rounds of 34-36 over the rolling 6,253-yard course to add to her 71 Thursday. Two strokes behind Miss Crocker was another old-timer—Patty Berg, of St. Andrews, Ill.

Miss Berg, a veteran of 27 years on the golf trails and the all-time money winner, shot a one-over-par 72 for a 36-hole total of 143.

She said she missed "six putts under three feet," but had three birdies.

The first round leader, 19-year-old Kathyann Whitworth, from Jal, N. M., blew to a nine over par 80 as she started out the round with an eight on the third hole. She had a 71 Thursday.

Art Ceccarelli Twirls Chicago To 1-0 Victory

Reds' Bob Purkey Loses Mound Duel

CHICAGO (AP) — Southpaw Art Ceccarelli turned his second National League start into his second victory as he blanked Cincinnati on six hits and scored the only run of the Chicago Cubs' 1-0 triumph here Friday.

Ceccarelli, recalled from Fort Worth of the American Association 10 days ago, walked six and fanned one to give the Cubs their fourth straight victory and sixth triumph in the past seven games to move over the .500 mark at 45-44.

Bob Purkey was the loser, suffering his 10th—third to Chicago—while winning eight. Purkey yielded seven hits as he watched the Cubs score in the fifth.

Catcher Sammy Taylor opened the gates with a single, but was forced at second on Ceccarelli's sacrifice attempt. Tony Taylor bunted for a single as the pitcher stopped at second.

Ripple Rites Set Sunday

JEANNETTE, Pa. (UPI)—Funeral services will be held here Sunday for James A. (Jimmy) Ripple, 49, former major league outfielder who died Thursday after a lengthy illness.

Ripple played for the pennant-winning New York Giants in 1936 and 1937 and the 1940 World Series with the Cincinnati Reds. He also played for the Brooklyn Dodgers and the Philadelphia Athletics in 1943, his last year in the majors.

Senators To Drill

The game scheduled today between the Senators of the Dapper Dan League and the Columbia Street Wildcats has been cancelled. The Senators will practice at 10 a.m., today at Penn Avenue Field.

Larry Adams Posts Triple

Rides 37 Winners At Delaware Park

STANTON, Del., July 17 (AP)—Larry Adams, the hottest jockey at Delaware Park this season, rode three more winners today, completing his triple in the featured Valdina Spirea Purse astride the front-running Michore from the stable of Walter E. Crismer.

Making a show of six rivals in the six furlong dash witnessed by a crowd of 10,832, Michore loped to the wire with five lengths to spare over Harold G. Bensing's Mr. Kip, a slight favorite over the winner.

Michore's backers collected $6, $3.20 and $2.80. Mr. Kip paid $3 and $2.80, with Coral Key $3.60 third. The time on a track that had dried out to fast condition was a snappy 1:11 3/5.

Adams captured the second race on Sew Square, $22, and the fifth astride All Four, $8. He now has 37 triumphs at the 43-day-old meeting and has the local riding title virtually locked up.

Maye Is Recalled

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves Friday recalled Louisville outfielder Lee Maye, the American Assn. RBI leader with 80. The Negro star's .340 batting average is third in the league. He also has 17 homers.

Littler Leads By Five Strokes In New England

Gene Has 12-Below Par Score Of 130

WETHERSFIELD, Conn (UPI)—Gene Littler, with a 12-under par score of 130, increased his lead to five strokes in the second round of the Insurance City Open golf tournament Friday.

Littler continued the "pin point" brand of golf he has displayed since the start of the tournament, moving around the middle of the course with remarkable consistency. His putting moreover has pleased him no end.

He bagged six birdies Friday with putts ranging from 25 to 4 feet, and he again birdied the testing 18th hole, duplicating his first round effort.

His score of 31-35—66 is against par of 35-36—71. Littler needs a 68 Saturday to establish a new low for 54 holes in this eight-year-old event.

Jackie Burke, Jr., the defending titlist, had 199 with a round to go last year.

After Littler, the players were rather well bunched. Bruce Crampton, son of a Sydney, Australia policeman, scored a 66 Friday for 135 matching the score of Bob Goalby of Crystal River, Fla. Goalby had a 67 Friday, a shot better than his Thursday effort.

Then came Al Besselink of Grossinger, N. Y., and Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex., with identical scores of 67-69—136 for fourth place.

The group at 137 included Julius Boros of Mid-Pines, N. C., 69-68, and Wes Ellis, Jr., Aldercrest, N. J., who slipped to a 71 after his opening round 66.

Burke was 10 shots behind the leader with rounds of 69 and 71 for 140, a mark shared by another former Insurance City Open winner, Gardner Dickinson, who has 70-70—140.

Moose Population Up

TORONTO, Ont. (AP) — Ontario's moose are thriving. The Lands and Forests Department reports on the basis of a survey by airmen and trappers the moose population last winter probably numbered about 125,000. That's almost three times the 42,000 of a 1953 survey.

The life expectancy of the famous Leaning Tower of Pisa is set at less than 200 years.

An adult male ostrich may reach a height of approximately eight feet.

Keeping Up With Hollywood

by Louella Parsons

HOLLYWOOD — Notwithstanding the enormous prices being paid for books and plays, $300,000 is a whopping price for an unpublished novel. This is the amount Buddy Adler has planked down for "Big River, Big Man," Thomas W. Duncan's book which won't hit the bookstands until next month. Dick Powell is set to produce and direct the adventure yarn, and John Wayne and Robert Mitchum are the stars Buddy wants, so you can understand why 20th Century-Fox parted with all that moola for "Big River, Big Man."

The setting is the logging camps of Wisconsin in the 19th Century and has a great role for a woman star. "We'll stage a search such as the Scarlett O'Hara campaign for 'Gone With the Wind'," says Buddy. Oh, no! Not another one!

In a week Hal Wallis will be off for Germany with a second unit to film locations for "Cafe Europa," the musical he plans to make the last of the year. "Not a word has been printed about this up-coming picture which has been written by Eddie Beloin and Henry Garson," Hal told me.

"Will you see Elvis Presley in Germany?" I asked Hal who holds a contract with the young man.

He said, "I certainly expect to have luncheon with him and make a social call." I told Hal I was betting he'd discuss Presley's next picture. "We might mention it in passing," he said, "but he's in the Army now and doing a great job. I don't expect anything more than a pleasant few hours with Elvis while he's on leave."

Wouldn't you say Universal-International is really in business? "Imitation of Life" took in one-million dollars in the outlying theatres around New York exclusive of the Roxy.

Milt Rchmil will announce at a sales meeting in Chicago that John Huston will make his long-planned picture, "The Man Who Would Be King," for U-I. This will be one of the studio's important pictures early next year.

Meanwhile John will go to India to scout locations for the famous Rudyard Kipling classic. Aeneas McKenna who adapted the story will accompany him. Paul Kohner represented Huston in the deal which was made with Ed Muhl, executive head of Universal.

Directly from Rome I get the news that Gina Lollobrigida bowed out of "Jovanka." There were many reasons given. One, that she didn't like the script, and another that she and Martin Ritt, the director, didn't see eye to eye.

Ritt long-distanced Lee Remick to ask her to take Gina's role, but Lee, who can write her own ticket after "Anatomy of a Murder," has not yet accepted. She's expecting her husband William Colleran in mid-August and they had planned to spend the summer here together. Also there is "Bunny Lake Is Missing" on her schedule.

Joanne Dru, who has never dyed her natural dark tresses for any movie role, is going violently redheaded for "The Girl in the Red Bikini"—(to match the bikini, Joanne?)—the Eddie Alperson movie for 20th. Furthermore, she's getting herself a 10-weeks trip to Spain and the island of Majorca where the movie will be shot. I remember the clear waters there are perfect for underwater scenes.

In addition to the 25 custom designed swim suits Joanne wears as a bathing suit model, she's also being fitted for a glamorous skin diving outfit. Very exciting—except what's her best fella, Lew Ayres, going to do while Joanne is away so long?

Friends write me from Paris that Gary Cooper created quite a sensation when he attended some of the fashion shows at the French salons. He was helping his daughter, Maria, select some new gowns.

Where Maria is concerned, the sky is the limit, and Coop is so proud of her, as is Rocky. She's not only a beautiful girl, but a darling, and a credit to both her parents.

Moose Population Up

TORONTO, Ont. (AP) — Ontario's moose are thriving. The Lands and Forests Department reports on the basis of a survey by airmen and trappers the moose population last winter probably numbered about 125,000. That's almost three times the 42,000 of a 1953 survey.

4-H Members Make Annual Tour To WVU

KEYSER — The annual 4-H charter tour to West Virginia University was made by Nancy Wagoner, Nancy Pyles, David Pyles, James Bowers, David Bowers, Shirley Headley, Janet Sue Rexrode, Barbara Malone, Jackie Delores Wolfe, Dean Edward Wasson and Lois Ann Long and James F. Bowers Jr., of the Goal Seekers 4-H Club, and County Agent James E. Miller.

The group was taken through the State and 4-H offices, Home Economics Department and the mimeographing and mailing rooms where most of the 4-H project books are handled.

Following lunch and a tour of the Medical Center, they were guided to the animal husbandry farm and the dairy farm. The group returned to Keyser by way of Blackwater Falls.

Pennies Won't Do

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) —Police insisted that John J. Edenfeild, 43, pay his $15 bail on a drunk charge by check. The only cash Edenfield had with him was 4,000 pennies, collected from the vending machines he operates.

Chair Cushion

A lovely chair cushion can be made from scraps of yarn. Put 11 stitches on your knitting needle and knit a straight strip using first one color and the other as long as it lasts. When you have enough to braid into a chair cushion fold the strip in the middle and whip together on one side. After sewing a few inches, stuff with old nylon hose and keep this up until the whole knitted strip is filled. Then braid a round chair cushion from this. It makes a colorful soft chair cushion.

Clean The Windows

The sponge mop comes in handy when washing outside windows that are just above your reach. Just dampen the mop slightly then put an emulsion type cleaner on it. Polish the window with the same mop wrapped with a clean soft cloth held in place with a rubber band.

Students Polled

CHICAGO (UPI) — Scholastic Magazine said a poll of 5,000 high school students showed that it made one-third of them mad to be called "egghead." Second worst word to call the polled students is "spendthrift," the magazine said, but that only gets up the dander of 11 per cent.

4-H Members Make Annual Tour To WVU

KEYSER — The annual 4-H charter tour to West Virginia University was made by Nancy Wagoner, Nancy Pyles, David Pyles, James Bowers, David Bowers, Shirley Headley, Janet Sue Rexrode, Barbara Malone, Jackie Delores Wolfe, Dean Edward Wasson and Lois Ann Long and James F. Bowers Jr., of the Goal Seekers 4-H Club, and County Agent James E. Miller.

The group was taken through the State and 4-H offices, Home Economics Department and the mimeographing and mailing rooms where most of the 4-H project books are handled.

Following lunch and a tour of the Medical Center, they were guided to the animal husbandry farm and the dairy farm. The group returned to Keyser by way of Blackwater Falls.

Pennies Won't Do

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) —Police insisted that John J. Edenfeild, 43, pay his $15 bail on a drunk charge by check. The only cash Edenfield had with him was 4,000 pennies, collected from the vending machines he operates.

Chair Cushion

A lovely chair cushion can be made from scraps of yarn. Put 11 stitches on your knitting needle and knit a straight strip using first one color and the other as long as it lasts. When you have enough to braid into a chair cushion fold the strip in the middle and whip together on one side. After sewing a few inches, stuff with old nylon hose and keep this up until the whole knitted strip is filled. Then braid a round chair cushion from this. It makes a colorful soft chair cushion.

Clean The Windows

The sponge mop comes in handy when washing outside windows that are just above your reach. Just dampen the mop slightly then put an emulsion type cleaner on it. Polish the window with the same mop wrapped with a clean soft cloth held in place with a rubber band.

Students Polled

CHICAGO (UPI) — Scholastic Magazine said a poll of 5,000 high school students showed that it made one-third of them mad to be called "egghead." Second worst word to call the polled students is "spendthrift," the magazine said, but that only gets up the dander of 11 per cent.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. each day the code letters are different.

No Charges To Be Placed In Boy's Death

Burley Youngster Killed By Car

Trooper John Sweitzer of the State Police said last night that no charges will be preferred in the fatal accident June 23 in which seven-year-old Johnny Edward Burley was struck and killed by a car near his home in Bowman's Addition.

The youngster, a son of Chancy and Stella (Mikrut) Burley, was killed when struck by a car operated by Mrs. Virginia Lee Hipsley, 35, also of Bowman's Addition.

Trooper Sweitzer said his investigation of the accident showed that there was no neglect on the part of the operator of the car, Mrs. Hipsley.

After the family alighted from the cab, the youngster started across the highway to his home. He was struck by Mrs. Hipsley's car, which was headed in the opposite direction.

The left front fender of Mrs. Hipsley's car struck the boy and hurled him into the air. He was taken to Sacred Heart Hospital where he was pronounced dead of a fractured skull.

Plot Details Revealed In Payton Trial

By PHIL CORNER

HENDERSON, N. C. (AP)—Details of an alleged conspiracy to blow up vital installations at the struck Harriet - Henderson Cotton Mills were revealed Friday in testimony at the trial of eight union members.

The eight, including Boyd E. Payton, Carolinas director for the Textile Workers Union of America, are on trial at a special term of Vance County Superior Court on dynamite conspiracy charges. Conviction on the three counts with which each is charged carries a maximum sentence of 45 years in prison.

W. C. Wilson, a state bureau of investigation agent, testified two of the defendants admitted complicity in the conspiracy during interrogation shortly after their arrest on the night of June 13.

He quoted Warren Walker, a striker-defendant, as admitting he attended several meetings with other union members at nearby Roanoke Rapids at which plans were mapped and assignments made to blow up the power plant, boiler room and office building at the struck mills here.

Wilson said Walker told him his own assignment was to burn the office building with the assistance of a man he identified only as Harold Aaron, whom he described as a demolition expert.

The agent said Walker identified others at the planning sessions as Lawrence Gore, Payton's principal aide in the Carolinas; Malcolm Jarrell, Calvin Ray Pegram and Robert Edward Abbott, all of whom are charged in the alleged conspiracy.

The Harriet - Henderson mills were struck by the TWUA last November over continuance of an arbitration clause in a new contract. The TWUA still is on strike but the mills reopened in February with non-union help.

National Guardsmen were ordered into the area following outbreaks of violence.

Hearings Set Monday On Parole Violations

Donald W. Mason, assistant state's attorney, reported Carole Virginia Heavner, 18, of Baltimore, and Earl R. Nixon, 20, of 916 Gay Street, will be given hearings Monday in Circuit Court on parole violations.

The girl was given a five-year suspended term last October 9 for her part in the breaking and entering of Mason's Snack Bar. Nixon was given a five-year suspended term June 29 on a charge of burglary.

Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris who imposed the sentences in both cases, will conduct the hearings Monday at 1:15 p. m.

$3,100 Collected At Town Hall In Westernport

More than $3,100 in county and state real estate taxes was collected yesterday at the Westernport Town Hall by Mrs. Anne C. Perdew, a clerk in the office of County Tax Collector William B. Orndorff.

That was the last visit away from the Court House during July by representatives of Mr. Orndorff's office. Payments may be made in person or by mail to the office of Mr. Orndorff in the Court House. A four per cent discount is allowed on county taxes paid this month. In August the discount becomes three per cent.

Mrs. Perdew commented that not all of the collections she received yesterday came from the Westernport area. One woman who paid her taxes in Westernport lives just outside of Frostburg. It would have been a much shorter trip to the Court House in Cumberland.

Larceny Cases Reported Here

City police have received a number of complaints of breaking and entering, larceny and vandalism within the past three days.

Someone broke into a salvage building owned by Henry Miller at 1760 Ford Avenue and stole a quantity of copper valued at $125.

Police said entrance was gained by pulling a screen from the rear window. A barrel containing copper tubing and other copper was stolen.

A Columbia Street resident said three davenport cushions were taken from a davenport in a first-floor hall. The mohair cushions are maroon in color, plain on one side and flowered on the other side.

Harold Lloyd, 950 Bedford Street, said his car was scratched about eight times while parked near 132 Bedford Street. The scratches were made with a stone or nail on the hood, fenders and left side of the car, he reported.

W. E. Crooks Named To Safety Committee

W. E. Crooks, manager of the Amcelle plant of the Celanese Corporation of America, has accepted membership on the honorary committee of Governor Tawes' Safety-Health Conference to be held in Baltimore September 9-10.

Mr. Crooks will be represented at the meeting by Henry A. Johnson, supervisor of safety and plant protection, who has previously participated in this conference.

Top Officials Will Dedicate ABL Facilities

Hercules Head Among Visitors

Top officials from the U.S. Navy Bureau of Ordnance, Fifth Naval District Public Works Office will visit Allegany Ballistics Laboratory next week to dedicate the new Polaris production facilities recently completed after nearly 10 months of construction work.

Rear Admiral W. F. Raborn, director of special projects for the Navy's Bureau of Ordnance, and Captain S. S. Wilson, of the District Public Works Office, Fifth Naval District, will join Hercules President A. E. Forster in the dedication of the approximately five-million-dollar project which was started last September.

The five-phase construction project enlarged the facilities at ABL to enable this Navy-owned and Hercules-operated installation to start a Polaris expansion program.

Development of the Polaris will continue at ABL until in the very near future suitable motors will be available for flight testing.

Navy officials accompanying Admiral Raborn will be Captain Levering Smith, Commander C. A. Zimmerman, Commander M. O. Slater and Lieutenant Commander D. W. Kiley.

Mr. Forster will be accompanied by J. D. Hayes, assistant general manager of the Explosives Department and Ashworth Burslem, public relations manager.

Scout Camp Inspection Due

Representatives of Region 3, Boy Scouts of America, will make their annual inspection of Camp Potomac near Oldtown next Thursday.

Those who will inspect the camp of Potomac Council will be William Condon of the regional office in Philadelphia, Pa.; Major Myron Keefe, who is assigned by the Air Force as staff Explorer officer for Region 3; and Dr. Lawrence H. Blose, president of Yohogania Council, McKeesport, Pa.

Clarence Lippel, newly-elected president of the council, announced the new board also will meet at the camp site next Thursday.

A dinner meeting will be held at 6:15 p.m. and the inspection tour by the visiting representatives will begin at 4 p.m.

To Sing At Church

Miss Ramona Lee Elbin, Houston, Tex., will sing Sunday at 10 a. m. at services at Park Place Methodist Church, LaVale.

Marla K. Minnick Enters Bowman Addition Contest

A third contestant has entered the queen's contest, sponsored by the Bowman's Addition Fire Company and Ladies Auxiliary, in connection with that community's annual summer festival, July 26 to August 1.

Marla Kay Minnick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Minnick of Bowman's Addition is five feet, two inches tall, with brown hair and hazel eyes. She is a junior at Catholic Girls Central High School, and her hobbies are swimming and dancing.

Mayor J. Edwin Keech and members of the City Council will serve as judges for the contest and the queen will be chosen on July 27 at the fire hall.

During the festival there will be a variety of entertainment and attractions, including games, rides, dances, floor shows, booths and refreshments. On Friday night of festival week, there will be a prize given to the largest family attending and registered at the festival headquarters.

Sybert May Be Asked For Civil Service Rule

Leslie J. Clark, attorney to the Allegany County Board of Commissioners, probably will be requested to get an opinion from Attorney General C. Ferdinand Sybert as to whether registrars of the County Board of Election Supervisors are under the county civil service system.

A letter pointing out an apparent conflict was submitted to the county commissioners yesterday by the County Civil Service Board, which includes William L. Wilson, W. Eric Gibbs and Woodward D. Pealer.

Section 63A of Chapter 440 of the Acts of 1957 provided that all persons appointed by the county commissioners or by the executive head of any department who were holding office June 15, 1957, were classified under civil service system of the county unless specifically exempt.

However, the Civil Service Board pointed out that Section 39 of Article 33 of the Public General Laws of Maryland specifically authorized the Board of Election Supervisors to appoint the two registrars of the board, with one representative each of the two major parties.

Attention was first focused on this apparent conflict last fall at the time C. William McDermott, the Democratic registrar, retired. John Zapf, the Democratic substitute, filled the post temporarily and then John R. Kelly was appointed as the new Democratic registrar by the election board.

Two Motorists Get Jail Terms

William Clair, 44, of 211 Bedford Street, was given 60 days in the County Jail in default of fines totaling $275 on three motor violations.

Magistrate F. Allan Weatherholt fined Clair $150 for failure to stop after striking another vehicle, $25 for operating a vehicle on a revoked license, and $100 on the third charge.

Richard Edward Biggs, 26, of 320 Estella Street, was committed to the County Jail for 30 days in default of $212 in fines imposed on three violations by Magistrate Peter J. Carpenti.

Biggs was fined $100 for operating a vehicle on a revoked license, $10 for operating a vehicle on expired tags and $100 on a third charge.

Det. Kenneth Morrissey arrested Biggs Wednesday evening in the Rolling Mill yard.

Damage Suit Filed With Settlement

A $1,500 damage suit and its out-of-court settlement for $1,200 were filed together yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court.

Ruby Leona Smith, an infant, by John Smith and Sara Smith, her parents and next friends, Beryl, W. Va., filed the suit against Robert Francis Bisignano and Genevieve A. Bisignano, 55 Ormond Street, Frostburg.

The declaration said Bisignano was driving the car owned by his mother, Genevieve A. Bisignano, along State Route 36 near Shaft last August 24. The car skidded and he collided with one driven by Thurman G. Kitzmiller in which the Smith girl was a guest passenger. She sustained serious injuries including a broken ankle.

The settlement was signed by Jack I. Mullen, attorney for the plaintiffs, and C. William Gilchrist, attorney for the defendants.

Today Is Last For LaVale Registration

Any LaVale resident who is not properly registered in Election District 29 by noon today will just be out of luck insofar as casting a vote in the August 18 referendum on the proposed LaVale fire tax is concerned.

Since July 1, John R. Kelly, Democratic registrar, and Irvin J. Neat, Republican registrar, have signed up 30 prospective new voters at the office of the Allegany County Board of Election Supervisors in the Court House basement.

The new registrants include 20 Democrats (14 men and six women) and 10 Republicans (seven men and three women.) However, only a small percentage of them actually live in LaVale. The big push among the LaVale residents was in transferring their registration from some other election district, primarily from within the City of Cumberland.

There were 42 transfers to LaVale since July 1. Among them were 23 Republicans (13 men and 10 women), 18 Democrats (nine men and nine women) and one member of another party.

The Board of Election Supervisors' office in the Court House basement will be open from 9 a.m. until noon today for the final registration of LaVale voters. After today, the books for LaVale will be closed until after the August 18 referendum.

Persons already registered need not re-register so long as they are signed up to vote in the area which will be affected by the proposed LaVale fire tax, not to exceed 10 cents on each $100 of assessable property.

Court Probates Mrs. Snyder's Will

The will of Mrs. Mary Ellen Snyder, who died June 29 at the age of 78, was probated yesterday in Allegany County Orphans Court.

Her granddaughter, Joyce C. Boden, 109 Jackson Street, qualified as executrix under a $500 bond. A son, Ellsworth Snyder, St. Mary's, W. Va., was left a cash bequest and all the rest of the estate was bequeathed to her daughter, Mrs. Ethel Snyder Iser, 109 Jackson Street. The will was dated in March of this year.

PPG Arbitration Board Decides Third Dispute

Production Speed Clause Rewritten

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—A three-man arbitration panel, appointed by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. and the United Glass and Ceramic Workers, Friday decided on the third of six issues submitted to it for decision.

The award provides new language in the labor contract between the two parties with respect to speeds of operation and restrictions upon production.

The company and the union had agreed to submit these unresolved issues to arbitration as part of the settlement of the recent strike.

Works 7 Affected

Plants affected by the decision are located at Creighton and Ford City, Pa.; Crystal City, Mo.; Cumberland, Md.; Clarksburg, W.Va.; Mt. Vernon, Ohio, and Henryetta, Okla.

In Cumberland, company officials said it has been the position of the union that under the previous contract language and practices the company could not increase the speed of an established operation beyond previously attained levels without first reaching an agreement with the union as to manpower and on compensation at the increased speeds.

PPG also said that in its award the commission provided a procedure under which speeds of an established operation can be increased. The procedure provides in general that where the company decides to increase the speed of an established operation beyond previously attained levels it must give the union seven days notice.

During the seven days the company and the union will attempt to work out any problems involving alleged hardship upon employes as a result of the contemplated increase in speed and any request of the union for additional compensation at the increased speed, if the operation involves incentive or bonus rates.

Trial Period Provided

If agreement cannot be reached by the end of the seven days, the company may increase the speed of the operation as proposed for a trial period of three weeks. During the trial period the employes may not limit or peg production or speeds.

During the three weeks, the company and the union will continue their efforts to reach agreement. If no agreement is reached at the end of the trial period, the speed of operation will be restored to the pre-trial period level and the dispute referred directly to arbitration under the established labor contract procedure with priority. The arbitrator will have authority to resolve the dispute.

The commission also provided that where limitations on production or speeds had been established by agreement between the company and the union prior to July 1, 1959, such agreements would continue unchanged except where the parties had already submitted a dispute concerning any such agreement to the arbitration commission under the manpower issues still pending, or where technological improvements or process modifications require a change in the production or speeds.

Lions Club To Hear Tire Plant Manager

James Warden, manager of the Kelly-Springfield Tire plant, will be the guest speaker at the weekly meeting of the Cumberland Lions Club Tuesday at 6:15 p.m. in the cafeteria at the tire plant.

Mr. Warden will speak on "The Business of Tire Manufacturing." Following the meeting, members of the club will tour the tire plant.

Mr. Scott has been promoted to production superintendent for Fiber Industries, Inc., a new plant being built by Celanese and Imperial Chemical Industries, Ltd., at Shelby, N. C.

JOAN LEE BUSKIRK

County Girl Will Teach At Fort Hill

Miss Joan Lee Buskirk, RFD 1, Frostburg (Klondyke), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buskirk Sr., has been appointed to teach girls' physical education at Fort Hill High School, Assistant Superintendent of Schools Richard T. Rizer announced yesterday.

She will succeed Mrs. Lenore Kylus Resser, 419 Louisiana Avenue, who is being transferred to Allegany High School to fill a vacancy there. That vacancy was caused by the marriage of Miss C. Maureen Manley to Bernard Spearman last spring and her subsequent move to El Paso, Texas. Mrs. Foy A. Curry served as the substitute teacher for the rest of the spring.

Miss Buskirk was graduated from Beall High School in 1954, and from Frostburg State Teachers College in 1958. Last year she taught girls' physical education at Buck Lodge Junior High School at Adelphi in Prince George's County.

In both high school and college, Miss Buskirk was active in athletics. She belonged to the Future Teachers of America in both high school and college and played varsity basketball at Beall.

Probe Is Asked In Blue Cross Rate Request

Decision Awaits Hearing Transcript

By DAN DONAHUE

BALTIMORE (AP) — Mayor J. Harold Grady and organized labor called for an investigation of Blue Cross insurance rates Friday as a three-day hearing on a proposed Blue Cross rate increase came to a close.

Mayor Grady said he would ask Gov. Tawes to appoint a joint city-state commission in view of Insurance Commissioner F. Douglass Sears' ruling he could not consider the question of hospital efficiency.

A proposal for a governor's commission "composed of all segments of our economic way of life," to investigate the Blue Cross-hospital cost relationships, came from an AFL-CIO official at the outset of the final session.

W. F. Strong of Baltimore, president of the Maryland-District of Columbia AFL-CIO, said in prepared testimony at the hearing:

"We cannot escape the conclusion that with seven hospital members on the board of directors and five physicians, along with nine 'public' members, that Blue Cross has, in effect, been running interference for the hospitals.

To Study Records

"Accurate statistical material is not available, cost-accounting procedures seem to be non-existent or slip-shod . . . If we cannot accurately determine hospital costs, on what reasonable basis can the Maryland Hospital Service accept the hospital's own determination of costs?

"We suggest that it is dangerous when a preponderance of the board membership is comprised of those who benefit directly from the financial transactions involved."

At the close of the hearing, Sears said he would decide whether to allow the increase of 24½ per cent for one million Maryland Blue Cross subscribers "after we have had ample opportunity to review the records."

The commissioner said he would have to wait for a transcript of the hearing, which might take two weeks.

Criticizes Ruling

Most of the final session, which ended at noon, was consumed with an odd type of cross-examination of Reginald Dabney, Blue Cross executive director, by Asst. City Solicitor Blanche G. Wahl of Baltimore.

Mrs. Wahl had to submit her questions in writing in advance. They were read to Dabney by Deputy Insurance Commissioner John H. Coppage. She got to her feet occasionally to expand or interpret, however, and Dabney wound up bringing an accountant up front to handle some of the technical answers.

"Is hospital service being obtained at minimum cost and expense by Blue Cross subscribers?" Mrs. Wahl asked, then answered her own question:

"We have no way of knowing and the commissioner has not permitted us to find out. The commissioner has ruled simply that whatever Blue Cross tells us are the hospital's costs are indeed the minimum hospital costs . . . and the subscriber has no choice but to pay them or get out of the plan."

Leave Hearing

The Sears decision not to permit evidence on hospital charges, accounting and efficiency also brought protests from two Baltimore attorneys, Hyman Pressman and Samuel Culotta.

Pressman stalked out of the hearing Thursday because of Sears' ruling and two other opposing attorneys went with him—Melvin J. Sykes of the Maryland Radiological Society and Charles E. Orth Jr. of the Maryland Society of Pathologists.

Pressman wired Atty. Gen. C. Ferdinand Sybert that a 1957 opinion had held hospital costs germane to a Blue Cross rate hearing and "now Commissioner Sears rules contrarily."

In the same vein, Culotta said: "It would seem that unless the attorney general's office has made a 180-degree turn . . . Commissioners Sears is wrong . . ." He quoted the 1957 opinion:

"You may require the representatives of the hospitals to produce the books and records which are necessary for your inquiry and you may examine the cost-accounting procedures of the hospitals as well as the records of the services for which they are reimbursed, if it is necessary to determine whether the increase of rates is justified."

Vivian Santore Gets Sunshine Camp Award

Vivian Santore, 10 - year - old daughter of Mrs. Vivian Santore, 57 North Centre Street, was awarded a $5 check as the best girl camper at Sunshine Camp, which ends today.

The presentation was made Thursday at the meeting of the Cumberland Kiwanis Club at the camp. This was the 20th consecutive year that the Kiwanis Club has sponsored the camp. The $5 was contributed by James A. Payne, an active Kiwanian of Front Royal, Va., who is executive vice president of the Skyline Caverns. It was in memory of his wife, Mrs. Ann Elizabeth Staples Payne, who died of cancer in June 1958.

No Charges To Be Placed In Boy's Death

Burley Youngster Killed By Car

Trooper John Sweitzer of the State Police said last night that no charges will be preferred in the fatal accident June 23 in which seven-year-old Johnny Edward Burley was struck and killed by a car near his home in Bowman's Addition.

The youngster, a son of Chancy and Stella (Mikrut) Burley, was killed when struck by a car operated by Mrs. Virginia Lee Hipsley, 35, also of Bowman's Addition.

Trooper Sweitzer said his investigation of the accident showed that there was no neglect on the part of the operator of the car, Mrs. Hipsley.

The boy was returning home from Bible school by taxi with his mother and younger brother, Ronald, when the fatal mishap occurred.

Leslie J. Clark, attorney to the Allegany County Board of Commissioners, probably will be requested to get an opinion from Attorney General C. Ferdinand Sybert as to whether registrars of the County Board of Election Supervisors are under the county civil service system.

A letter pointing out an apparent conflict was submitted to the county commissioners yesterday by the County Civil Service Board, which includes William L. Wilson, W. Eric Gibbs and Woodward D. Pealer.

Section 63A of Chapter 440 of the Acts of 1957 provided that all persons appointed by the county commissioners or by the executive head of any department who were holding office June 15, 1957, were classified under civil service system of the county unless specifically exempt.

However, the Civil Service Board pointed out that Section 39 of Article 33 of the Public General Laws of Maryland specifically authorized the Board of Election Supervisors to appoint the two registrars of the board, with one representative each of the two major parties.

Attention was first focused on this apparent conflict last fall at the time C. William McDermott, the Democratic registrar, retired. John Zapf, the Democratic substitute, filled the post temporarily and then John R. Kelly was appointed as the new Democratic registrar by the election board.

Two Motorists Get Jail Terms

Two local motorists were given jail terms in default of fines imposed at hearings in Trial Magistrate Court yesterday.

William Clair, 44, of 211 Bedford Street, was given 60 days in the County Jail in default of fines totaling $275 on three motor violations.

Magistrate F. Allan Weatherholt fined Clair $150 for failure to stop after striking another vehicle, $25 for operating a vehicle on a revoked license, and $100 on the third charge.

City Police Officers Kenneth Henry and Harold Gibson arrested Clair earlier this week following an accident on Long Hill.

Richard Edward Biggs, 26, of 320 Estella Street, was committed to the County Jail for 30 days in default of $212 in fines imposed on three violations by Magistrate Peter J. Carpenti.

Biggs was fined $100 for operating a vehicle on a revoked license, $10 for operating a vehicle on expired tags and $100 on a third charge.

Det. Kenneth Morrissey arrested Biggs Wednesday evening in the Rolling Mill yard.

Damage Suit Filed With Settlement

A $1,500 damage suit and its out-of-court settlement for $1,200 were filed together yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court.

Ruby Leona Smith, an infant, by John Smith and Sara Smith, her parents and next friends, Beryl, W. Va., filed the suit against Robert Francis Bisignano and Genevieve A. Bisignano, 55 Ormond Street, Frostburg.

The declaration said Bisignano was driving the car owned by his mother, Genevieve A. Bisignano, along State Route 36 near Shaft last August 24. The car skidded and he collided with one driven by Thurman G. Kitzmiller in which the Smith girl was a guest passenger. She sustained serious injuries including a broken ankle.

The settlement was signed by Jack I. Mullen, attorney for the plaintiffs, and C. William Gilchrist, attorney for the defendants.

Today Is Last For LaVale Registration

Any LaVale resident who is not properly registered in Election District 29 by noon today will just be out of luck insofar as casting a vote in the August 18 referendum on the proposed LaVale fire tax is concerned.

Since July 1, John R. Kelly, Democratic registrar, and Irvin J. Neat, Republican registrar, have signed up 30 prospective new voters at the office of the Allegany County Board of Election Supervisors in the Court House basement.

The new registrants include 20 Democrats (14 men and six women) and 10 Republicans (seven men and three women.) However, only a small percentage of them actually live in LaVale. The big push among the LaVale residents was in transferring their registration from some other election district, primarily from within the City of Cumberland.

There were 42 transfers to LaVale since July 1. Among them were 23 Republicans (13 men and 10 women), 18 Democrats (nine men and nine women) and one member of another party.

The Board of Election Supervisors' office in the Court House basement will be open from 9 a.m. until noon today for the final registration of LaVale voters. After today, the books for LaVale will be closed until after the August 18 referendum.

Persons already registered need not re-register so long as they are signed up to vote in the area which will be affected by the proposed LaVale fire tax, not to exceed 10 cents on each $100 of assessable property.

Court Probates Mrs. Snyder's Will

The will of Mrs. Mary Ellen Snyder, who died June 29 at the age of 78, was probated yesterday in Allegany County Orphans Court.

Her granddaughter, Joyce C. Boden, 109 Jackson Street, qualified as executrix under a $500 bond. A son, Ellsworth Snyder, St. Mary's, W. Va., was left a cash bequest and all the rest of the estate was bequeathed to her daughter, Mrs. Ethel Snyder Iser, 109 Jackson Street. The will was dated in March of this year.

PPG Arbitration Board Decides Third Dispute

Production Speed Clause Rewritten

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—A three-man arbitration panel, appointed by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. and the United Glass and Ceramic Workers, Friday decided on the third of six issues submitted to it for decision.

The award provides new language in the labor contract between the two parties with respect to speeds of operation and restrictions upon production.

The company and the union had agreed to submit these unresolved issues to arbitration as part of the settlement of the recent strike.

Works 7 Affected

Plants affected by the decision are located at Creighton and Ford City, Pa.; Crystal City, Mo.; Cumberland, Md.; Clarksburg, W.Va.; Mt. Vernon, Ohio, and Henryetta, Okla.

In Cumberland, company officials said it has been the position of the union that under the previous contract language and practices the company could not increase the speed of an established operation beyond previously attained levels without first reaching an agreement with the union as to manpower and on compensation at the increased speeds.

PPG also said that in its award the commission provided a procedure under which speeds of an established operation can be increased. The procedure provides in general that where the company decides to increase the speed of an established operation beyond previously attained levels it must give the union seven days notice.

During the seven days the company and the union will attempt to work out any problems involving alleged hardship upon employes as a result of the contemplated increase in speed and any request of the union for additional compensation at the increased speed, if the operation involves incentive or bonus rates.

Trial Period Provided

If agreement cannot be reached by the end of the seven days, the company may increase the speed of the operation as proposed for a trial period of three weeks. During the trial period the employes may not limit or peg production or speeds.

During the three weeks, the company and the union will continue their efforts to reach agreement. If no agreement is reached at the end of the trial period, the speed of operation will be restored to the pre-trial period level and the dispute referred directly to arbitration under the established labor contract procedure with priority. The arbitrator will have authority to resolve the dispute.

The commission also provided that where limitations on production or speeds had been established by agreement between the company and the union prior to July 1, 1959, such agreements would continue unchanged except where the parties had already submitted a dispute concerning any such agreement to the arbitration commission under the manpower issues still pending, or where technological improvements or process modifications require a change in the production or speeds.

JOAN LEE BUSKIRK

County Girl Will Teach At Fort Hill

Miss Joan Lee Buskirk, RFD 1, Frostburg (Klondyke), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buskirk Sr., has been appointed to teach girls' physical education at Fort Hill High School, Assistant Superintendent of Schools Richard T. Rizer announced yesterday.

She will succeed Mrs. Lenore Kylus Resser, 419 Louisiana Avenue, who is being transferred to Allegany High School to fill a vacancy there. That vacancy was caused by the marriage of Miss C. Maureen Manley to Bernard Spearman last spring and her subsequent move to El Paso, Texas. Mrs. Foy A. Curry served as the substitute teacher for the rest of the spring.

Miss Buskirk was graduated from Beall High School in 1954, and from Frostburg State Teachers College in 1958. Last year she taught girls' physical education at Buck Lodge Junior High School at Adelphi in Prince George's County.

In both high school and college, Miss Buskirk was active in athletics. She belonged to the Future Teachers of America in both high school and college and played varsity basketball at Beall.

Probe Is Asked In Blue Cross Rate Request

Decision Awaits Hearing Transcript

By DAN DONAHUE

BALTIMORE (AP) — Mayor J. Harold Grady and organized labor called for an investigation of Blue Cross insurance rates Friday as a three-day hearing on a proposed Blue Cross rate increase came to a close.

Mayor Grady said he would ask Gov. Tawes to appoint a joint city-state commission in view of Insurance Commissioner F. Douglass Sears' ruling he could not consider the question of hospital efficiency.

A proposal for a governor's commission "composed of all segments of our economic way of life," to investigate the Blue Cross-hospital cost relationships, came from an AFL-CIO official at the outset of the final session.

W. F. Strong of Baltimore, president of the Maryland-District of Columbia AFL-CIO, said in prepared testimony at the hearing:

"We cannot escape the conclusion that with seven hospital members on the board of directors and five physicians, along with nine 'public' members, that Blue Cross has, in effect, been running interference for the hospitals.

To Study Records

"Accurate statistical material is not available, cost-accounting procedures seem to be non-existent or slip-shod . . . If we cannot accurately determine hospital costs, on what reasonable basis can the Maryland Hospital Service accept the hospital's own determination of costs?

"We suggest that it is dangerous when a preponderance of the board membership is comprised of those who benefit directly from the financial transactions involved."

At the close of the hearing, Sears said he would decide whether to allow the increase of 24½ per cent for one million Maryland Blue Cross subscribers "after we have had ample opportunity to review the records."

The commissioner said he would have to wait for a transcript of the hearing, which might take two weeks.

Criticizes Ruling

Most of the final session, which ended at noon, was consumed with an odd type of cross-examination of Reginald Dabney, Blue Cross executive director, by Asst. City Solicitor Blanche G. Wahl of Baltimore.

Mrs. Wahl had to submit her questions in writing in advance. They were read to Dabney by Deputy Insurance Commissioner John H. Coppage. She got to her feet occasionally to expand or interpret, however, and Dabney wound up bringing an accountant up front to handle some of the technical answers.

"Is hospital service being obtained at minimum cost and expense by Blue Cross subscribers?" Mrs. Wahl asked, then answered her own question:

"We have no way of knowing and the commissioner has not permitted us to find out. The commissioner has ruled simply that whatever Blue Cross tells us are the hospital's costs are indeed the minimum hospital costs . . . and the subscriber has no choice but to pay them or get out of the plan."

Leave Hearing

The Sears decision not to permit evidence on hospital charges, accounting and efficiency also brought protests from two Baltimore attorneys, Hyman Pressman and Samuel Culotta.

Pressman stalked out of the hearing Thursday because of Sears' ruling and two other opposing attorneys went with him—Melvin J. Sykes of the Maryland Radiological Society and Charles E. Orth Jr. of the Maryland Society of Pathologists.

Pressman wired Atty. Gen. C. Ferdinand Sybert that a 1957 opinion had held hospital costs germane to a Blue Cross rate hearing and "now Commissioner Sears rules contrarily."

In the same vein, Culotta said: "It would seem that unless the attorney general's office has made a 180-degree turn . . . Commissioners Sears is wrong . . ." He quoted the 1957 opinion:

"You may require the representatives of the hospitals to produce the books and records which are necessary for your inquiry and you may examine the cost-accounting procedures of the hospitals as well as the records of the services for which they are reimbursed, if it is necessary to determine whether the increase of rates is justified."

Vivian Santore Gets Sunshine Camp Award

Vivian Santore, 10 - year - old daughter of Mrs. Vivian Santore, 57 North Centre Street, was awarded a $5 check as the best girl camper at Sunshine Camp, which ends today.

The presentation was made Thursday at the meeting of the Cumberland Kiwanis Club at the camp. This was the 20th consecutive year that the Kiwanis Club has sponsored the camp. The $5 was contributed by James A. Payne, an active Kiwanian of Front Royal, Va., who is executive vice president of the Skyline Caverns. It was in memory of his wife, Mrs. Ann Elizabeth Staples Payne, who died of cancer in June 1958.
